Harrisburger Lands a Good-sized Tarpon

Fred H. Davis, of this city, a former manager for the Swift company, with Mrs. Davis and Miss Harriet Davis, after their way home by automobile after spending the winter in Florida. Last week Mr. Davis, who had been out for several nights in John's Pass, Mitchell's Beach, fishing for tarpon, with rod and line, landed the first fish of the season, a forty-two pounder, not so large of course, but still large enough to make some sport before being landed. Thirty minutes from the time of the bite, after skillful playing, Mr. Davis had the tarpon in the boat. Mr. Davis has beaten the two well-known tarpon guides, Roberts and Van Bennett, neither of whom has caught a tarpon this season.
Mrs. Harris B. Wilson, of 934 North Second street, is enjoying a stay with relatives in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.
Miss E. Blanche Clute, North Second street, is home after an Easter visit to New York city.
Mrs. J. Ritchie Smith, of 127 State street, entertained a Monday Embroidery Club of which she is a member, at her home, yesterday afternoon.

THE CHORAL SOCIETY HONORS ITS FOUNDER

J. H. Kurzenknebe Tells of Organization in Its Earliest Days

J. H. Kurzenknebe, a veteran musician of this city, was last evening the guest of the Harrisburg Choral Society. The honor of having been the founder of this society belongs to Mr. Kurzenknebe and it was in recognition of this fact that he was asked to give a brief history of the society last evening.
In the Spring of 1894 the Pennsylvania State Music Teachers' Association met in Harrisburg and elected Mr. Kurzenknebe president, who thereupon organized a chorus of three hundred. This roster of members is at present owned by Mr. Kurzenknebe as well as the first official program given by the society.
After repeat 4 visits to Philadelphia Mr. Kurzenknebe induced Dr. W. W. Gilchrist to come here and direct the chorus, "Elijah" being the work selected. Upon a motion made by Mr. Kurzenknebe the late Dr. George W. Chambers was selected president of the society, an office which he so ably filled for many years. This first festival given by the society covered three days and was attended by hundreds from all parts of the State. The success and permanency of the society largely being the result of the untiring efforts and enthusiasm in the cause of choral music for this city. It has been suggested that Mr. Kurzenknebe be made a life honorary member.

Interesting Program Benefit Milk Society
The Modified Milk Society is well pleased with the successful entertainment given last evening at the Executive Mansion, through the courtesy of the Governor and Mrs. Tener, and the society's treasury is richer by a goodly sum.
Miss Jean Wilson, of Washington, D. C., a dramatic reader, gave an interesting program, assisted by Mrs. Roy G. Cox, soprano, and violin obbligatos played by Miss Sara Lemer. Miss Wilson is especially good in monologue and her delineations, especially of the English type in "Sewing Carpet Rugs" brought round after round of applause. The stage was set at the west end of the large red drawing room, with a border of palms surrounding it, and the footlights and arrangement of seats made an ideal place for an entertainment.
Following the program refreshments were served in the state dining room at small tables.

Eighty-fifth Birthday of Mrs. Christina Hahn
Mrs. Christina Hahn, of 294 South Thirteenth street, celebrated her eighty-fifth birthday with a party last evening at Hainlyn, the summer home of Mrs. William C. Aldinger.
Mrs. Hahn gave much pleasure by recitations of German poetry and prose, and her grand-daughter, Miss Evelyn Aldinger, played for a birthday dance in which most of the guests joined.

Guests of Mrs. Weiss Meet Mrs. George T. Fox
Guests at tea this afternoon of Mrs. John H. Weiss and Miss M. Caroline Weiss at their residence, 325 North Front street, were invited to meet Mrs. George Francis Fox, Jr., of Philadelphia.
The house was aglow with roses and ferns, carrying out a color scheme of pink in the drawing room and halls. In the dining room, yellow prevailed, with tulips, daffodils, and nasturtiums forming the centerpieces of the table, where Mrs. Richard J. Haldeman and Mrs. William W. Jennings presided.
Assisting were Mrs. William E. Bailey, Miss Helen Espy, Mrs. George Kunkel, Mrs. Philip T. Meredith, Mrs. Walter P. Maguire, Mrs. Robert H. Moffitt, Miss Jane Gilbert, Mrs. John Fox, Mrs. Mrs. George Preston, of New York city; Mrs. Samuel Lewis Motter, of Frederick, Md.; Miss Mary Jennings, Miss Letitia Brady, Miss Elsie Haldeman, Miss Elizabeth Bailey, Miss Janet Sawyer, Miss Helen Hammond, Miss Emily Bailey and Miss Frances Bailey.

