Twenty-five Young People Spend Merry Evening at Her Home

The birthday party held last evening at the home of C. W. Rapp, 1626 North Sixth street, for Miss Helen Rapp was attended by twenty-five happy young people who enjoyed games, contests and music.

Refreshments were served to the Misses Helen Rapp, Elizabeth Sites, Eleanor McCarthy, Johanna McCarthy, Miriam Metzler, Rebecca Wiehelo, Catherine Barkley, Gladys Marshall, Clara Crum, Emma Kline and Elma Baldwin, Delmont Plank, Elverson Keener, John Richards, James Skes, Paul St. Peter, George Gray, Leon McGill, Franklin Metzler, Franklin Boldzler, Raymond McCurdy, Clarence Rector, John Eversole, Charles Rapp and Clarence Rapp.

LAUD CHARLES CASSEL

For Bass Solo Work

A recent copy of the Shiocton Gazette, Wisconsin, has a most commendatory notice of the work of the Commonwealth Quartet, specially mentioning the bass solo work of Charles Cassel, of this city. The club started on tour last September and their trip has extended through every State in the Union from Pennsylvania to the coast, in the middle and northern States.

The notice reads: "As a quartet their selections were chosen with excellent taste, rendered in a simple style, and their voices blended in perfect harmony. It is seldom a company like this has the pleasure of singing a popular song not knowing that its author is in the audience, but their rendition of 'Silver Threads Among the Gold' was said by Eben E. Kexford, the author, to be the best that he had ever heard. As a rule bass solos are not appreciated, but Mr. Cassel's rich, smooth, powerful voice in his rendition of 'The Trump' made the party and dance at the home brought many expressions of approval."

LEAGUE HEARS STORIES OF EASTER AND NEW LIFE

The program of Easter stories, in charge of Miss Roberta Orth, at this week's meeting of the Story Tellers' League included: "Easter Customs," by Miss Greyson; "The Story of Hyacinthus," by Grace Kupper, told by Miss Cordelia Brenneman; "The Easter Lily Sermon," by Edna Groff Diehl, told by Mrs. Fred Squires; "The Life Beyond," by Mrs. Gatty, told by Miss Emilie Lett; "The Resurrection and the Life," by Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, told by Mrs. John D. Pugh. The thought was that of the life beyond and the new life.

The story, "The Easter Lily Sermon," written by Mrs. Edna Groff Diehl, first appeared in the Telegraph in the series of "Aunt Este Stories" and has received much favorable comment not only in this city but in many other places where it has been read. Miss Lois Booker spoke of the Bible as a story book, characterized by dialogue, narrative with historic setting, the development of the will, and showing the Jew's loyalty to his purpose as a test of character. She said that the children in the time of Moses and Christ were just like those of today.

She also spoke of the value of imagery in story telling as essential to its success; that as no author ever writes without definite mind pictures before the words come, so no story teller can be successful who cannot see first the mind pictures. Mrs. Bennett Carter read of "The Round Table," a legend of story tellers of the University of Georgia.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR--A CLEAN, COOL SCALP

Use Parisian Sage. It Makes the Hair Soft Wavy, Abundant--Cleanses and Invigorates the Scalp.

It is needless for you to have hair that is anything short of perfect; if it is falling out, losing color, splitting, or if the scalp burns and itches, immediately get from your druggist a 50-cent bottle of Parisian Sage—use it frequently—the first application removes dandruff, invigorates the scalp, and beautifies the hair until it is gloriously radiant.

Parisian Sage supplies hair needs—is perfectly harmless. It contains the exact elements required to make the hair soft, wavy, glossy, and to make it grow thick and beautiful.

You will surely like Parisian Sage. It is one of the best and most delightful hair tonics known and is always sold by H. C. Kennedy with agreement to refund the money if you are not satisfied.—Advertisement.

Attempt to Rob Good's Drug Store at New Cumberland

New Cumberland, Pa., March 26.—An attempt was made about 4 o'clock this morning to rob the drug store of Dr. J. F. Good, corner of Fourth and Bridge streets. Harry Stine, watchman in the business section of town, saw a light in the store room and notified Dr. Good, who lives in the same building. They went into the store room and the robber ran out of a rear door. The watchman fired two shots after him, but he succeeded in getting away. A colored man living nearby, hearing the shots, went to the store and saw a man run down the alley and enter a stable. He only remained there a few minutes and then ran on. He is described as a young man wearing a cap.

An investigation in the store room showed that nothing had been taken and it is thought the robber was after money only. Entrance to the store was made by the man climbing through a transom. Several nights ago an attempt was made to cut the large plate glass window in the front of the store, the marks on the glass being discovered by Dr. Good the next morning.

The Home Beauty Parlor

By Betty Dean

Use L. I always recommend quinquina to put vitality and luxuriance into anyone's hair. It will promptly remedy the dandruff and itching scalp; it costs little and you can prepare it at home. From your druggist get one ounce quinquina and one-half pint alcohol. Mix and add one-half pint cold water. This makes enough tonic to last a long time. Apply to your scalp twice a week. This is fine to prevent falling of the hair and premature loss of color.

Daly: Don't worry about being too "plump" when there is such a simple, easy way to reduce flesh without dieting or any strenuous exercise. Get four ounces of paraffin from your druggist and mix it in one and one-half pints hot water. Take a table-spoonful before meals. This is harmless and inexpensive and I think you will find a beneficial change within a week.

Leonora: There is no virtue in an egg shampoo. The slimy animal matter clings to the strands and clogs the pores of the scalp. Try this simple shampoo: Get some cantrox from your druggist and dissolve a level table-spoonful in a cup of hot water. It leaves the scalp stimulated and cleaned and the hair beautifully soft and fluffy.

Polly: You do not need to send abroad for the new, perfect substitute for face powder. Make it yourself at home, by dissolving four ounces spumex in one-half pint hot water. This is the simplest, purest lotion for making the skin soft and naturally fair. It stays on closely, and gives a youthful freshness. When on it seems part of the skin and cannot be detected as can the old-styie face powder.

Caroline: Yes, if the tissues of your face are inclined to sag, wrinkles, or your face will soon have wrinkles! Here is a good massage cream which tones and braces the tissues while also beautifying the complexion: Mix an ounce of linseed oil (from your druggist) in one-half pint of water. Add two tea-spoonfuls glycerine. Apply freely. At the first application you will feel the skin contract and you will soon get back the firm contour and a velvety skin. For a good blood purifier see answer to Maurice.

Maurice: The skin eruptions of which you speak are caused by impure blood and you must eliminate the poisons from the system before you can hope to enjoy complete health. Into one-half pint alcohol (whisky must not be used) pour one ounce karsene then add one-half cupful sugar and hot water to make a full quart. Take one table-spoonful of this old-fashioned blood cleanser and tonic before each meal. This is splendid for that weak worn feeling and restores the vital organs to a healthy condition, and its timely use will save much serious sickness.

Janochon: Certainly eyes are harmed by belladonna, but this home-made tonic will clear and make them brilliant while it is strengthening and resting. Anyone can prepare it by dissolving an ounce of crystals (obtainable at any druggist's) in one-half pint of clear water. Use eye cup or put in a few drops in each eye at least once a day. Its brightening effect is immediate.
