Allments of Men Happily Overcome

SUCCESSFULLY TRIED BY MANY.

Undoubtedly the following prescription will work wonders for that great class of men who, through disipation of their vital strength, find themselves in their "second childhood" long before the three score and ten allotted to life's pleasures and enjoyments are reached.

It is presumed to be infallible, and highly efficient in quickly restoring in "nervous exhaustion" the vitality, melancholia and the functions.

First get fifty cents' worth of compound fluid balmwort in a one-ounce package, and three ounces syrup sarsaparilla compound; take home, mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cadomene). Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well, and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring followed by a drink of water.

By mixing it at home no man need be the wiser as to another's shortcomings, and expensive fees are avoided.

Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full bounding health, and all the happiness accompanying it, the above home treatment is given, devoid of any habit-forming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your affliction.—Advertisement.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More

A Physician's Advice

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to fat up a few pounds as they say that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, and is a scientific combination of six of the best strength-giving fat-producing elements known to us.

Taken with meals, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood, and its rapid effect is remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. See, and get, G. A. Gorgas and other good druggists everywhere, and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Caution—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in the treatment of nervous indigestion and general stomach disorders, it should not, owing to its remarkable heat-producing effect, be used by those who are not willing to increase their weight ten pounds or more.—Advertisement.

RID YOURSELF OF THAT IRRITATING COLD

BRUMBAUGH IS OUT FOR GOVERNOR

Brumbaugh, when he had finished reading. "No one but myself had a hand in its preparation. It speaks my own views, and in the event of my election every pledge made therein will be conscientiously and sacredly kept. I do not now contemplate any further appeal to the voters. I shall be at my desk to-morrow morning, my official duties as usual. In the event of my nomination by the people, however, I shall enter upon a campaign to make effective the will of the voters expressed at uniform primary.

Strong in This Section

Coming as he does from the Juniata valley, Dr. Brumbaugh is very strong among Republicans in Dauphin, Cumberland and Perry counties. There are many men who have been aligned with the Democratic and Washington parties who will vote for him. These people have been expressing their confidence in him ever since his name has been mentioned. He has been pleased to-day at the straightforwardness and the progressiveness of the platform of the candidates.

In the opinion of men who have been observing conditions Dr. Brumbaugh is far and away the strongest man in the field to-day and his platform has placed him in the lead for the gubernatorial chair.

CALL FROM HOME FOLKS

"In response to the call of the 'home folks' in my native county, Huntingdon, and in answer to the requests of thousands of other good citizens, I have decided to submit my name to the voters as a candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket at the May primaries.

I have not been an office seeker nor an office holder in any political or partisan sense. My life has been devoted to the educational needs of this Commonwealth and of the country at large. I have endeavored to serve all the people and to be just and helpful to all pupils and teachers for whom so much of my life has been given. My life's work must be my platform and my pledge. I have no different gift of service for my fellow citizens. What I have honestly labored to do I shall continue to do.

"I have no entangling alliances of any sort. I am under no promise, nor have I made any such. I shall never be a party to any such thing. If elected, it must be with the definite understanding that I shall be entirely free to perform my official duties as a whole, I shall reverently and humbly endeavor to do my duty in harmony with my conscience and under the guidance of the Divine.

"I shall say nothing to get a vote that I will not say after the vote is given. He is blind indeed, who does not see everywhere in wider intelligence, aroused citizenship, quickened conscience and greater devotion to civic righteousness, the signs of an increasingly virtuous quality in our people. Officials of all stations must conform to this great awakening or suffer the consequences. Only those who serve the people who will lead them to the best in social, industrial and educational progress. I submit my candidacy unreservedly upon this high plane and assure the people that I shall give my full strength to its accomplishment.

"I hold to the wise division of governmental functions as provided in our constitution. It is not right to promise what one cannot do. My sense of the right prevents me from declaring for issues of moment when such declarations are intended solely to secure votes. The Legislature enacts our laws. The judiciary interprets our laws. The quality of administration is the first concern and duty of the Governor. It will be my fixed purpose to apply with certainty and impartiality the laws of our Commonwealth. I recognize also the binding obligation imposed by law to advise the Legislature upon all wise and resist any attempt to foist any other sort upon the people. The veto power is a legal regulator and conservator. I shall not hesitate to encourage legislation of the most advanced practical kind. We grow rapidly into new social and economic conditions. These must be met by wise and effective regulation.

