

Central Pennsylvania News

Seven Will Graduate From Wellsville High School

Special to The Telegraph. Dillsburg, Pa., April 22.—A program arranged for the commencement exercises of the Wellsville high school on Saturday evening, April 25, includes an invocation by the Rev. H. T. Bowersox; president's address, Bernice I. Gerber; oration, "The Wizard," by Sarah E. Moody; vocal solo, Ethel Barnes; class prophecy, Helen Lenker; oration, "Perseverance," William B. Wireman; music, M. Lloyd Speck; recitation, "Kept in at Recca," Mary Meals; presentation of gifts by Rebecca G. Wireman; valedictory, "Americanism," Bessie M. Chronister; address by the Rev. J. W. Long; presentation of diplomas by president of the school board, Joseph Milligan; benediction, by the Rev. H. T. Bowersox.

WEDDING AT NEWPORT

Special to The Telegraph. Newport, Pa., April 22.—At noon yesterday at her home in North Fourth street Miss Myrtle M. Minnick, the only daughter of David Minnick, manager of the Philadelphia Racket Store, was united in marriage with Ralph H. Gilbert, a prominent young druggist of Chambersburg, by the Rev. James MacKenzie Runkle, Ph. D., pastor of the Reformed Church of the Incarnation. The couple were unattended and after the ceremony left for their future home at Chambersburg.

OFFICERS OF HOME STUDY CLUB

Special to The Telegraph. Middleburg, Pa., April 22.—On Monday evening the Home Study Club met at the home of the president, Mrs. T. A. Stetler. After the study for the evening had been discussed by Mrs. G. W. Wagenseller, Mrs. G. W. Haslinger and Mrs. A. D. Gouglar, the annual election of officers was held. The following were elected: President, Mrs. T. A. Stetler; vice-president, Mrs. A. D. Gouglar; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. M. I. Potter; musical director, Mrs. G. W. Wagenseller. A course of study on Germany, Belgium and Denmark was adopted for the next year.

VETA STOVE POLISH is the handiest thing ever put on the market. Comes in a tube. 10c. VETA SHOE POLISH is the most convenient shape for carrying. Use the tube. Ten cents. Sold everywhere. Veta Mfg. Co., Allentown, Pa.

Story-Teller Contest by Wilson College Students

Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., April 22.—The Omega Theta story-telling contest took place Monday evening. The six members of the society who were chosen to take part told their stories with art and held their large audience. The judges awarded first place to Henrietta Gerwig, Pittsburg, Pa., for her original story and second place to Theodora Culver, Jenkintown, Pa., for her skillful retelling of the story of Esther. President McKeag presented to Miss Gerwig in cash and to Miss Culver ten dollars in cash. While the judges were out considering the awards, Miss Elizabeth Gaddard, of the department of music, sang several songs.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY GARDNER

Dillsburg, Pa., April 22.—On Monday evening Mrs. Mary Gardner, one of the oldest residents of Dillsburg, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Abram L. Helkes, in South Baltimore street, after a lingering illness of dropsy and heart trouble. Mrs. Gardner was 84 years old and is survived by one sister, Mrs. Helkes; two brothers, Levi Wagner, of Clear Springs, and Peter Wagner, of Martintown, Pa.; and two step sons, David H. Gardner, of York, former York county superintendent, and William Gardner, of Harrisburg. The funeral will be held on Thursday with services in the Franklin church.

EARLY MORNING WEDDING

Special to The Telegraph. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Joseph S. Roth, of this place, and Miss Anna Link, of Lancaster, were married yesterday morning at 5:30 o'clock at a nuptial mass in Holy Trinity Catholic Church by the assistant rector, the Rev. Father C. M. Ehehalt. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left on a trip to Reading and after their return will reside here.

BOY BITTEN BY DOG

Special to The Telegraph. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Freddie, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Keesey, was bitten in the face by a dog while at play with a number of companions. One of the number in a playful way flung the dog at the boy and as it landed on the little fellow's face the dog bit him on the lip, inflicting an ugly wound.

