

Mutt Is Trying to Be Nice to Jeff at That

By "Bud" Fisher

BUCCANEER GIANTS SHOW UNUSUAL SPEED

Fred Clarke Has Thirteen Six Footers on His Team This Season

Special to The Telegraph. Hot Springs, Ark., March 24.—The Pirate athlete is a fierce-looking giant, 191 feet 4 1/2 inches tall, and weighing almost three tons.

The total weight of the team this year is greater than ever before, and the total height also has been increased materially.

The tallest man in camp is Delhi, who towers 6 feet 2 1/2 inches, but the heaviest man is "Ham" Hyatt, the mountaineer tipping the beam at 203.

Konetchy, Kanteleher, McArthur, Harmon, Brenegan, Coleman, Doyle, Mitchell, Conzelman, Cooper, Delhi, Hyatt and Marnaux are all six-footers, five of the players exceeding that stature.

Time Is Extended For Bowling Entries

Special to The Telegraph. New York, March 24.—In response to requests from bowlers all over the country for a little more time in which to arrange their itineraries, Major M. W. Gage, secretary of the National Bowling Association, announced yesterday that the entries for the eighth annual tournament for the championships of America at Atlantic City, April 8 to 29, will not close until midnight next Saturday.

YALE ATHLETES ILL

Special to The Telegraph. New Haven, Conn., March 24.—Harold A. Pumpelly, of Oswego, N. Y., a junior at Yale, who kicked his way to football glory by one of the longest drop kicks on record in the Yale-Princeton football game at Princeton a year ago last Fall, and Galen Snow, of Greenfield, Mass., a freshman, are the two latest victims of scarlet fever at Yale.

READY FOR FEDERAL LEAGUE

Special to The Telegraph. Philadelphia, March 24.—The Federal League in starting legal action to restrain Catcher Killifer from playing with the Philadelphia club of the National League, did not catch the Phillies management unprepared.

Manhattan Shirts SPRING STYLES FERRY'S 3rd. Near Walnut

Future greets are warming up for the coming baseball season, and will soon be in the field for honors. The Harrisburg Telegraph desires to keep in close touch with all amateur teams and games.

Yale Star-Diplomat

John Linger de Saullies, better known, perhaps, to New Yorkers and Yale graduates as "Kid" de Saullies, and as one of the greatest football stars Yale ever produced, is the newest addition to the American diplomatic corps.

"Cyclones" Organize J. W. Pearson Manager

At a meeting yesterday the old "Steelton Cyclones" baseball team was reorganized for the coming season. James W. Pearson was elected manager and the following members were present: James W. Pearson, W. Lindsey, K. Maise, Charles Ball, V. Gaston, John Pearson, W. Pearson, George Shern, Cliff Christian, James Fisher, Max Wagner, George Jones, Boyd Braxton and George Pearson.

CHAMPION BOWLERS CELEBRATE

The members of the Waps team of the Elks' League held their annual banquet last night. "Jimmy" Lutz was presented with medals for good work and Arthur G. Sliker was re-elected captain.

Annual Call to Amateur Managers

Future greets are warming up for the coming baseball season, and will soon be in the field for honors. The Harrisburg Telegraph desires to keep in close touch with all amateur teams and games.

Track Athletic Committee to Prepare For High School Meet

Annual Interscholastic Track Event Plans to Come Up Friday Night

Plans for State interscholastic track meet to be held in May, will be discussed at a meeting of the Harrisburg Track Athletic Committee to be held in Room 24 of the Union Trust Building, Friday, March 27, at 8 o'clock.

The call was sent out to-day by Dr. Charles E. Fager, principal of the Technical high school, who is chairman of the committee.

ALLENTOWN GAME GIVEN BIG BOOST

Will Pay But One Dollar For Rent of Grounds; Players Signed; Games Arranged

Special to The Telegraph. Allentown, Pa., March 24.—The publication of a list of players signed by Manager Johnny Castle, and the announcement that the Allentown Fair Association would donate the grounds to the local association set local Tri-State stock soaring to-day.

The officials met Saturday night and discussed plans for improving the baseball field and for the disposition of privileges. The question of rental was taken up and a committee appointed to call upon the officials of the Fair Association to arrange for the lease.

The price given was $450, and after a lease was signed the Fair Association said they would donate to the baseball association $449. This makes the total rental for the year a dollar.

First Base—"Buck" Boyle. Second Base—Denny McGeehan. Shortstop—George Stutz. Third Base—James McGovern, Philadelphia; F. C. O'Brien, Philadelphia; Patrick McGeehan, brother of Danny, and J. W. Mecherly, of Boyertown.

Pitchers—Scott, Girard, Mortimer, Walnutport; Maerz, Philadelphia; Gilbert Miller, Trexlertown; Alfred Sharrman, Montgomery county. Left Field—Manager Castle. Center Field—Jimmy Murray. Right Field—"Rip" Cannell.

A number of practice games have been arranged. Among them are the following: April 17—Lafayette College (pending). April 18—Albright College. April 23 and 29—Muhlenberg College. April 25—Villanova. April 27—Reading Professionals. May 1—Pennsylvania Railroad team.

HALIFAX FANS BUSY; NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

Special to The Telegraph. Halifax, Pa., March 24.—Baseball was given a good start last night when fourteen new members signed the roll and formed a permanent organization. These officers were elected:

H. S. Bogar, president; W. L. Pike, vice-president; W. A. Heisler, secretary and treasurer; C. C. Poffenberger, manager. The following members will make up the official board of directors: M. W. Etter, S. W. Koppenhaver, P. S. Hill, R. F. Landis, E. F. Heisler, J. A. Albert and H. S. Noblet.

