ANOTHER CHAMPION FOR UNITED STATES

Jay Gould Defeats George F. Covey in Court Tennis by Decisive Scores

Philadelphia, March 19.—Jay Gould is court tennis champion of the world. He defeated George F. Covey three sets to one at the Racquet Club, yesterday, thus bringing the match to a close in two days' play. The American champion won four straight sets on Monday and his three sets yesterday gives him the victory by the very one-sided score of seven sets to one. Gould scored 247 points against 170 for Covey, and he won 47 games to 19 for his opponent. It was a most overwhelming defeat for the British professional champion, who at the end readily admitted that he had been beaten by a better man, and by an amateur at that. The experts who witnessed the play declare that Gould proved himself to be the greatest exponent of court tennis that ever lived. Covey seemed to be below his usual form, but that was probably because of the wonderful work of his opponent, who held the whip hand in every set except one, the third yesterday, when the British champion scored the single victory that saved him from a "whitewash" defeat. The scores yesterday were 6-2, 6-3, 5-6, 6-1.

Tri-State Teams on Albright Schedule

Lebanon, Pa., March 19.—Manager J. K. Dunlap, of the Albright College baseball team, in announcing his schedule for the coming summer, as approved by the faculty, stated that three of the games will be with Tri-State clubs. The schedule includes seventeen games, ten to be played away from home, and the rest on Albright College field. The games with the professional clubs will be played before the college season opens. The schedule is as follows: April 18, Allentown at Allentown; 22, York at York; 25, Reading at Reading; 29, Muhlenberg at home; May 1, Juniata, at home; 14, Susquehanna, at home; 16, Gettysburg, at home; 20, Mt. St. Mary's, at Emmetsburg, Md.; 21, Gettysburg, at Gettysburg; 27, Lafayette, at Easton; 30, Mt. St. Mary's, at home; June 4, Juniata, at Huntingdon; 5, Susquehanna, at Sellersville; 6, Bucknell, at Lewisburg; 12, Muhlenberg, at Allentown; 15, Alumni, at home, and 16, Chinese, at home.

BITS OF SPORTS Joe Knotts may go back to Albany. "Rube" Bressler was wild yesterday, the St. Louis Browns winning from the Athletics Kids, score 5 to 4. The Giants defeated the Cardinals last night in the Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association series; score, 30 to 13. The Athletics won from the Cubs; score, 27 to 22. The Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association five last night; score, 52 to 21. In the Holtzman Bird Duckpin League the Parrots last night defeated the Hawks and Ganders; the Larks lost to the Hawks and won from the Ganders. The Lions clawed the Leopards and won the Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association bowling league series; margin, 80 pins. The Dippers lost to the Redheads in the Casino duckpin series last night; margin, 50 pins. The Marlins flew faster than the Pintails, winning by a margin of 86 pins. "RUBE" BRESSLER IS KICKING UP HIGH JINKE

"RUBE'S" STILL A-TWIRLIN' The former Harrisburg southpaw is being watched closely by Manager Connie Mack. Indications are that this youngster if he continues to show improvement, will be retained on the Athletic staff as an emergency man. There is some talk of giving him the same program as "Bob" Shawkey, and allow Bressler to work a season with the Baltimore International League club, but Manager George Cockill will try to have Bressler sent back to Harrisburg in the event of Manager Mack having a surplus of players. Should the left-hander return to the Tri-State it would be with the understanding that he must be sent back to the Athletics on call.

Firm to Develop Pitchers; George Cockill General Manager

Will Secure Young Twirlers and Shape Them Up For Duties in Major Leagues Within the next two weeks a new partnership will be formed for the development of young twirlers. In the firm will be George Cockill, Harrisburg Tri-State manager, as general manager and the officials of the Pennsylvania Exhibition Company as backers. This new corporation will continue business until the close of the baseball season, and on the success of the first year will depend the continuation of business. Here is the dope handed out to-day by Cockill: "Major leagues need pitchers. The one weak spot this year will be in the pitcher's box and it will be worse next year. The Tri-State can only carry a certain number of men on each team, but there is nothing to prevent any person from carrying on a business in pitchers. That is what we are going to do. We will sign up promising youngsters and place them with lower class leagues or in the Tri-State if possible. They will be our property and when the major league scouts come along, the future greets will be furnished by the Harrisburg Company. Sounds good, eh? It will look better later on."

Baron's Ashes Is Sent Abroad by Parcel Post

New York, March 19.—The ashes of Baron Carl Gromadzinsky, who died at New Rochelle of apoplexy a month ago, were shipped yesterday by parcel post to his old home in Germany by his friend, Robert Lesler. The package, weighing eight pounds, cost $1.05 to send and was addressed to Baron Sondermann at Samter, Posen. Baron Sondermann purchased the estate from the Gromadzinsky family many years ago, but the family holds the right to burial in the ancestral vault.

