DEFINES POSITION ON COMPETITION

Public Service Commission Makes It Public in Two Decisions Today

The State Public Service Commission has defined its position in regard to competition between public utility companies in two decisions rendered today. It being held that companies which have made investments and have been furnishing service in communities where there is no actual need for additional service and there comparatively little complaint should be considered. The application of the Schuylkill Light, Heat and Power Company for approval of an ordinance of the borough of Ashland granting it the right to furnish service to that municipality and the application of the Harmony Electric Company for similar action on an ordinance of the borough of Ellwood City have been dismissed.

It is held in the Ashland case that the Eastern Pennsylvania Light, Heat and Power Company has occupied the territory for twenty-nine years, its plant is adequate and that there has been little complaint. The entrance of a second company, it is held might be of doubtful utility, the commission saying: "Long experience has shown that while the temporary effect of competition between public utilities supplying the same territory is to secure for the consumer the lowest rate possible, it is likely to be the absorption of one by the other and then an increase of rates to pay the expense of the warfare. It is also pointed out that such a course would be injurious to the public and that such a result would be beneficial and that such will be considered on their merits."

In the Ellwood City case the Pennsylvania Power Company, which has been furnishing power here for a number of years, has filed an application for a license to operate a plant in the Ellwood City case. The commission says in part: "Vested rights and interests must be duly considered and protected. The commission has no warrant to invite or permit limited competition anywhere unless the area and population served, the need of the community or the prospects of the municipality, as based on its growth and development, reasonably justify such a course. Public welfare demands it. This principle of protection must be extended to the individual citizens, who have invested in the plant equipment in good faith, may be duly protected in their interests."

Petitions Filed.—Senator Samuel W. B. Sells, of Philadelphia, to-day filed his petition to be a candidate for re-nomination on the Republican ticket in the second senatorial district. Nominating petitions were also filed as follows: House, Patrick Collins, Democrat, Twelfth Allegheny; Fred V. Hartzell, Democrat, Republican, Second Lackawanna; H. R. Conser, Punksutawney, Democrat, Jefferson; William Preston Lupold, Shamokin, Washington, Northumberland; P. B. Law, Wilmerding, Socialist, Tenth Allegheny. State committees are: H. L. Holmes' Floral Display Unusually Attractive

The floral display at the Holmes Seed Store, 119 South Second street, always a beautiful sight, presents some distinctive and new ideas in potting plants at this time. Hundreds of beautiful plants in full bloom with their rich and varied colorings completely fill their display rooms.

Noticeable among the newer flowers is the Tausendsohn Rose with pink and white blooms. It is of the climbing variety, a continuous bloomer and of the hardy type. There is also the Magna Charta whose beauty is known to those familiar with flower lore, an baby ramblers, covered with beautiful blooms.

Azaleas are to be seen in profusion. The colorings are many and in practically every instance the number of buds will run into the hundreds, while on the specimen plants more than a thousand buds are to be found on a single plant.

Some unusual specimens of rhododendrons are to be seen in the display. Especially beautiful are two specimen plants bearing hundreds of flowers, which have been purchased by an individual and will be used Easter day for decorative purposes at the Stevens Memorial Church.

Then there are spiraea, yucca, tulips, jonquils, lilies, hyacinths, narcissus and other potted blooms all combining to make a most pleasing sight. Although many plants have been sold arrangements have been made to replenish the stock and the visitor to the store will be treated to a most enjoyable sight.—Advertisement.

Will Be Given a Tryout on Middle and Philadelphia Divisions

Something new in a freight line, almost equal in size to the great locomotive that goes to the Erie road this week, will be tried on the Middle and Philadelphia divisions. This engine will be completed at Altoona shops within the next two weeks. The engine belongs to the Mikado type and will be known as the 125. When standing along side an ordinary engine the big locomotive makes the present type to look like a mere toy. The boiler besides being of large dimensions, is equipped with a superheater and has 37, two one-and-one-quarter inch flues, nineteen 14 and one-half inch long, and forty, and one-half inch flues, nineteen 14 and one-half inch long.
