Have You the Latest Bug? It'll Get You Next Week

Epidemic of the Green Beetle Expected to Hit Harrisburg on Monday Sure

Have you got the latest bug? What? You don't know what the latest bug is? Well, it's a green beetle. Like all bugs, when it comes it comes hard, and by next week everybody will have it—or at least they will go and see it. “The Green Beetle” isn't alive really. It's the setting in a ring, but awful things happen to those who wear the ring. If you don't believe that, go to the Orpheum next week and see for yourself. “The Green Beetle” will be the headliner, and it's a great act.—Advertisement.

NEWSPAPER WAIFS

“Father, what is home rule?”
 “Your mother's word. Don't annoy me any more now.”—Buffalo Express.
 “Do you think I can safely ask your daughter to marry me?” I am sure of it. She told me she wouldn't marry you if you were the last man on earth.”—Houston Post.
 “Why so gloomy looking, Madge, dear?” “Jack has thrown me over for a girl with more money.” “Oh, there, cheer up! That's no sign that he doesn't love you.”—Boston Transcript.
 Excitable party (at telephone)—
 “Hello! Who is this? Who is that, I say?” Man at other end—“Haven't got time to guess riddles. Tell me yourself who you are.”—Boston Transcript.
 Madge—“How was it you didn't have a good time at the reception?”
 Marjorie—“I heard a story about a girl who was there, but she kept with in hearing all the time, and I couldn't tell it to anybody.”—Life.

To Discuss American Political Aspects

The eighteenth annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science will take place Friday and Saturday, April 3 and 4, in Philadelphia. The general topic is “Present International Relations and Obligations of the United States.” The present status of the Monroe doctrine, the Mexican situation, policy of the United States in the Pacific and the elements of a constructive American foreign policy are the topics which will be discussed during the two days' sessions at the Hotel Walton.

“Why have you interested yourself in theophany?”
 “Well,” replied young Mrs. Torkins, “my husband persists in talking about banking and currency. I thought I'd follow his example and try to act wise about something that neither of us understands.”—Washington Star.

RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

It's Me For Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers. Dr. Edwards' practicing physician contains calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative. No griping is the “keynote” of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a “dark brown mouth” now and then—bad breath, dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure relief only in the “Olive Tablets” from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Co., Columbus, O. At all druggists. Advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC

To-night and to-morrow matinee and night—Helen Grayce and her company. To-night, “A Dawn of a Tomorrow”; Saturday matinee, “A Grain of Dust.”
 Monday, matinee and night, March 30—“Romance.”
 Thursday night, April 2—“Ziegfeld Follies.”

HER BEST PLAY

What Miss Grayce believes to be the very best play she has ever given her many admirers will be presented at the Majestic this evening. It is “A Dawn of a Tomorrow,” the sensational drama of London slums that has been so successfully presented in England and the United States by Gertrude Elliott and Eleanor Robson. The odd characters of this unusual play are found amidst the fog of the alleys and byways of the great city. They are strange types and among them are the rich man afflicted with an incurable disease. Glad the child of the slums who is imbued with the ideal of wonderful things can be accomplished by faith. Then, the coffee seller, gaily girls and many others. The drama is staged with special care and the fog scene is reproduced with sensational realism. The rendition of that interesting play, “A Grain of Dust,” to-morrow afternoon will be made specially interesting by the dance that will be held on the stage after the performance. “Traffic in Souls” to-morrow night will be found an intense drama based on the late exposures of District Attorney Whitman, of New York.—Advertisement.

man, who is a patron of the church, as well as of the arts, and you have the three principal characters of “Romance” to be given on Monday at the Majestic with a bargain matinee.—Advertisement.

THE PADEREWSKI RECITAL

The interest in the recital of Paderewski, the wizard of the piano, increases as the time for the event approaches. The sale of seats has been unusually large, and indicates a full house on Monday evening. Those who have not made reservations should do so at once in order to be sure of hearing and seeing this great artist, perhaps for the last time, as it will likely be his last visit to our city. The management, by placing a goodly number of seats at popular prices, has given an opportunity which should be improved by those who have a desire to hear Mr. Paderewski, and these seats will no doubt be filled by students and others who have made the request for the same. Good delegations are coming from the surrounding towns, and as they can reach home in good season after the recital, it has caused much interest among the musically-inclined in these towns.—Advertisement.