LEBANON VALLEY SQUAD INCLUDES MANY STARS

Anville, Pa., March 19.—Coach R. J. Guyer, of Lebanon Valley College, issued his first call for baseball candidates yesterday afternoon and more than fifty men reported. This is the first time in the history of the institution that so many candidates have signified their intention of trying for the team. The squad contains four pitchers of note, Stickle, who has signed with the Reading Tri-State; Zeigler, of last year's Elizabethtown team; White, playing with the Hartford, Conn. team; and Mackert, of Sunbury. This year's team will have an abundance of good material to draw from and as the school has lost but one man from the 1913 aggregation, John and Tom Lyter, brothers, both of Harrisburg, are among the veterans who will be in the field. Tom Lyter is the star backstop; John is the fastest third baseman the team ever has had.

NEW HIGH RUN RECORD IN AMATEUR BILLIARDS

New York, March 19.—Playing his sixth and last game in the national amateur billiard championship tournament yesterday, Charles Heddon, of Dowagiac, Mich., defeated Eugene L. Milburn, of Memphis, Tenn., 400 to 180, and incidentally made a run of 135, which is the highest in this year's contest, and sets a new mark in play for the national title. Heddon now has a splendid chance to capture the special high-run trophy. The best previous high run in a national tournament was 120, and was made by Joseph Mayer, in Philadelphia, last year.

THREE GOOD GAMES AT CATHEDRAL HALL

The Hassett tossers will line up against the Frackville five at Cathedral Hall Friday night. The team from the coal regions is the best aggregation of tossers that has been produced this season from the breaker boys, and a fast game is looked for. During the first period the Lincoln grammar school girls will play the Forney girls and the winners of this battle will meet the St. Cecilia girls in the final period.

YORK QUINTET TOO FAST FOR HARRISBURG

Local Tossers Dropped Fifth Game of the Series Last Night

York, Pa., March 19.—Taking the fifth of a series of games from the Harrisburg quintet by a score of 42 to 19, the York Collegians lay claim to the Central Pennsylvania championship, having won three of the five games from Manager Taggart's stars. A sixth game will be played at Harrisburg Saturday night and a victory for Harrisburg may mean a final game on a neutral field. The York team played one of its best games of the season last night. The teamwork was built around Bredbenner and "Doc" Newman, while Captain Ways "hugged the basket" and took the passing Ways made a season's record for the team in scoring field goals by placing ten two-pointers through the net. The York guards, Shetter, Barnes and K. Ways, played an air-tight game on the defense, the visiting forwards each being able to cage only one goal from field. McCord and Gaffney played the best game for the Harrisburg team. Gaffney delighted his admirers in this city on a number of occasions by his spectacular dribbles, on one of which he went through the entire York team and scored a goal. Gerdes, the center of the Central high school quintet, of Harrisburg, played at center in the place of Geisel. He is a better jumper than Geisel, but failed to show much in floor-work. Atticks, the former Steelton high school player, was bent on caging field goals and in so doing his man Ways was allowed to run loose frequently. Atticks tossed three goals through the net, scoring the most field goals for the visitors. The line-up and summary:

Franciscan Girls Won Against York

The Franciscan girls won a decisive victory over the Patriotic girls of York last night, score 11 to 6. The game was played at York and attracted a big crowd. The Harrisburg stars were Miss A. Devine and Miss C. McCarthy, who were shining at every stage of the game. Miss Pohlman and Miss Hostetter were York stars.

Injunction For Boston Will Keep Feds Away

Macon, Ga., March 19.—George Stallings, manager of the Boston National League baseball club, last night announced that he had obtained an injunction to prevent agents of the Federal League from having communication with any member of the Boston club. The injunction was obtained from Judge Mathews, of the Superior Court here, under provisions of the Georgia contract labor law. "If any Federal League representative comes to Macon or any point in the State of Georgia and attempts to get my players away from me, I'll put him in jail as sure as he gets off a train," said Stallings. "The Georgia labor contract law is explicit on that point. When an employer has signed an employe to a contract calling for his services for a stated time, any other employe is violating the law when he attempts to get the employe under contract to violate that contract with a view to taking employment with another party."

Girl Athletes Hear Heart-to-heart Talks

An important meeting of the Girls' Athletic Association of the Central High School was held directly after the chapel exercises yesterday at Central High School. Miss Jessie Bowers, faculty advisor of the association, urged the girls to manifest more interest in athletics and to appreciate the sacrifices made by the basketball team in order to maintain athletics. Remarks were also made by the president, Miss Beatrice Hinkie, and the business manager, Miss Susan Shaffer. Arrangements were made for the reception to be given to the Penn Hall girls after their game here Saturday afternoon.

Cutting Down the Heating Cost

This weather requires fuel that contains the maximum in heat value. Fuel that possesses the most heat units will give the desired result with the least possible consumption. You can't cut your coal bill by cheaper prices—they are uniform, but you can reduce your heating expense by using less coal. Our coal is the cheapest because it goes the farthest.
