30TH ANNIVERSARY OF BETHANY CLASS

Miss Pollock's Scholars See "Voices of Women's" Missionary Pageant

The Women's Bible class of Bethany Presbyterian Church, Miss Rachel Pollock teacher, celebrated its 30th anniversary last evening at the church, with an attendance of seventy members.

The class was organized by the Rev. J. Newton Armstrong, and has had two teachers since then, Mr. Leach and Miss Pollock. From a membership of eleven the class has grown to twenty, with women coming from all parts of the city, Rockville and Enola.

"Barden of the Cross" Sung by Zion's Choir

The sorrowful events of Good Friday were appropriately commemorated in Zion Lutheran Church last night by the singing of William Reed's beautiful cantata, "Barden of the Cross," by the church choir of forty voices.

From the opening choros, "Take Up Thy Cross," which was sung with excellent precision of attack, and a nice taste in tone coloring, to the final choros, "Lord of My Heart," the large congregation, which filled the church, listened with unabated interest.

The Easter praise service will be given Sunday night. The program is of unusual interest. Miss Bennett and Mr. Allen will be the soloists, the former singing the recitation and air "The Lord is Risen" from Sullivan's "Light of the World" and Mr. Allen will sing "My Hope is in the Everlasting" from the "Daughter of Jairus," by Stainer. Two Easter carols, one modern and one of the 16th century, begin the service. "The God Hath Appointed a Day" will prove a fitting close.

Norman Johnson Given Birthday Celebration

A surprise party was held at the home of Norman L. Johnson, 1862 Swatara street, Thursday evening in celebration of his twenty-eighth birthday anniversary. A delightful evening was spent with music and games.

April Bride-elect Is the Guest of Honor

Miss Helen Weaver, of 1555 Hunter street, gave an informal tea this afternoon in compliment to Miss Jean F. Robinson, who will wed C. Lawrence Shepley the latter part of April. White, nymphs, pussy willows, laurel and fern gave a touch of Springtime to the house. Presiding at the tea table was Miss Miriam Carl, assisted by Miss Ruth Heagy. In attendance were Miss Robinson, Miss Irene Scholl, Miss Victoria Baker, Miss Rene Shields, Miss Ruth Keroth, Miss Margaret Canvey, Miss Carl, Miss Josephine Ulrich, Miss Heagy and Miss Weaver.

REPEAT ENTERTAINMENT

Such was the success of the Linglestown high school dramatic productions, "Ver's Vacation" and "Bargain Day" at Blumenstein, Easton, Pa., that the entertainment will be repeated tonight in the high school building at 7.45.

BIG DEMAND FOR CHORAL TICKETS

Sale Opens Today; All Preparations for Festival Now Complete

Judging from the sale of seats today immense houses will greet the Harrisburg Choral Society at its Easter festival on Thursday. When the sale of seats opened at 9 o'clock this morning there were many waiting to secure seats for the concert.

A large number of mail applications have been received at the theater from applicants living in the surrounding counties, particularly Lancaster, York and Cumberland. The members of the Choral Society are greatly appreciated by the public living around Harrisburg and there are many patrons from the adjacent towns.

Tickets for the afternoon orchestral concert are numbered with the large number "46" and tickets for the evening concert are numbered with the large number "47". Patrons should see that they have the proper tickets before presenting them at the theater, otherwise they will have trouble in gaining admission says the festival management.