THE WELFARE OF TOILETS

"(1) The most precious asset of the Commonwealth is its people. Their daily duty is to toil. I shall gladly welcome any laws that make proper provision for the protection of laborers, whether men or women or children. The child above fourteen should be in school or at work. He should never be allowed to loaf upon the street as he now does. I also believe in an advanced workmen's compensation act and in an employers' liability act that includes large industrial and corporate activity but not the farm and the household.

ADVANCED ROAD LEGISLATION.

"(2) Our people should have easy access to the markets with their products. It is our duty to keep our roads, honestly and economically constructed. The State should build good roads wherever traffic demands the same. The roads so constructed should be placed under competent men whose duty it will be to keep these roads constantly in good condition. The roads already taken over by the State and not yet rebuilt should at once be made passable. It is a disgrace to allow them to remain as they now are. The State has an imperative obligation to make ample provision for the complete realization of the act of the last Legislature. This act gave assurance to the several townships of a 50 per cent. support to supplement local initiative in road building. The funds have not been provided to meet the very proper requests of the townships. There should be great reaches of good dirt roads well crowned, properly graded and amply drained. Large appropriations must be made to carry out these vitally needed improvements. Every toll road in this Commonwealth should be abolished.

FAVORS LOCAL OPTION

"(3) The problem of the liquor traffic is a vital one facing the people and the Legislature to-day. In harmony with many thoughtful persons, I submit that local option is a practical solution. Any legislative measure looking to an improvement of the conditions regulating this traffic will receive my approval.

EFFICIENCY IN GOVERNMENT

"(4) The public service should be as efficient as private service. I be-

Sore Throat or Mouth.

You must keep the throat and mouth clean and healthy. Any disease that attacks the canal through which must pass the food we eat, the beverages we drink and the very air we breathe is a serious matter. Why neglect Sore Throat or Sore Mouth when TONSILINE makes it so easy for you to get relief? TONSILINE is the remedy specially prepared for that purpose. TONSILINE does its full duty—you can depend upon it. Keep a bottle in the house—where you can get it quick when needed. 25c. and 50c. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

live in an administration of scientific efficiency and would approve a sane and practical State civil service act. My experience in administering such a law in the selection of teachers confirms this opinion.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE

"(5) The last Legislature passed a resolution submitting to the people an amendment to the Constitution providing for woman suffrage. The next Legislature should pass this wise amendment and give the people the opportunity to vote upon this important measure.

CONSERVATION

"(6) The natural resources of our State are a heritage of which we are the responsible guardians. We must be false to the succeeding generations if we do not pass these as nearly unimpaired as possible to our posterity. The public control of our water powers and the reforestation of our hills and mountains are obligations of commanding importance.

SCIENTIFIC AGRICULTURE

"(7) The enduring source of good to our people is the soil. It should be cared for in the most effective way. The Legislature cannot make too liberal provision for active co-operation with all agencies at work to enlighten the people, to conserve their health, to promote their happiness and to increase the rewards of labor, whether expensed upon the soil or elsewhere. Every effort that makes for prosperous, contented toilers is wholly commendable and permanently worth while. A training for vocation that does not include training in agriculture is inadequate training.

EDUCATION

"(8) The right education of our youth is a paramount obligation. There should be increasing appropriations for education as the number of pupils to be educated increases. We should expend enough for education to guarantee under wise regulation and supervision the return in capable citizens we long for and should attain. Wherever the funds of the Commonwealth go its supervision should follow. So long as a single child is born into a home that does not front a school we shall need more and better educational facilities. Provision for a greatly enlarged permanent school fund should be made by the Legislature. The education of our youth ought not to rest upon the insecure foundations of current taxes and annual appropriations.

REORGANIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS

"(9) There is neither sense nor justice in untended appropriations to our various departments and agencies. These constitute important and wholly worthy objects of public concern and support. The Legislature should know from competent authority and should read and follow such knowledge in making its appropriations. Moreover, the bounty of the State should never exceed the assured income of the State. It should not occur that the obligation of lessening this bounty should be placed upon the executive. It is a definite duty of the Legislature and to that body I shall turn to insist that its gift shall not exceed its resources.

