Poldini's Impressionistic Concert Etudes in Newell Albright's Program This Evening

NEWELL ALBRIGHT

In his recital this evening in Fahnstock Hall, Newell Albright will have the unique distinction of presenting in their entirety, for the first time in this country, the eight remarkably impressionistic concert studies written for and dedicated to the famous virtuoso, Emil Sauer, by Poldini. In fact none of the compositions in Mr. Albright's program, from the Beethoven Concerto to the sensational "Islamite" fantasy by Balakirev have ever had a public hearing in this city.
