

WARREN McCARRICK BELIEVED TO HAVE LOST LIFE IN RIVER

Detectives, However, Are Working on Other Theories by Which They Hope to Find Boy

REWARDS NOW REACH $6,000

Downtown Residents Accompany Their Children to and From Schools in District

Philadelphia, March 20.—Moved by the alarm caused among parents since the mysterious disappearance, a week ago yesterday, of 7-year-old Warren McCarrick from near his home, 619 South Nineteenth street, both branches of Councils yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution requesting and directing Mayor Blankenburg to offer a municipal reward of $5,000 for the recovery of the lad and the arrest of his supposed abductors.

Immediately following the adoption of the measure a resolution appropriating the money was drafted, read and turned over to the finance committee of council for approval.

Mayor Blankenburg had previously expressed willingness to co-operate in the movement by affixing his signature to the ordinance, so there seems to be no question that those who recover the boy will be rewarded by the city.

Not since the famous Charlie Ross case, when detectives and police of the entire country endeavored in vain to solve the kidnapping mystery, has the city offered a reward for a lost child.

In many respects the vanishing of the McCarrick boy is more baffling than the disappearance of Charlie Ross.

Kidnapers of young Ross carried him and his brother away in a wagon and left the brother at Richmond street and Columbia avenue. A good description of the abductors and their vehicle was obtained from several sources, but no trace of either has ever been found.

The disappearance of Warren McCarrick constitutes a deeper mystery, in that not the boy but the father of the lad or any one who talked to him has been found after a night and day search since March 12 by some of the best detectives in the city's service.

Every clue thus far produced has been nothing more than a theory. Dozens of persons have declared that they saw boys answering Warren's description in company with suspicious-looking men, but in each instance the identities of the children and their companions were learned.

Detectives confess that they have absolutely nothing that might serve as a guide in their investigation. Downtown residents are so wrought up over the supposed kidnapping that parents escort their children to school and meet them after the session.

Realizing that unless a trace of the lad is soon found, the case may go down as a second Charlie Ross kidnapping. Select Councilman Crawford, of the Thirtieth ward, a close friend of the child's parents, framed the resolution unanimously adopted by Councils yesterday.

Almost every member of the chambers expected that such a measure would be introduced and had previously expressed a desire to support it.

Little Warren is known to have had a fondness for water and it is the belief of many persons here that he wandered to the river and was drowned. However, some of the detectives are not inclined to believe this theory and are working on other clues.

Reward Monies Up The reward for the recovery of Warren now amounts to $6,000. Last Sunday City Treasurer William McCooch, a friend of the child's father, offered a personal reward of $1,000 for the return, alive, of the missing boy. The City Treasurer's offer does not call for the arrest of his supposed abductors.

Two new clues loomed up to occupy the attention of investigators yesterday. Charles Wallace, proprietor of B. Coghill.

Another Resolution Presented Washington, March 20.—A woman suffrage came to the fore in the Senate yesterday and a new resolution for a constitutional amendment was proposed by Senator Sharfrot, to take the place of that defeated yesterday. It would require States to decide the suffrage question for themselves whenever 5 per cent. of the voters petitioned for it.

With the exception of the murder cases the list for March court has been pretty well cleared. The grand jury finished consideration of cases to-day and to-morrow will make its quarterly report of conditions in the almshouse, jail and other county institutions.

Progressives Opposed to Wilson's Repeal Plan

Washington, D. C., March 20.—Representative Victor Murdock, of Kansas, leader of the Progressives in the House, in a statement issued today announced that Progressives in Congress are substantially a unit against President Wilson's plan of repealing the exemption of shipping from Panama canal tolls. "The Progressives in Congress," declared Mr. Murdock, are substantially a unit against the proposition to repeal the toll exemption for shipping in the Panama Canal act. Both Democrats and Republicans are hopelessly divided. A little over one year ago all three parties covenanted with the people to exempt coastwise traffic. To-day the Republicans and Democrats as parties are breaking their pledge. The Progressive party, free from the influence of sectional or selfish interest, but actuated by principle and united by mutual conviction, is standing by the contract it made with the people.

Identifier of "Edgar" Dies in Subway Train

New York, March 20.—An elderly man, believed from papers he carried to be Perrin H. Sumner, who was once known to the police as "the great American identifier," died of heart disease in a subway train late last night. Sumner won the title of "identifier" by identifying unclaimed bodies of suicides as a mythical Englishman named Edgar. The identifications always proved false, and what he wanted of a dead Englishman named Edgar always remained a mystery. Sumner was involved in many difficulties in this and other cities through his financial operations and served a term in Sing Sing for grand larceny.

DIMMICK ENDORSES BRUMBAUGH AND HIS PLATFORM PLEDGES

Republicans of State Will Be United in His Support For Governor

J. Benjamin Dimmick, candidate for United States Senator, last night declared in Philadelphia that he considers Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh as a "clearly of gubernatorial timber." This statement coming so soon after the expressions of approval of portions of Dr. Brumbaugh's statement by Speaker Alter and J. Denny O'Neill is taken to mean that notwithstanding the attitude regarding the United States Senatorship all Republicans will unite on Brumbaugh.

In his statement Mr. Dimmick says: "I have read Dr. Brumbaugh's platform and in many respects we stand for the same things; it would be superfluous to make a comparison of our several planks, for they speak for themselves. It would seem as if his statement that he 'welcomes a campaign upon the great moral issues of the day' excludes any other thought than that he will be fighting with us against machine politics that are typified by low standards, sordid motives and corrupt practices, and that he will

Declares in Hot Speech That Reorganization Candidate Is Against Workingmen

Philadelphia, March 20.—State Senator Richard V. Farley's speech against Vance C. McCormick as an enemy of labor and a multimillionaire scion of aristocracy has aroused tremendous feeling among the toilers and mechanics of all classes in this city. Among other things Senator Farley said: "A man possessed of vast wealth himself, and who believes that it is possible for an American citizen to be educated and who thinks $150 a day is too much for a working man to receive [referring to McCormick's veto of a wage ordinance when mayor], is not the kind of a man to sit in judgment as Governor and to pass upon Progressive legislation."

