

FRIENDS ENDORSE JUDGE KUNKEL

HON. B. F. MEYERS

be strengthened by the elevation to that bench of one of our ablest, public prosecutor, legislator, and judge has always observed the best traditions of the legal profession; and finally, his sincere wish—as those best able to speak of Judge Kunkel's legal fitness for the higher court—to make known the universal respect and confidence which led to his unanimous re-election last year after a decade of able and impartial service in the Dauphin county courts.

A committee on committees was appointed with authority to name such other committees as may be necessary to cooperate with the Dauphin County Bar Association for notices which have begun a vigorous campaign for Judge Kunkel all over the State.

Mr. Meyers Presides

There has been seldom in the history of the city so representative a meeting as that of last evening. Men from all walks of life and nearly every occupation were present. The meeting started out to be a little neighborhood gathering but it wound up in nothing short of a mass meeting. The court room could not have held another person when William Jennings stepped forward and asked for nominations for chairman. B. F. Meyers nominated Hon. B. F. Meyers to preside and Mercer B. Tate as secretary. They were elected unanimously and Mr. Jennings named Mr. Burns and Francis J. Hall as a committee to escort Mr. Meyers to the chair.

The room rang with applause as Mr. Meyers took the chair and there were loud calls for a speech.

"Some ten years ago," said Mr. Meyers, "I was engaged in a nonpartisan judgeship campaign. I believed then in a nonpartisan judiciary and I believe in it now. While at that time the anti-machine party, as we called ourselves, was opposed to Judge Kunkel, I came before you now asking for your support in his candidacy for the Supreme Court judgeship, for the reason that Judge Kunkel has made good on the Dauphin county bench. Of his legal ability I have no need to say anything, for it is well known. Of his integrity I could not say too much. While I opposed him when he was first elected, I was glad to vote for him when he ran for re-election last Fall. I would be sorry to see him leave the bench, but I am simply here on the other hand, I would be glad to see him elevated to the Supreme bench, because I believe he is pre-eminently the man for the place."

It was at this point Mr. Stackpole asked permission to present the foregoing resolutions, which were unanimously adopted and placed on the minutes. He said the whole inception and purpose of the meeting was to give the laymen of the city an opportunity to be heard. "The members of the bar," said he, "have put themselves on record and are doing admirable work in promoting the candidacy of Judge Kunkel in every possible way. A great many of his friends among those who are not members of the bar have expressed a desire to be heard in some way and it seems to be now an excellent opportunity for those who are here to say what they would like to say about Judge Kunkel. We are not here as lawyers; we are simply here as ordinary, everyday citizens. I think we ought to say what we have to say about one whom we respect and honor as we do Judge Kunkel."

Railroad Endorsement

Milton T. Robinson, who was present as the official representative of the Brotherhood of Trainmen, said he spoke for that large and influential order when he heartily endorsed all that had been said in favor of Judge Kunkel's candidacy. "I represent the Brotherhood of Trainmen," said he, "numbering in its membership thousands of voters in all parts of the State. I ask that the name of our organization be specifically mentioned as supporting Judge Kunkel. Our members do not forget his splendidly prepared decision sustaining the constitutionality of the law."

"I represent the Brotherhood of Trainmen," said he, "numbering in its membership thousands of voters in all parts of the State. I ask that the name of our organization be specifically mentioned as supporting Judge Kunkel. Our members do not forget his splendidly prepared decision sustaining the constitutionality of the law. I am sure that the people of this State will all agree that fitness must be the first consideration, and I am sure that in asking the people to support Judge Kunkel we are backing a man who will add character and ability to the office. Possibly the greatest tribute that could be paid him is to find, as we do here this evening, dozens of men supporting him who were his bitterest opponents when he first ran for judge."