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION

"(10) I would welcome legislation providing a thoroughly effective and just regulation of corporate activities, providing increased power of local development of our great municipalities, providing improved and extended commercial facilities by land and by water, providing a modern and equitable system of taxation, providing increased protection to life and property, and providing such additional legislation as will meet the reasonable needs of our people.

"I reserve the privilege of discussing other issues of moment as they may arise.

"I have neither sympathy nor respect for those who exploit the people for their personal gain. I have never done this. I have never countenanced it. I will never allow it to be done in my administration.

"The decision to become a candidate was taken only after mature thought and in the sincere conviction that it is my duty to do so. I desire to promote the highest good of all the people. Every race, sex, creed and condition must be considered alike and treated alike in this Commonwealth. My love for my native State is largely due to the fact that from the days of the great Penn we have steadily held to these ideals. It will be my pleasure to help make these ideals increasingly substantial accomplishments.

"I invite and welcome the support of all citizens, regardless of partisan alignment, who believe with me that the day has come when only capacity character and their expression in conduct should be considered in selecting public officials. I agree that we need a moral standard in all public service. I welcome a campaign upon the great moral issues of the day. Let us be honestly frank and frankly honest with the people.

"I appeal to all to unite in giving this great Commonwealth an Executive without pledge or promise, save to God and the common-weal, that he will conscientiously labor to deal justly, honestly and righteously by all.

"It is my understanding that the open primary was enacted to enable the voters to exercise the utmost freedom in selecting candidates for office. This is the true spirit of representative government based upon a pure democracy. For this reason, I trust we may have a wide open primary with many candidates, that the people may choose after full inquiry those whom they would have to serve them."

Hen Lays Egg in Court; Justice Confiscates It

Special to The Telegraph

Pittsburgh, March 17.—Whether an egg laid in the court belongs to the defendant, accused of stealing the chicken, or to the accuser, both of whom claim ownership of the fowl, was settled by Justice of the Peace John G. Richards, of North Braddock, yesterday.

Delia Garrity, of North Braddock, was accused of having stolen two chickens. The chickens were exhibited in a box. During the discussion one of the hens began to cackle. She had laid an egg and discussion as to the ownership ensued.

"The court will confiscate the egg," the Justice announced sternly.

This ended the argument. The woman was released on $300 bail. The chickens were placed in charge of a constable pending a settlement of the case.

Feast of Fat Things

A rich program has been built up this year by the conference host, the Rev. Dr. John D. Fox, and the local pastors of the city, who have spared neither time nor effort to provide a feast of fat things for the people. Eminent leaders of the church will deliver addresses at the various anniversaries and a lecture of rare eloquence and scholarship will be one of the exceptional privileges of this session.

The board of examiners is now holding its session in the Ridge Avenue Church, where the undergraduates of the conference are taking examinations in various subjects of a prescribed course of study. Every candidate for the Methodist ministry must pursue and satisfactorily complete a four years' course of study, no matter from what institution he has graduated and such studies must be covered and completed while he is in the active work of the ministry before he can be elected or ordained to either deacon's or elder's orders.

The board of examiners is composed of the following ministers: J. H. Morgan, Carlisle; H. R. Bender, Clearfield; W. P. Shriner, Altoona; J. W. Glover, Hanover; D. N. Miller, Montoursville; M. E. Swartz, York; J. M. Kelley, State College; G. M. Glenn, Philadelphia; J. E. Skillington, Renovo; E. R. Heckman, Bloomsburg; W. W. Hartman, Tyrone; J. H. Price, Lewisburg; B. C. Conner, Williamsport; C. T. Dunning, Mt. Carmel; B. H. Hart, Harrisburg; J. E. Bell, Chambersburg;

G. S. Womer, Mt. Union; R. C. Peters, Beaver Meadow; A. S. Williams, Harrisburg; and J. E. Buoke, Nowberry.

Men Entering Ministry

A class of eight young men will come up as candidates for admission on trial. This is a comparatively large class for entrance into the conference, proving that young men are still dedicating themselves to the work of the ministry.

The preliminary service at the conference will be the anniversary of the
