FIRST NIBLO TRAVEL TRAIL BIG SUCCESS

Telegraph Tourists Had Exciting Journey Through Land of Riddles

A large and good natured crowd braved a wintry gale last night and with the aid of coupons from the Telegraph enjoyed the first of the Niblo Travel Trail on "Russia" at the Chestnut street auditorium. Obstacles loomed up in the way of the travelers in the shape of poor electrical current, blown out plugs and a chilly hall, but once on the journey through "The Land of Riddles" everybody forgot about the troubles of the evening and had a happy time viewing the scenes of a strange land.

With the travelers last night as guide and lecturer was Arthur B. Rice, whose talks made the journey all the more interesting. Mr. Rice showed various pictures of interest in and about Russia. His stories concerning the Czar and his family, and many different classes of people found, showed conclusively that he had acquired his knowledge by personal visits to Russia.

Both stereopticon views in colors, at least 150 of them, and frequent introductions of moving pictures of prominent scenes and customs made the program one of the best.

SINGING AND TALKING PICTURES MAKE BIG HIT AT VICTORIA

Perfect singing, talking and dancing motion pictures from the Renfax Film Company of New York were demonstrated at the Victoria theater yesterday afternoon and evening before large audiences which much enjoyed the new feature in movies. The pictures brought before the audience some of the most noted singers, dancers and performers in stage life for a small cost of admission.

The big number from the Honey-moon Express was especially well done by six clever people with all the necessary scenic effects. The big song number Apple Blossom Time in Normandy appeared by ten or more men and women was another big hit as well as Kiss Me Good Night, Let Her Go and I Love Her Oh, Oh, Oh.

Many saw the real tango dance performed by Miss Perot and Mr. Howard as presented in the cabaret at Regency in New York. These clever dancers posed for this picture and were very satisfying.

So many were the expressions of satisfaction on the part of yesterday's audiences that it was decided to hold the pictures over for another day and they will be included in to-day's program in conjunction with a large number of additional features.

THE DARKNESS
 The darkness has been very kind to me; She has shut out the white flame of the world; Hidden the sun of sorrow when it hurried Its beams on me, and I was lost in night; She brought the velvet healing of the night; Why should I be frantic with the staring day; Till round about me her great spirit day; A waveless ocean, drowning my dismay; It has been decided to hold Her quiet as; the day's griefs, one by one; Drift to the shore of long-forgotten days; And hushed are the loud earth's old echoes; Deep in her bosom, deep, Oh, very deep; I hide my head when her first shaggy air Good Night, let Her go; And sink at last within the pool of Sleep; Charles Hanson Towne in Collier's Weekly.

ALPHONSE PEGOUD DOES REAL AEROPLANE WALTZ

Tilting His Biplane High Over Paris The visit of H. Alphonse Pegoud, France's most daring aviator, who will arrive in New York the first week in May, will be one of the big events in the aerial history of 1914. Pegoud intends to display the latest styles in flying for the benefit of our Yankee dare-devils. His program will include Pegoud's air waltz, jumping the waves, back somersaults, looping the loop and flying in spirals, held downward.

TRADING DURING DAY WAS NOT VERY LIVELY

Chicago Board of Trade
 Furnished by H. W. SNAVELY, Chicago, Ill., March 3.

By Associated Press
 New York, March 3. - Trading during the morning was on almost as small a basis as yesterday. The market still felt the effect of the storm, particularly in the curtailment of outside business owing to the continued interruption of wire communication.

There was no large quantity of stock pressing for sale, and although the early movement was downward, the small decline was followed by a recovery, and by noon prices were restored to about on a level with yesterday's close. London selling was largely responsible for the early recessions. Bonds were steady.

Lasky Asks McDonald For Condensed Version of "Brady's Dream"

Leo McDonald, author, composer and stage director of the Elks' musical comedy that is to be given its first local showing at the Majestic Theater to-night, is in receipt of an offer from Jesse L. Lasky, the well-known vaudeville producer, for a condensed version of "George Brady's Dream" for professional vaudeville use. There are enough good points about the successful musical comedy, "George Brady's Dream," to make an excellent vaudeville act, with something doing every minute, not only in the line of songs and comedy, but the gorgeous gowns and handsome staging blend excellently with the Lasky idea in theatricals.

The Carlisle Elks, who are to present the show here to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening for the benefit of the Harrisburg Elks, will reach Harrisburg late this afternoon and give a parade from the station to their home and thence to the theater for rehearsal for to-night's play. They will be met by the reception committee recently appointed by the Elks. Indications are that the opening performance of the musical comedy will be well attended.