SYNCOPIATED RAGTIME

Syncoated ragtime melodies, as they are sung by Van and Schenck, are charming Orpheum patrons immensely as one of the bright musical attractions supporting Ben Rolfe's delightful one-act musical comedy, “The Bride Shop.” This time the boys have vocal comedians has long been a favorite with local audiences and vociferous applause is greeting their return at each performance. The boys have pleasing personalities and possess excellent baritone and tenor voices, respectively. They sing the newest songs in solo and duet numbers, and no matter which way they are served the same hearty applause greets each number. The tenor of the duo sings “I Miss You” Most of All in exquisite voice, while several character numbers of the comedy variety are introduced by the other member of the team. About their best harmony song is “Log Cabin Home,” which was written by themselves. At the Orpheum this week they are exhausting their repertoire of songs and then prolonged applause ensues, the audience still clamoring for more. Van and Schenck have many admirers in Harrisburg, and they could undoubtedly make many frequent visits and always find a big welcome. Comedy of the right type is found in two rattling comedy sketches on this same bill. They are just about a tie for applause, and up to date neither of the two is ahead. One is called “The Burglar's Union,” in which a blackface comedian is introduced as a burglar, and he is seen on his first job; the other is a conglomeration of rich nonsense called “Heaps of Humanity.” As mirth producers both are ringers.—Advertisement.

Don't Let a Cold Settle on Your Lungs

Many cases of Lung Trouble can be traced directly to a severe cold which has been neglected, and which, as a result, has affected the lungs. If you have a persistent cough or cold, take warning before it is too late. Eckman's Alternative is most beneficial in such cases and has been the means of completely restoring to health many persons who had serious lung trouble. Read of this case—

“Pleasantville, N. J.
 “Gentlemen:—During the winter of 1911 I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. The doctor pronounced it lung trouble. I tried nearly every preparation without any result and kept getting it as a last resort. The first bottle seemed to give me no relief; in fact, I seemed to feel worse, but I kept on using the medicine and found out the first bottle had really started me on the road to recovery by loosening the mucus and making me expectorate freely. After using the medicine for some time my cough ceased. I gained flesh and to-day I am a well man.” (Signed) GEO. M. ATWELL

Above abbreviated motto on proven Eckman's Alternative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Sold by leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.—Advertisement.

Yearn For Food-- Don't Spurn It

A Brisk Appetite Is a Healthful Necessity. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Quickly Restore Lost Relish For Food.

Unless you have a real hearty desire for food you should by all means take no chances of stomach trouble, for a loss of appetite means a signal of distress from a deranged digestion. When the stomach wants food it signals the nerves, and these excite the taste buds in the mouth which at once secrete large quantities of saliva. This is called “mouth water,” and all of us know what our “mouths water” we want food.

“There's an appetite that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets gave me”
 Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets very quickly restore appetite by making the stomach want food. The stomach readily recovers from indigestion, dyspepsia, etc., as soon as it is enabled to digest food. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets taken after each meal quickly digest that meal and thus wonderfully rest the stomach.

In a short time the digestion assumes its normal condition and then appetite and a good appetite, too—is the natural consequence. One may actually fluidize a few Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, place them in a glass tube with meat, grains, vegetables, etc., and those tablets will digest the contents of the tube without aid.

Just think then how quickly and efficiently they act when they are mixed with the food in one's system and what a great relief it is to the digestive apparatus to have its fluids so enriched. Go to your druggist to-day and obtain a 50-cent box and make the actual test yourself after you have eaten a large and hearty meal.—Advertisement.

Efforts Being Made to Locate Lone Robber in Cross River Town

New Cumberland, Pa., March 27.—Chief of Police Howard Stone and other borough officers are today continuing their investigation of the series of attempted robberies here this week. Chief Stone saw the burglar who entered Dr. J. F. Good's drug store and he says he speaks him again if he sees him. He is believed to live near New Cumberland and is familiar with the layout of the drug store. He is a short man and rather thin, as is evidenced by the fact that he crawled through a very small transom. That he was familiar with the store is not doubted, for as soon as he got inside he disconnected the electric bell attached to the door and unlocked the door so he could make a hurried departure. Officer Stone saw the man lighting matches and looking into drawers. He notified Dr. Good and then went to the rear of the store building. Th burglar heard the noise and went out the front door. When Stone reached the front of the store the burglar was only fifty feet from him. Two shots were fired at the fleeing figure, but neither took effect.

Monday night Watts' barbershop was entered by a burglar. Entrance was gained by prying open a rear window. The same night the burglar attempted to get into Weldler's barbershop by cutting the glass near the window lock. He was scared away before he could get inside. The burglar is evidently hunting nothing but money.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Backhurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

FUNERAL OF WAR VETERAN

Hummelstown, Pa., March 27.—Funeral services of Abraham Baum, a former resident of Hummelstown, took place here this morning in the United Brethren Church. Mr. Baum, who was 80 years old, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Snavely, at Elizabethtown, Pa. He was a veteran of the Civil War and was confined in the famous Andersonville prison for seven months.

Every Home Should Have Its Piano, Player-Piano, Victrola or Edison-Diamond-Disc Phonograph

There are probably several hundred families in and about Harrisburg who are depriving themselves of good music in the home because of a mistaken impression that an instrument of high musical quality would cost more than they could afford.