Central High School Notes of Timely Interest
Miss Miriam Hall was hostess to the members of the H. P. Club of the Central High School last evening at her home, 1805 North Fifth street. A most enjoyable evening was spent, supper being served late in the evening to the following guests: Miss Susan Shaffer, Miss Marion Beatrice Townsend, Miss Margaret Velder, Miss Katherine Lichtenberger, Miss Sarah Dennis, Miss Marion Saylor and Miss Miriam Hall.
Miss Lenora Carr Fry of the class of '14, at the Central High school, who, with her mother, Mrs. Miles D. Fry, has been spending the Easter holidays with relatives at Williamsport, Pa., will return to this city on Wednesday evening.

Local Folks Attend Carlisle Choral Society
There was quite a delegation from this city to attend the concert of the Carlisle Choral Society last evening. The society, under the leadership of Frederic C. Martin of this city, scored its greatest success in Gounod's "Redemption" sung by a chorus of 110 voices, accompanied by the Russian Symphony Orchestra, which appears here to-day with the Harrisburg Choral Society. Mr. Martin is receiving congratulations on all sides for his admirable work with the society, which he has directed for a number of years.

Miss McIlhenny Hostess to the Misses Aggar
The Misses Ethyl and Frances Aggar, of Philadelphia, were guests of honor at a charming afternoon tea, given by their hostess, Miss Mac McIlhenny at her home, 1217 Chestnut street.
The tea table was attractively arranged in a color scheme of yellow and white, with a centerpiece of daffodils. Miss Edith Flowers, pound and thirty guests had the pleasure of meeting the Misses Aggar.

T. R. For Governor Is New Cry of Bull Moose
New York, April 14.—Theodore Roosevelt is expected back from the jungle about May 15 or 20. His fellow Progressives hear that he has given up the idea of going to Madrid for the marriage of his son, Kermit, to Miss Belle Willard, daughter of Joseph E. Willard, American Ambassador to Spain.
Progressives throughout the State are preparing to hit the Colonel a body blow as soon as he lands, in the form of an "irresistible demand" that he run for Governor this fall.

No Suggestion Made to Exempt American Ships
Washington, April 14.—The American embassy at London, first suggested to Great Britain that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty be superseded by a new one that the United States might build a canal across the Isthmus of Panama, told the Senate canal committee to-day that in all the negotiations of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty no suggestion ever had been made that American coastwise ships might be exempted from the payment of canal tolls.

Appeal From Decision in Pottsville Case
Pottsville, Pa., April 14.—The Pottsville Journal says: "Council for the liquor dealers C. E. Berger, A. L. Shay and John F. Whelan have prepared an appeal to be taken to the Supreme Court immediately in the case decided by Judge Kunkel on Saturday to the effect that Pottsville shall remain a city of the third class. As soon as the decision was handed down the liquor men got busy and preparations for an appeal were made."

PROMINENT SPEAKERS AT SUFFRAGE TEA

Guests of Mrs. Darlington Hear Talks on "Woman and the Franchise"
Quite an innovation in the way of entertaining, was the reception and tea given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. James Henry Darlington, at the Seehouse, 321 North Front street, in compliment to her guests, Mrs. Stanley McCormick of Boston and Newport, a member of the national board of Woman Suffrage, and Mrs. Henry Wise Miller, of New York, whose column in the Sunday Tribune, "Woman—The People," is so admirable.
Both the visitors made forceful addresses on "Political Equality for Women," with entertaining as well as educational features. Enjoyed by the large audience gathered in the "Bishop's Hall."
Spring blossoms in yellow prevailed throughout the house with branches of yellow jasmine, tulips, daffodils predominating. In the tea room, where Mrs. Robert A. Lamberton presided over the tea cups and Mrs. A. W. Wilson Norris at the chocolate service, there was a large centerpiece of brilliant nasturtiums on the table. Among those assisting were Mrs. J. C. Kunkel, Mrs. George Douglas Ramsay, Mrs. Rollin Alger Sawyer, Mrs. Frank D. Carney, C. B. Honaker, Gilbert, Mrs. Walter P. Maguire, Miss Elise Haldeman, Mrs. John E. Fox, Mrs. Francis Jordan Hall, and a number of the younger society girls.

