MOTHER! GIVE CROSS, SICK CHILD ONLY "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

If peevish, feverish, tongue coated, give "fruit laxative" at once.

No matter what ails your child, a laxative should be the first treatment given. Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign your "little one's" stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in just a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless fruit laxative. Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeiters sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

High Water Causes Trouble at Sunbury High School

Sunbury, Pa., April 1.—Because of high water from Spring run getting into the basement of the Central High School building here the schools had to be closed. The run is very high, principally from back water and hundreds of dollars' worth of damage has been done.

Refuse from more than 2,000 homes empty into this stream, which runs through the heart of the borough, and is not enclosed. Angry residents who have had children sick of typhoid and other ailments talk of petitioning the State Health Department to order it walled in. Recent councils have failed to do it, because of the heavy expense. It is believed that it would cost nearly $200,000 to close it.

Constipation Biliousness-Headache Dr. Chase's Liver Tablets

Make the liver active, bowels regular, without pain or griping, remove sick headache and that bloated feeling after eating, purify the blood and clear the complexion. Large box, enough to last a month, 25c. Dr. Chase Co., 224 N. 10th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

EVERY SCHOLAR PRESENT
Waynesboro, Pa., April 1.—For the first time in six years there was a full attendance of students in the main room of the Waynesboro high school yesterday morning. There are 150 scholars in the main room and every one was present. In the commercial room there was only one student absent.

Jeers of Crowd Halt Woman Suffrage Speech

Special to The Telegraph
St. Louis, Mo., April 1.—Hisses and catcalls from men greeted Mrs. Alice Curtice Moyer, of St. Louis, when she attempted to speak on woman suffrage at an open-air meeting here yesterday. Her response to the demonstration was: "By the way some of you men treat me it is hard to believe some of you ever had mothers." "Oh, sister, that's where you're dead wrong," said a voice in the crowd. "Think again." "I see you don't care to have me talk any more," replied Mrs. Moyer, "so I will not continue." John Reed, of Wyoming, then stepped up to the automobile from which Mrs. Moyer had been speaking and said to her: "I want you to know that I don't approve of the actions of this crowd. If such a thing had happened in Wyoming we would have smashed those men's heads with clubs."

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC
To-morrow night—"Ziegfeld Follies." Saturday matinee and night, April 2—"7 Hours in New York." Tuesday matinee and night, April 7—"Mutt and Jeff in Panama."

"ZIEGFELD FOLLIES"
The demand for seats for the important engagement of the "Ziegfeld Follies" at the Majestic Theater to-morrow evening is unusual. The "Ziegfeld Follies," which, by the way, has developed into an institution, has never but once before been presented here, and the engagement gives every promise of being a record-breaking one. In addition to the famous Ziegfeld beauty the cast comprises the names of 150 players, many of whom have starred in big musical comedies. The work is in two acts and thirteen elaborate scenes.—Advertisement.

"SEVEN HOURS IN NEW YORK"

Some exchanges say that the chorus girls with "Seven Hours in New York" are the liveliest, prettiest and best drilled girls that have been seen with a musical show in a number of seasons. Another attractive feature is the Harmony Trio, the cast of three young men from Boston, where they received their musical training at the famous Boston Conservatory of Music. "Seven Hours in New York" is said to be doing a large volume of business, and is really a treat, with its bright, dialogue, splendid scenery and costumes, and light, catchy music of the whistling kind. The date is fixed for the Majestic Saturday afternoon and evening.—Advertisement.

ORPHEUM BILL

"Nothing like it." That appears to be the general verdict of amusement seekers who are viewing "The Green Beetle," the big headliner of the current bill at the Orpheum. This is a playlet of New York's Chinatown, and the title is at once suggestive of the associations as the hideous dragon and other creepy things of the Celestial empire. The central figure in it is a big Chinaman whose office in the killing of inconvenient men who stand in the way of his capturing the women on whom his evil eye has lighted. He suggests a huge, vicious spider, with its web, which, in this case, is a curio shop, into which women are tempted by strange objects, and his victims, of course, represent the unsuspecting fly. The chief impression of the spectators involves the novel, the ghastly and the weird, with an edging of the horrible by way of embellishment. "The Green Beetle" undoubtedly will staged and enacted and it grips from beginning to end. Here, at least, is something for the theatergoer who would get away from the conventional. Then there is Paul Morton and pretty Naomi Glass, presenting their delightful musical flirtation called "My Lady of the Bungalow"; Charles R. Sweet adds many smiles and delights with his music as a tramp musician; Hugh Lloyd and company astound with a wonderful bounding rope exhibition; laughter a-plenty is supplied by Hickman Brothers and company. Merit and variety are happily blended throughout the offering.—Advertisement.

AT THE COLONIAL

A fine assortment of amateur performers are slated for the Colonial to-night and these, along with the always laughable "graced pole contest," will undoubtedly make this a night of mirth. With the passing of to-night's performances we will miss "The Night Hawks," a splendid comedy drama with seven plays, and several other attractions of merit.—Advertisement.
