Working For Your Pocketbook

It is the duty of all of us to use every legal means to protect our own pocketbooks. That is thrifty in its best sense. They really do it pays to get something of substantial value for it.

We should buy with knowledge. The advertising in this newspaper assists you to this knowledge—it plays an important part in your well being.

It is the news of the market place; and by reading and weighing it you are equipped to buy to the best advantage.

Women long ago learned the value of advertising because they have the largest part of their family income to spend and must make the dollars go as far as possible.

They realize that it pays to know—and to buy when and where the opportunity is best for them. And they realize too that they can gain this knowledge from the advertising columns of good newspapers like the Telegraph.