Mrs. Mercur Marries Count Bianchi of Italy
Mrs. Robert Sayre Mercur, daughter of the Rev. W. O. Houck and Mrs. Houck, of Carlisle, was united in marriage at noon to-day with Count Adolfo Brocchi Bianchi, of Sienna, Italy, at the rectory of St. Patrick's cathedral, by the Right Reverend Mr. Hassett.
The bridal party included the bride's parents, Herbert Houck, of Carlisle; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Houck, of Williamsport; C. B. Honaker, of Hazleton; Dr. and Mrs. Henry M. Stine and Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hildrup, Jr., of this city.
Following the service a wedding breakfast was served at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Henry M. Stine, 21 South Front street, and during the afternoon the Count and Countess Bianchi left for honeymoon trip to Atlantic City. They will sail for Europe in May and spend the summer at their country place just outside Vienna before occupying their palace in Sienna.
The Countess Bianchi is a former resident of Harrisburg and has spent several years in Europe with her sons, Robert and Fritz Mercur, who are at school in Switzerland. She is well known in New York and Philadelphia, and has been a member of the old world, as the wife of a member of an ancient Italian family.

Health and Beauty Helps

B. A.: The quickest way to remove dandruff and oil from hair is by shampooing occasionally with a teaspoonful of canthrox (which, like all the simple hairdressing preparations, can be bought at any good drug store), dissolved in a cup hot water. This makes a thick, white lather that instantly stops irritation and dissolves every particle of dust, dandruff and excess oil. Rinsing leaves scalp and hair wonderfully sweet and clean, the hair will dry quickly and evenly. I find canthrox shampoo is splendid for correcting the dull, "stringy," brittle condition of the hair and inducing a luxuriant growth, which is brilliant and fluffy.

Belle: I think singeing the hair is working at the wrong end, because the trouble is at the roots. Make up a home and use this hair tonic: In 1 pint alcohol put 1 ounce quinzoin (get from druggist), then add 1/2 pint water and use this 2 or 3 times each week, massaging well into the scalp, and you will see the hair growing again. This is an excellent for over-curling dandruff and excess oiliness and soon puts the scalp and hair-roots in a healthy condition.

Fun For Young Folks at Bide-a-Wee Cottage

A delightful time was enjoyed last evening by a number of Harrisburg young folks at "Bide-a-Wee" cottage, owned by M. A. Sigler, on the banks of the Susquehanna, near Dauphin. A fire was built in the open fireplace where later in the evening marshmallows were toasted. Supper was served to the hungry crowd and later the wide porches were found to make a fine dancing floor. Miss Mary Sigler presided at the piano.
The party walked to Rockville during the evening, taking the car to this city afterward. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Sigler chaperoned the guests, among whom were the Misses Dorothy Dickert, Ivy L. Jones, Mary Laverty, Kath. A. Wohl, Anna Mosey, Mary Sigler, Grace Sigler, Dorothy Stewart, Messrs. J. Donald Carpenter, Lee Iyer Curtis Nye, Lloyd Reinert, Edward Richardson, William Spangler, A. W. Saussaman, all of Harrisburg; Ray K. Chalfant, of Pennsylvania, and Russell Hummel, of Hummelstown.
Isaac Mayer, a Princeton student, has resumed his studies after spending the Easter holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mayer, 1611 Green street.

SURE WAY TO GET RID OF DANDRUFF

End Itching Scalp and Stop Falling Hair—At Once.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.
By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.
If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.—Advertisement.