"What would he do to a real workman's compensation bill? What would he do to a bill to protect children in the mills and what would he do in view of his mine record to secure honest protection for the miners?" "Mr. McCormick is a type of his

FEDERAL LEAGUE MEN FIRE FIRST SHOT IN YEAR'S BASEBALL WAR

Court Asked For Injunction to Restrain Killer From Playing in Philadelphia

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 20.—The first legal shot of the baseball war of 1914 was fired to-day by the Federal League in filing a petition with the United States District Court for the western district of Michigan asking for an injunction to restrain William J. Killifer, Jr., formerly catcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, from playing baseball with any other than the Chicago Federals.

Killifer signed a three year contract with the Chicago Federals, but afterward was persuaded that the reserve clause in his old contract with the Philadelphia club held him legally to Philadelphia and he joined his former team. The suit involves the legality of the reserve clause, long regarded as one of the byworks of organized baseball. The suit was brought in the Western Michigan district because Killifer is a resident of Paw Paw, Mich.

Governor John K. Tener was to-day tendered the signal honor of being chosen as the first honorary member of the Engineers' Society of Pennsylvania. A committee of the society waited upon the Governor at the Capitol and tendered the election in recognition of the Governor's eminent services in behalf of labor and industry in recommending and approving legislation for their advancement. This election, the first of the kind in a society composed of over 800 men, including some of the most prominent men in engineering in Pennsylvania, residing in almost every county in the State, was by the unanimous action of the society. It was recommended by the board of directors on a resolution presented by C. E. Governor Tener Never Said There Was Room For Three Big Leagues

Governor Tener, president of the National League of Baseball Clubs, today denied that he had ever said there is neither room or a demand for a third major league in the United States. The denial was the result of a publication in a newspaper of Pittsburgh. Said the Governor: "There is no truth in the story emanating from Pittsburgh. I did not have an interview such as the one reported with a man named Hendrickson or any one else. I do not believe there is room or any demand for a third major league."

FRIEDMAN CHARGES CHIEF CLERK WITH MISAPPROPRIATION

Suspended Superintendent of Carlisle School Hopes to Clear Himself of Charges

Carlisle, March 20.—With the arrest this morning of L. Nori, chief clerk at the Carlisle Indian school for the last seven years, on charges of embezzlement, M. Friedman, who was recently suspended as superintendent of the school, hopes to clear himself of the charges which brought about his suspension. Nori was arrested and held in default of $1,000 bail for court on information made by Mr. Friedman that nearly $1,000 belonging to students at the Indian school has disappeared during the past two years. Nori is accused of misappropriating money deposited with the superintendent for safe keeping, and destroying vouchers and receipts to cover up his transactions.

In a statement issued by J. W. Wetzel, counsel for Mr. Friedman, the statement is made that sufficient evidence has been secured to sustain the charges against Nori and at the same time clear Mr. Friedman of some of the charges on which he was suspended several weeks ago.

Although J. H. Linnen, the investigator for the Commissioner of Indian Affairs who made the investigation which resulted in Friedman's suspension is in Carlisle, Friedman is said to have secured the evidence he says he has against Nori without the assistance of the Washington man.

Unionists Move Their Stores and Documents Fearing Raid by Police

EXTRA GUARDS AT BARRACKS

Sir Edward Will Consult Commanders of Ulster Volunteer Forces

Belfast, March 20.—Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the Unionists of Ulster, made a dramatic entry into the capital of the province to-day. His purpose in coming here is to consult with the other Ulster Unionist leaders and with the commanders of the Ulster volunteer forces.

The great activity displayed at Unionist headquarters and in the army barracks have caused considerable excitement among the people of Belfast, who for days past have been momentarily expecting some decisive move on the part of the Unionist chiefs or the government.

Before landing this morning Sir Edward Carson received on board the steamer on which he had made the passage from England Sir George Richardson, a retired lieutenant-general of the British army, who is commander-in-chief of the Ulster Unionist forces, together with his chief officers.

Noisy Welcome As the party came down the gangway from the steamer to the pier they found drawn up as a guard of honor the emergency force of picked men in the Ulster volunteers, who had been summoned to the Unionist headquarters at a late hour last night. A big crowd gave them a noisy welcome, cheering wildly and firing salutes into the air from their revolvers.

During the night automobiles had been kept busy moving stores and documents from the Unionist headquarters, apparently fearing a raid by the police, who have been keeping close watch on every move made by the Unionists.

Precautions of a rigorous character have been taken at the Victoria military barracks here. Extra guards are on duty day and night. Urgent instructions have been sent to the military authorities in the south of Ireland to dispatch reinforcements immediately to the garrison stations in Ulster.

Helping Those Who Help Themselves

This is a function of the advertising printed in this newspaper every day. It helps those who want guidance in judicious buying. It is the story of the market place telling you what is best for your wants and where it is sold. Frequently prices are presented in competition with each other, and advertising readers are always posted as to where their money will do the best work. It is as foolish to purchase without first seeing what the advertisements say as it would be to purchase without looking at the goods themselves. Advertising does not compel you to buy anything. It merely posts you so that at all times you can purchase to your best advantage. It is only by making the advertising pay you that the advertiser can hope to make it pay themselves.
