

Women and Their Interests

THE "GREEN STOCKING" GIRL

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

A great many years ago when there was a lad for every lassie, girls began in the playtime of their youth to prepare a store of household linen, for no girl was left uncourted after she had reached sixteen.

One after the other of the daughters in a family stepped forward in mathematical precision, and a match was promptly made and dispatched, and it almost never happened that the swain who came a-courting looked beyond the oldest daughter of the house at her younger sister.

She was kept in the background until her elder sister was married off, because her oldest sister always married first. There was no doubt, it would happen; it was as assured she would marry first as that the oldest tree in the forest is the first to fall.

Conditions have changed. There may still be a lad for every lassie, but lads have grown more wary in the disposition of their precious personages, and lassies have grown more skeptical that the masculine personage is precious, and also more independent. Under the new dispensation, the man who comes courting picks out the girl he loves, and there is no gainsaying him, though there may be ten older sisters left hanging on the parent tree.

He Knows
He knows, and his sweetheart knows, that if they sit down and wait till every older daughter is married off, they may be waiting when their locks are whitened, and the charms of youth which attracted each to the other have forever fled. They know, the parents know, and, alas, even the older sisters know, that marriage is no longer the common lot; but is becoming every day more uncommon.

He knows and she knows, and the old gray world knows that Love is so precious to be put aside because, perchance, there remains an older sister to whom the story has never been told, or whose ears have been sealed by fashionable skepticism to the sweetness of the tale. And so, when Love comes to them, they welcome it, and the parents welcome it, and the older sisters will welcome it if their hearts are still sweet, and no one remembers that many years ago if such a thing happened all the older sisters would have to wear green stockings as a mark of disgrace.

A Strange Objection
Knowing all this, how surprising the predicament of a young man of twenty-eight who writes me that he has been keeping company for five years with a girl four years his junior; that he is in position financially to marry; they love each other, and the girl's mother objects because an older sister is left unwed!

If this is the only objection, marry and make no delay in getting married. You will show little appreciation of the happiness that has been put within your reach if you let an obstacle like this stand in your way.

Green stockings, my dear, young man, are no longer worn.

EVEN THE GIRLS MUST HAVE VESTS

Fashionable Costume For the Younger Set With Jaunty Waistcoat

8177 Girl's Dress with Vest, 10 to 14 years.

WITH FOUR-PIECE SKIRT, ELBOW OR LONG SLEEVES.

Every costume that gives the bolero suggestion is fashionable for spring. Here is a girl's frock that is as pretty as can be yet perfectly simple. The blouse portion is cut away to reveal the under portion that gives the effect of a waistcoat. The sleeves that are joined at the drooping line mean kimono effect. The skirt is just a simple four-piece one laid in plaits and the plaits, while they take straight lines, mean irremed for all the activities that girls love. Fabrics this season are unusually beautiful and unusually varied and there are many that are appropriate for this model, but nothing could be prettier than the wool crepe illustrated with waistcoat and trimming of charmeuse satin. Later, however, washable materials can be made in this way with perfect success.

For the 12 year size, the dress will require 4 1/2 yds. of material 27, 3 yds. 36 or 44 in. wide, with 1 yd. 27 in. wide for vest, collar and cuffs or 1 1/2 yds. of belt is made of trimming material.

The pattern 8177 is cut in sizes for girls from 10 to 14 years of age. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents.

The Quick Secret of a Lily-Like Complexion And Other Beauty Formulas

Secrets of Beauty That No Woman Should Be Without, Made Public by Valenska Suratt, the Brilliant Actress, Famed For Her Self-Made Beauty.
By Valenska Suratt

THERE is a garden in every woman's face where roses and lilies can grow in all their purity and loveliness. The trouble is most of us do not realize how marvellously beautiful the skin may become by the proper method pursued, and how quickly it may become so. Years of time and effort are spent with low-powered creams so extensively advertised, and with only one result, hope constantly deferred.

The simplicity and ease of the proper method of beautifying the skin are really astonishing. There are no half dozen things, steaming and rubbing and the wearing of masks, and what not, to be done. An example of what may be done to the skin is shown by the exquisite loveliness of the skin of this quickly turns a skin, previously muddy, sallow or spotted into one of exquisite loveliness. In it, this spotless as a lily, soft as velvet, and nothing but the generous use of this formula is necessary.