J. V. W. Reynolds, vice-president of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, said he desired "to speak a word for the people to support Judge Kunkel. The fact that Judge Kunkel's most ardent supporters at this time are the very men who opposed him most vigorously a decade ago. Mr. Reynolds thought it the duty of the judge's townfolks to see to it that he becomes as well known over the State as he is at home. He pledged the support of the Pennsylvania Steel Company to Judge Kunkel. George W. Straw said he was among those ten years ago who had done the best they could to defeat Judge Kunkel; that he had stumped the county against him; but the judge had confounded his opponents of that election by fine service, and while his elevation to the higher court would be a great loss to the citizens of Dauphin county, it would be a credit to his constituents to see him elevated to that exalted position. Mr. O'Shaughnessy said: "I am not a resident of Harrisburg. I know it to be a fact that the lawyers all over this State are obliged to come here occasionally before Judge Kunkel, and the fair treatment he has received from him has ingratiated him in their hearts, so much so that you must not forget that he has friends in all parts of this Commonwealth, and you will not have any trouble, if you issue a circular letter, that you will find many people, many and willing people, throughout the State to help you out in this great cause." The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Dauphin county's candidate for the Supreme Court. On motion of D. E. Tracey a committee on committees was appointed as follows: Ed. S. Herman, Samuel Kunkel, B. F. Burns, George W. Rely and H. C. Ross. This committee has power to name such other committees as may be deemed necessary to cooperate with the Dauphin county bar committees now actively engaged in furthering Judge Kunkel's candidacy over the State. Also on motion of E. Z. Wallower a resolution was passed calling on all Dauphin county people to get into touch with their friends in other parts of the State and urge them to take an active interest in promoting the Kunkel campaign. Letters of Regret The following letters of regret were read by Secretary Tate from prominent Harrisburgers unable to attend but who wanted to go on record as supporting the movement: Mr. E. J. Stackpole, Harrisburg, Pa. My dear Mr. Stackpole: I am in receipt of a communication dated March 13 and signed by yourself and other gentlemen, inviting me to a conference in courtroom No. 2 on the evening of the sixteenth of March at 8 o'clock, to confer with you and others about ways and means for promoting the candidacy of the Honorable George Kunkel for the Supreme Court. Inasmuch as I am better acquainted with you than either of the other gentlemen whose names are affixed to the call, I make direct reply to you. It affords me no little pleasure to say that I hold myself in readiness to assist in every way possible the accomplishment of the purpose which brings you and others together. But because of certain duties in connection with the honing and caring for the 300 or more Methodist preachers who will be in our city next week, many of whom will arrive on Monday evening, I greatly fear that I cannot be present at the above meeting and I therefore send this note so that you may know that I am entirely in sympathy with this movement. It will be one of the chief joys of my life, to assist in every way possible the election of Mr. Kunkel to this exalted office. While other good and capable men will aspire for the place, I candidly believe that no one so fully equipped by nature and experience will ask for the suffrage of the people. The Honorable George Kunkel has made the best and the most impartial Judge I have ever known. He could not always do the things I thought he ought to do; but he did that which was better—fearlessly did what he himself conscientiously believed to be right within the meaning of the law he was sworn to execute. It affords me all the more pleasure to thus attest to his eminent fitness, because when he was a candidate ten or more years ago for Judge of the courts of Dauphin county I as earnestly opposed his election as I shall now seek to promote it. I did so conscientiously, but his record the past ten years fully demonstrates how thoroughly, though honestly, one might be mistaken. I fully believe that his- tory cannot show a more honest and conscientious devotion to duty than Mr. Kunkel has written during the past ten years. Every lawyer ought to be proud of it, and especially the members of his own bar. I write this, fearing that I may not be able to be present at the above meeting. Should I be able to get through with my work and the 6 ties assigned me in time to be with you, even though at a late hour, I shall certainly do so. At any rate, permit me to say that any duty that may at any time be assigned me, or any service I can render in promoting the object sought, will be most cheerfully given. By so doing I believe I shall best serve my day and generation. With sincere personal respect for yourself and the other gentlemen of the committee, I beg to remain, Respectfully yours, B. H. HART. J. Horace McFarland Writes Mr. William Jennings, Harrisburg, Pa. Dear Mr. Jennings: I have your circular letter of yesterday concerning the meeting called for Monday evening in courtroom No. 2, to consider ways and means for promoting the candidacy of Judge Kunkel for the Supreme Court. I am most heartily in favor of this movement, notwithstanding the fact that the success with which it ought to meet will be a real misfortune to Harrisburg and to the State of Pennsylvania. Mr. Kunkel's services to the State have been notable, and while it is very proper indeed that he should have the preferment indicated, I believe his great usefulness in his present position is of vast importance. I would gladly be present at the meeting were it not for the fact that serious illness in my family makes it impracticable for me to get away in the evening. My dear Mr. Jennings: Your favor at hand. It will be impossible for me to be present at the meeting Monday, March 16, 8 p. m. But you have my cordial endorsement of Judge Kunkel as to his character and eminent fitness for the Supreme Court position. Yours sincerely, JOHN D. FOX. From Millersburg Dear Mr. Jennings: I will not be able to be at the meeting on the 16th, but be assured that I and all the voters of this section, irrespective of party, will be only too glad to favor Judge Kunkel for any office or position in the State. Respectfully yours, J. S. GILBERT, Millersburg, Pa. A. K. Walton's Telegram Allen K. Walton, of Brownstone, sent the following telegram: "Regret cannot meet with you this evening. Heartily endorse Judge Kunkel. Eminent qualified for Supreme Court. Glad to assist in any way. Allen K. Walton." Fred P. Margerum, of Elizabethville, wrote: "Will be happy to see Judge Kunkel thus honored, but cannot arrange to be present at the meeting Monday night. Sorry. Will do all possible to help cause." There were voters present from all parts of the city and county. NEW RANK FOR COL. GOETHALS Washington, D. C., March 17.—A bill to give Colonel George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal, the rank of major-general was introduced yesterday by Chairman Hay, of the House committee on military affairs.
