BILLMYER KILLING MAY CAUSE TROUBLE

Foreigners at Lancaster County Threaten to Drive Out Colored Men

Special to The Telegraph. Billmyer, Pa., March 27.—The killing of Silo Fillpac, by Vivian Arnette on Sunday last, may result in a riot between the foreigners and colored men, and yesterday there was some trouble threatened, but it did not amount to more than to excite the deputies of the county, and have the State police in readiness for fear of an outbreak. The Arnette home is situated along the river on the opposite side of the limekilns at this point, and it appears that the Italians do not thoroughly understand the matter, as young Arnette has been released on $1,000 bail, and they seeing him around think because they lost by death at his hands one of their comrades he should either be in jail or executed, and they went after him yesterday afternoon. The men quit work among themselves. They went to the Arnette home, and asked for him, and they told the men that the boy was not in, but at Lancaster at the home of his uncle. They they denied, and then searched the house, and after he could not be found they threatened to drive all the colored men out of the works. Sheriff Eby was sent for in the afternoon and he responded with a number of deputies. At this writing everything seems to be quiet, owing to the presence of the officers, but there is no telling how soon something may occur. The hearing of the young slayer was to be held in Marietta at the office of Squire Gramm last night, but by orders from the district attorney it was postponed for a few days, due to the excitement at the quarries.

Wreck of Man Appears on Witness Stand in Court

Special to The Telegraph. Sunbury, Pa., March 27.—When Stanley Rosufski, of Shamokin, took the stand to testify in his case for $10,000 personal damages against the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company, what was virtually only half of a man appeared. He had his left leg off, right scarred and twisted almost shapelessly from the knee down; part of his left shoulder gone, and seven deep scabby holes in his head. He was struck by a mine car at the Bear Valley colliery and lingered four months at the Fountain Springs State hospital, where the doctors finally brought him to be able to walk.

The Millinery Salon---

Is the busiest section in our stores—and we are told by many a visitor "the busiest in Harrisburg"—small wonder. Every hat that leaves our establishment is a work of millinery art. Whether it be an adaptation from an imported model or a creation in our own workroom it carries with it the dignity and smartness of individuality.

We do not simply sell hats—each particular patron's requirements are carefully studied, and only such shapes, garnitures and blendings of colors are suggested that produce the smartest, harmonious effects—Prices are not extravagant—$5.00 and up.

C-B a la Spirite Corsets

Very, Very Little Boning

Characterizes the newest corset. But that boning has to be arranged with cleverness which amounts to genius. Or else the wearer's figure will lack that subtle smartness which is the essence of the new Fashion.

Examine the new season's C-B Corsets and see the cunning skill with which the minimum amount of boning is distributed to obtain the maximum amount of smartness.

See, also, the soft clinging new materials used, and the new low topped effect. All of which make the C-B Corsets marvels of elegance.

Be fitted to the model made for your particular figure (our efficient assistants will see to it that you get the correct model) and see how your figure will take on a new distinction.

Patrons of Wormleysburg Show Carry Chairs With Them; Closes To-night

Special to The Telegraph. Wormleysburg, Pa., March 27.—The last performance of the Wormleysburg Minstrels for the benefit of the Wormleysburg Fire Company will be presented this evening in the town hall. Another crowded house is looked for because last evening many persons were turned away, unable to gain admission. Last evening's attendance broke the record for the five years in which the organization has been in existence. Almost an hour before the show opened the seats were all occupied. Persons who came later were forced to stand or go home and return to-night. Some, however, carried out an original idea. They returned to their homes, procured chairs from the parlors and retraced their steps to the hall, placing their chairs wherever space could be found. By the time the show started the hall was without an aisle.

The minstrels gave an exceedingly good show last evening. George C. Martin appeared at his best and with the assistance of Master Gerald Moyer, Harrisburg's boy soprano, made a decided hit. Ralph C. Schrack and all of the other end men were accorded rounds of applause. As the cook in a skit, "On the Firing Line," Mr. Schrack played his part in professional style.