Simply mix two tablespoonfuls of glycerine in half a pint of hot water and add one ounce of zintone, which will cost not more than fifty cents at the drug store. Stir until cooled. It is then ready to apply. This should be used on the hands, arms, face and shoulders, liberally, every day.

MISS F. G. S.—There is no wrinkle eradicator ever known that has such prompt, visible results as the formula given below. It makes the skin youthful and plump, and all lines of age, wrinkles and crows' feet disappear in a very remarkable way. Add two teaspoonfuls of glycerine and two ounces of eptol to a half pint of hot water. Stir constantly until cold. Use very liberally. The eptol you can obtain for not more than fifty cents at the drug store. Mix the formula yourself at home and you will have a quantity of wrinkle cream which would cost a good many dollars were you to be able to buy it in the stores.

MRS. T. R. W.—You certainly can get rid of pimples in a hurry. I would not advise you to continue the blood tonic you mention. Use the following which is a powerful blood cleanser. Dissolve twelve ounces of sugar and one ounce of sarsaparilla in a pint of water. Of this, take one or two teaspoonfuls after meals. Get the sarsaparilla from the original package, the ounce, at any drug store.—Advertisement.

Madame Ise'bell Warns Blondes Against an Oily Scalp

THE HAIR AND SCALP—PART IV.
My experience shows me that while an oily scalp is not so detrimental to hair health as one over-dry it is a condition difficult to remedy. Once the oil glands have got into the habit of over-secreting, it seems very difficult to cure them. We can, however, do a great deal towards mitigating the ill effects of excessive oiliness while we are trying to get at the root of the trouble.

For the Oily Scalp.

An oily scalp should be shampooed as often as once a week. Be sure the shampoo mixture is thoroughly rinsed from hair and scalp, and when the scalp is dry rub with eau de Cologne or a tonic especially prepared for an oily scalp. Dry the hair in the sun when possible. Let the hair hang every day, brushing the hair by separating it into strands, and airing the scalp. Massage the scalp every night. Have no fear that this will increase the over-supply of oil or excite the oil glands to greater effort; on the contrary massage will tend towards getting the scalp into a normal condition and correcting this fault.

Cleanliness, Sunlight and Air.

Remember that cleanliness, sunlight and air will do much towards remedying this condition. Don't wear your hair in close braids, but dress it so the air will get to the scalp. Blond hair suffers the most from an oily condition of the scalp for this is certain to darken it and take away the pretty fineness that we associate with light hair. To correspondents who write me asking what can be done to prevent the hair from becoming darker I offer as the first bit of advice: "Keep the scalp in good condition, and, above all, do not allow the scalp to become oily." The same is true of gray hair; if the scalp is oily it is impossible to make it look attractive.

An Invitation to Women

No suffering woman should seek the treatment of any unskilled person who has not had special training in the care of the delicate feminine constitution. I therefore invite every invalid woman to consult our Staff of Physicians, Surgeons and Specialists at the Inverness Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, New York, by letter or personally at our expense. V.M. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, New York.

Remember your daughters as they turn into women are subject to the same sufferings—to the headaches, backaches, hot flashes, dizziness, extreme nervousness, low spirits, lassitude—which afflict so many women at times. But the condition indicated by these symptoms may be remedied if the proper help is sought promptly.

DR. PIERCE'S Favorite Prescription (In Tablet or Liquid Form)

is prepared under the direction and according to the directions of a physician of long and varied experience in the treatment of the troubles of the organs peculiar to women. It is soothing and strengthening. It is, indeed, a restorative, invigorating tonic which has lasting good effect upon the health and strength of women. Weak women are made stronger; sick women healthier by use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Two Daughters Given Health

It is with pleasure that I write you a testimonial of what your Favorite Prescription has done for me and for my two oldest daughters, writes Mrs. Ota Kirkman, of Moon, Wiscon. County, Wiscon. I would not have my only boy if it had not been for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Pleasant Pellets. I also recommend Favorite Prescription to mothers who have girls just turning into womanhood. I save it to my oldest daughters, and it worked like a charm. They are now stout and healthy young ladies, and I will always recommend this remedy to my friends and to all who suffer from female complaints.

For over forty years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has given universal satisfaction. Now it may be obtained in either liquid or tablet form from all dealers in medicines—or send 50 one-cent stamps for a trial box of the tablets to Dr. Pierce.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets help and regulate stomach, liver and bowels. One to three tiny granules to a dose. Pleasant to take as candy.
