

TRI-STATE SCHEDULE SHOWS FEW CHANGES

Senators Will Play Two Games at Reading on Labor Day; Are Home Nine Saturdays

Giving publicity to the Tri-State schedule to-day, President George M. Graham requests that every owner and manager put forth special efforts to make this season a big success.

The schedule calls for 110 games. The season opens May 6 and, according to the schedule, Harrisburg will be the attraction at York. This is a switch in the original arrangement. Harrisburg will have a big opening on Thursday, May 7. There are fifty-four games scheduled at home and fifty-six abroad.

Harrisburg will play the game at home with York on the morning of Decoration Day and at York in the afternoon. On July 4 Harrisburg goes to York in the morning and will be at home in the afternoon. Both of these holidays fall on Saturday this year. Instead of closing the season at home on Monday, September 7, Labor Day, Harrisburg will play two games at Reading. Harrisburg has nine games at home on Saturdays, including the morning game of May 30 and afternoon of July 4, and 19 abroad.

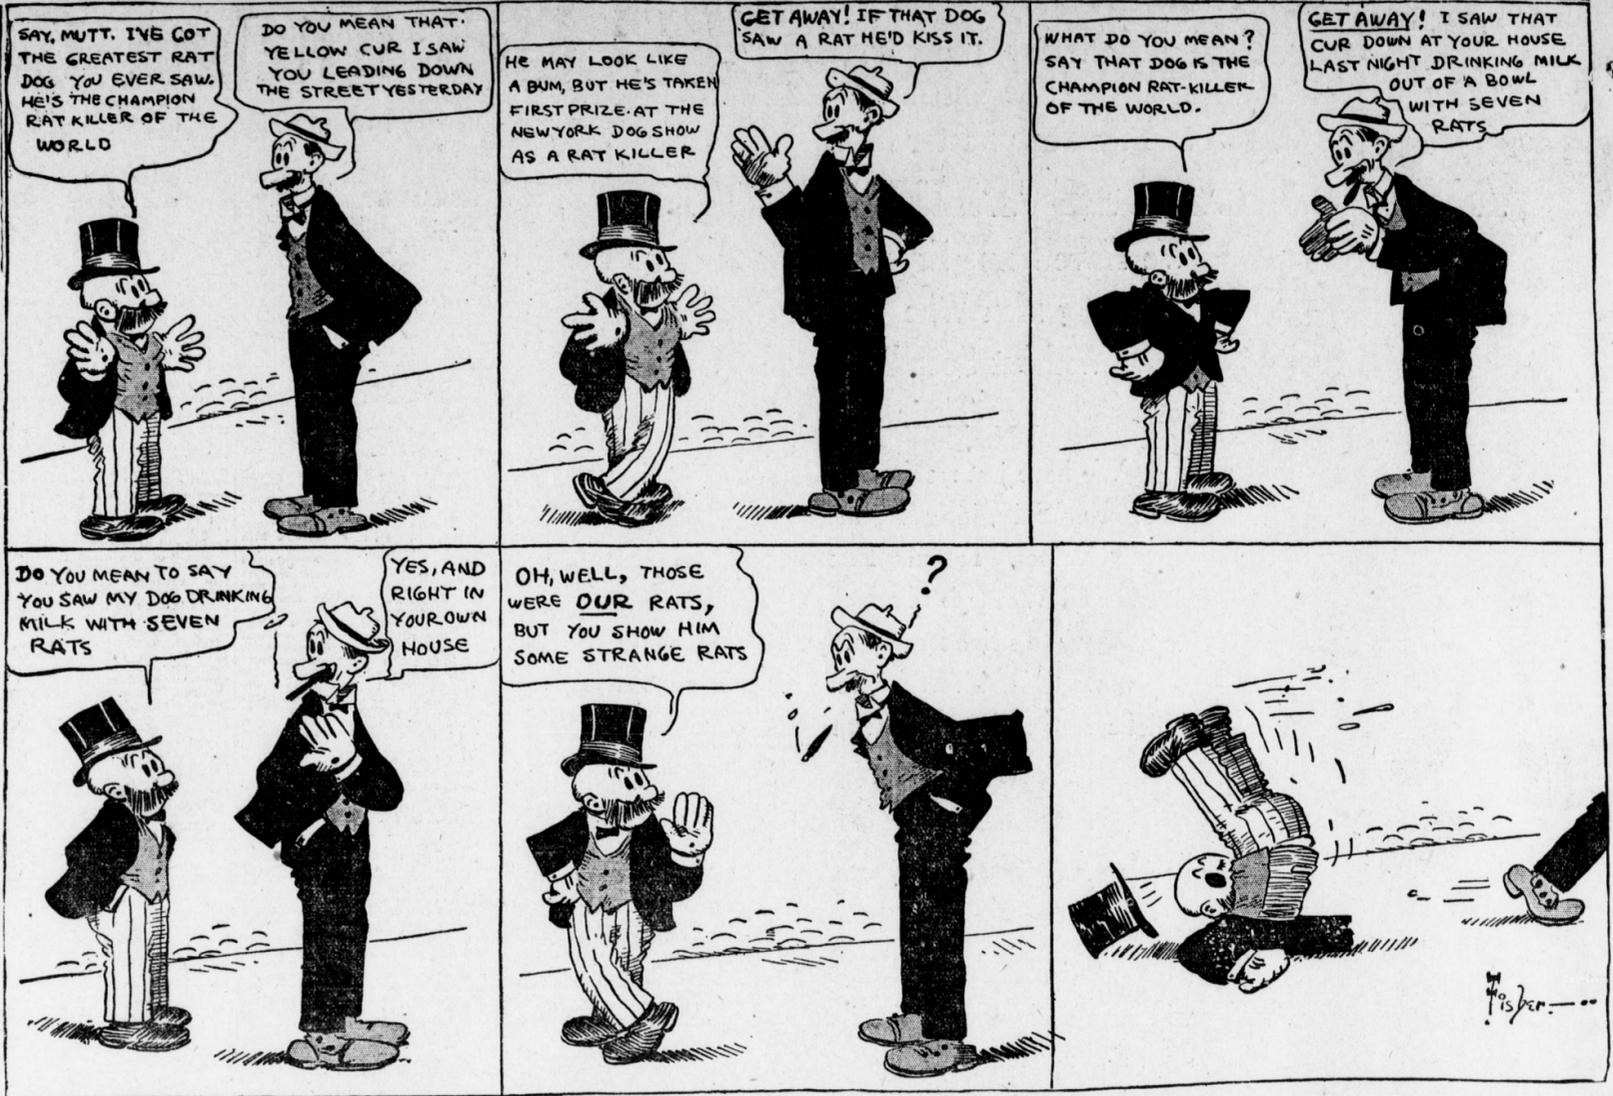

It is understood that when exhibition games are scheduled with major league teams arrangements will be made to have a double-header on the day previous with the Tri-State team scheduled. It is announced that no postponed games will be played prior to June 1, unless the weather during the early part of the season proves unfavorable and postponed games multiply rapidly. President Graham in this case will fix the time for the games to be played off.

Quaker City Entries Show Large Increase; Harrisburg Represented