BITS OF SPORTS

Central League meets at Steelton tonight. Pittsburgh yesterday secured an injunction against the Feds interfering with their players. Savannah dropped another to the Athletics yesterday, score 7 to 2.

The Bears squeezed a victory out of the Foxes yesterday, margin 24 pins. Wolgast is after big fights. He says his hands are all right. The Milwaukee bowlers are tenth in the big race now in progress at Buffalo.

The Parrots defeated the Wrens in the Bird League last night, scoring 652 pins and winning by a margin of 104 pins.

Harrisburg bowlers will go to Lebanon to-morrow for a return game with the Stars of that place.

HEADQUARTERS FOR SHIRTS SIDES & SIDES

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC. To-night—Helen Grayce and her own company in "The Girl in the Taxi."

ORPHEUM. Keith Vaudeville—Every afternoon and evening.

COLONIAL. Vaudeville and Pictures—Every afternoon and evening.

DANCES TANGO TONIGHT. Society tango dancing will be most comprehensively illustrated during the performance of "The Girl in the Taxi" at the Majestic Theater, this evening.

Not seldom, but never, have local vaudeville devotees had the pleasure of sitting through so entrancing, so gorgeous, or so light and whimsical an entertainment, as "The Bride Shop," that came to the Orpheum yesterday.

TAILENDERS WON OUT; HAD DECISIVE MARGIN. Casino League tallenders, the Cardinals, sent the Orpheums down the list last night, winning from the former leaders by a margin of 147 pins.

Casino League Standing. Alphas 48 24 666. Orpheums 42 27 608. Monarchs 36 33 521. Colonial 32 40 444. Cardinals 29 46 386. Giants 26 43 376.

Schedule for Tuesday: Alphas vs. Monarchs.

DINGER AGAIN WINNER; KILLED TWENTY BIRDS. Marietta, Pa., March 24.—In a live bird shoot held here yesterday good scores were made.

There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Special to The Telegraph. Muddy Creek.—Mrs. Mary Frymeyer, 81 years old, widow of Daniel Frymeyer, died Sunday. She is survived by a son.

Bowmansville.—Hannah Fries, daughter of the late John Fries, died yesterday after a long illness. All his 71 years old and is survived by four sisters.

Oreville.—Henry T. Nagle, 88 years old, died yesterday at the Mennonite Home, after a long illness. All his life was lived in Lancaster county.

Remontown.—Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hottig, 60 years old, died yesterday after a short illness. She is survived by a number of children and grandchildren.

Ephrata.—Christian Messner, 73 years old, a retired businessman, died yesterday at the home of his son. One brother, one sister, five children and ten grandchildren survive.

Lykens Trade Board Cannot Assist New Shirt Factory. Special to The Telegraph.

Lykens, Pa., March 24.—Officers of the Board of Trade met in extra session for the purpose of considering a proposition of bringing a new shirt factory to town.

OLDEST MAN IS CHAMPION. Special to The Telegraph. Anville, Pa., March 24.—An old-fashioned spelling bee was held last night in the Mt. Pleasant schoolhouse.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

PIANIST GIVES RECITAL

Anville, Pa., March 24.—Miss Emma Wittmeyer, pianist of the First Lutheran Sunday school, gave a recital yesterday afternoon in the church at 2:30 o'clock.

Hymn, "The Eternal," Concone, Op. 44, No. 10; "Rock of Ages," Lewis; baritone solo, Rufus Carmony; reading, Miss Josephine Ulrich; "Pilgrim's Chorus," Wagner; "Pass Me Not," Butler; baritone solo, "Fantasia," Rollson, Rufus Carmony; "Consolation," Mendelssohn, Op. 30, No. 3; "Jerusalem the Golden," Goedecker; "Abide With Me," Goedecker, Op. 476.

Remontown.—Mrs. Elizabeth D. Hottig, 60 years old, died yesterday after a short illness. She is survived by a number of children and grandchildren.

Ephrata.—Christian Messner, 73 years old, a retired businessman, died yesterday at the home of his son. One brother, one sister, five children and ten grandchildren survive.

Lykens Trade Board Cannot Assist New Shirt Factory. Special to The Telegraph.

Lykens, Pa., March 24.—Officers of the Board of Trade met in extra session for the purpose of considering a proposition of bringing a new shirt factory to town.

OLDEST MAN IS CHAMPION. Special to The Telegraph. Anville, Pa., March 24.—An old-fashioned spelling bee was held last night in the Mt. Pleasant schoolhouse.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of part of his farm stock and farming implements on Thursday.

MARRIED IN OHIO. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—Emmert Augie and Miss Stella Rider, daughter of H. S. Rider, West Main street, Waynesboro, were married in Toledo, Ohio, yesterday.

SPELLING BEE SUCCESSFUL. Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., March 24.—The spelling bee on Friday evening for the benefit of the Civic Club and Circulating Library proved a financial success.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

AT THE COLONIAL. There's a rare one-act musical comedy called "The Medicine Man" at the Busy Corner for the first time.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL. The subscription sale for the Paderewski recital, to be given at the Chestnut Street Auditorium on Monday evening, March 30, opened this morning at a Music Store.

BUD FRY GOES SOUTH. Special to The Telegraph. Millersburg, Pa., March 24.—George Bud Fry, who played with the North Carolina League last season, has signed with the South the latter part of this week.

SUPPER FOR BUILDING FUND. Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., March 24.—Class No. 9, of the Dillsburg Lutheran Sunday school, held a very successful chicken and waffle supper in the J. A. Lerew Building on Friday night.

STOCK SALES IN PERRY COUNTY. Special to The Telegraph. New Germantown, Pa., March 24.—A. M. Trostle, who has retired from farming on account of advancing age, made sale of