Philadelphia, April 6.—The entry list of the University of Pennsylvania relays of April 25 shows the largest number of teams ever entered for the various events. In the classified relay races 256 teams are entered and 47 teams have announced that they will compete in the championships. In addition five colleges which have not entered relay teams will report in the special track and field events. The entries for the principal championships are:

- One-Mile Championship of America—Harvard, Illinois, Chicago, Cornell, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Notre Dame, Kansas, Colby.
- Two-Mile College Championships—Princeton, Michigan, Cornell, Dartmouth, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Colby, Kansas, Pennsylvania State, Virginia.

Harrisburg Elks Won; Took Three Games

Winning from the Reading Elks Saturday night by a margin of 317 pins, Harrisburg Elks tied up the scores and a third game will be played with a probability of two more games being added to the series.

The game was played at the Elks' home, North Second street. The Reading Elks had 150 routers with them. After the game luncheon was served to the visitors. Vaudeville and musical features followed.

RITCHIE READY FOR WORK; STARTS TRAINING TOMORROW

Glenwood Springs, Col., April 6.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion, left here for San Francisco, after spending a few days here taking the baths.

Annual Call to Amateur Managers

Future grants are warming up for the coming baseball season, and will soon be in the field for honors. The Harrisburg Telegraph desires to keep in close touch with all amateur teams and games. Managers are requested to send in at once the names of their team, manager and captain, with their addresses.

BOOZE LOSING GAME, SAYS BILLY SUNDAY

Bases Theme on "Rube" Waddell's Recent Death; Was on Wrong Road

Scranton, Pa., April 6.—Sighs and amens for "Rube" Waddell and cheers for Christy Mathewson were in order at the Tabernacle last night when the Rev. Billy Sunday, towards the close of his sermon on "Your Sins Will Find You Out," drew a graphic parallel between the careers of Waddell and "Bugs" Raymond, both dead, and Christy Mathewson and Eddie Plank, four great figures in baseball in the past decade.

Billy's reference to "Rube" was particularly effective. He said: "I was reading the papers the other day of the passing of 'Rube' Waddell, whose life was snuffed out. Think of it, only 37 and gone. I tell you, you cannot beat the booze game. You have to pay the freight. The old 'Rube' was one of the brightest and brainiest men in baseball, but he is gone, struck out at 37, a man who was in his day possibly the greatest pitcher. I tell you, you can't beat that game."

"The 'Rube,' Matty, Plank and 'Bugs' Raymond started in baseball at the same time. All were pitchers. Two started on the wrong road and two on the right road. Two are dead, 'Bugs' and 'Rube.' Matty is as good as ever, the king in his line, and when he gets so he can't put anything on the ball, he'll go to work training young pitchers and will get a salary that will dazzle you. Plank, grand old man, steady and earnest, is getting along, but he can pitch a great game. Yes, he sure can, and Plank and Matty are honored by the men on the field and by men in every walk of life. They followed the right path. 'Rube' and 'Bugs' are dead. Does it pay? Your sins will find you out."

FLOOD WARNING TO BE EXTENDED

Success in Recent High Water Will Enable State to Enlarge Its New Service

Experience gained in observations of the recent high water in the Susquehanna river watershed and in the valleys will be of much advantage to officials of the State Water Supply Commission in extension of the State flood warning service, according to statements made at the office of that body to-day.

Preliminary warnings of depth of snow and what could be expected were issued two weeks before the real high water occurred and on March 27 warnings were issued that high water was expected and that it might get to damaging heights at points along the North branch and the main valley.

On March 28 the commission made estimates for many points along the Susquehanna and its main tributaries and wired them to cities and towns involved.

Location	Predicted	Attained
Corning	16.5	16.6
Chester	17.5	17.3
Binghamton	18.8	18.5

At Wilkes-Barre and vicinity, when the river rose proportionately higher than at other points, reaching a stage 10.5 feet above the danger stage on Sunday, the maximum height came within 2 inches of the stage predicted by the commission and arrived within

HARRISBURGER BUYS FARM

Dillsburg, Pa., April 6.—A. M. Brandt, of North Baltimore street, has sold his large farm in Carroll township to Dr. M. M. Ritchie, of Harrisburg. Dr. Ritchie has also purchased from Mr. Brandt his entire outfit of farm machinery and his stock of horses and cattle. A brother of the doctor will occupy the farm.

Yes, everything all ready to wear. Ready to bring you luck on Easter day. In suits a brave showing in unusual patterns as well as in quiet. Odd effects in Spring overcoats that some stores are afraid to carry.

$10 to $25. For the man who wants "quiet elegance" the silk-lined oxford.

FRED CLARKE
"I'd advise every ballplayer to smoke Tuxedo. I do, always. I know of no other tobacco that gives the satisfaction that Tuxedo does."

JIMMY ARCHER
"Tuxedo is my idea of a good smoke in every way—coolness, mildness, purity. Tuxedo is a winner."

JACK MCINNIS
"Tuxedo gives a cool, mild smoke, and never affects the wind. Tuxedo is a tobacco that's always good."

Tuxedo—A Hit with the Hit-Makers

HUNDREDS of the snappiest ball players in the country—the clean-cut athletes who provide Americans with their greatest outdoor relaxation—enthusiastically endorse Tuxedo. This is the kind of endorsement that carries a convincing punch.

These men know that Tuxedo is a mild, pure tobacco, which can be smoked all day with pleasure. Tuxedo cannot bite the tongue; it burns freely and smoothly, giving a cool, sweet smoke.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

From the scoreboard man to the magnate in the private box, everybody on the grounds is "catching on to" the supreme merit of Tuxedo.

Tuxedo is made from the finest, mildest leaves of high-grade Burley tobacco, so treated under the famous original "Tuxedo Process" that it burns slow and cool, with a delightful flavor and aroma.

The "Tuxedo Process" makes it impossible for this perfect tobacco to bite or sting the most delicate throat or tongue.

Tuxedo has many imitators—in outward appearance. It has no equal in the pipe or cigarette.