WEDDING AT COLUMBIA

Special to The Telegraph. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—Miss Adelle Iona McBride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. McBride, of this place, and James E. Moore, of Wrightsville, were united in marriage on Saturday evening at the rectory of St. Peter's Catholic Church by the pastor, the Rev. P. J. Costigan. They were attended by Miss Margaret Fisher, of Columbia, and George Moore, of Wrightsville.

FOUND TIN BOX WITH $300

Special to The Telegraph. Lebanon, Pa., April 22.—A tin box, containing $300 in gold and currency, was found on the premises of the late Mrs. Amanda Wooster, a Myerstown woman, who died several weeks ago very suddenly. The box was found back of an old wood chest.

WEST SHORE NEWS

ENOIA FIRE ALARM DISTRICTS PLANNED

Whole Town Divided and Calls Established For Each Section For Summoning Firemen

Enola, Pa., April 22.—At a recent meeting held in the Enola Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association of representatives of the Enola Fire Company, No. 1, and the Pennsylvania Railroad fire company the town was divided into six districts, as follows: District No. 1, fire alarm signal No. 21, from Brick Church road and town limits on the south to Perry street to Susquehanna avenue to Enola road to town limits. District No. 2, fire alarm signal No. 22, from Altoona avenue and Perry street to Shady lane to Brick Church road to Perry street to the corner of Altoona avenue. District No. 3, fire alarm signal No. 23, from Perry street to Wyo ming avenue to Dauphin street to Susquehanna avenue to Perry street to corner of Altoona avenue. District No. 4, fire alarm signal No. 24, Enola road to Juniata street to Susquehanna avenue, south on Susquehanna avenue to Enola road, to Juniata street. District No. 5, fire alarm signal No. 25, Juniata street and Enola road to Shady lane, to Beaver avenue, to a straight line to the corner of Juniata street and Susquehanna avenue, to Enola road. District No. 6, fire alarm signal No. 26, corner of Susquehanna avenue and Dauphin street to Wyoming avenue, to Dauphin street to Beaver avenue, to Shady lane, to Beaver avenue, thence in a straight line to Susquehanna avenue and Juniata street and Dauphin street.

$150,000 Fund For Y.M.C.A. at Waynesboro Now Assured

Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., April 22.—The Young Men's Christian Association clock in the public square shows that it is "11 o'clock" in the big campaign and there are four days yet to reach "12." There was no lack of enthusiasm at the meeting Monday evening of the committee who are engaged in raising $150,000 for the Young Men's Christian Association building. The Alpha Club at its monthly meeting last evening voted to contribute $200 to the fund. Members of the club have already given $1,100 individually.

CLASS MOTTO ADOPTED

Marysville, Pa., April 22.—"Carpe Diem" ("Seize the Opportunity") has been selected by the class of 1914 as a motto.

ARRANGING FOR MOTHERS' DAY

New Cumberland, Pa., April 22.—A committee was appointed from the Methodist Sunday school to arrange a program for Mothers' Day, which will be observed Sunday, May 2.

HOME QUARANTINED

New Cumberland, Pa., April 22.—Mrs. Paul Bickley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bickley of Fifth street, was under an attack of scarlet rash. The house is under quarantine.

"AUNT DINAH'S PARTY"

New Cumberland, Pa., April 22.—An entertaining party was given by Dinah's Quilting Party, will be held under the auspices of N. P. Burn's and Miss Jennie Naylor's school classes for the benefit of the Methodist Church.

DANVILLE WEDDING

Special to The Telegraph. Sunbury, Pa., April 22.—John Newberry and Miss Ethel Harrison, both of Danville, were married there yesterday by the Rev. Walter C. Clapp, the pastor of Christ Memorial Episcopal Church.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING

David Gordon a Candidate For the Legislature

As stated in the Telegraph last week, David Gordon, of Hershey, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Assemblyman from the second district of Dauphin county. Mr. Gordon's reputation as a citizen, as a business man, and as a public official stands high throughout the county and he is the latter part of the month will occupy their home in South Church street upon their arrival.

SILK MILL TO RESUME WORK

Special to The Telegraph. Columbia, Pa., April 22.—The Ashley & Bailey silk mill, which has been idle since January, was purchased by the Schwartzbach & Huber Co., of New York, who will immediately put the plant into condition to resume operations. The plant will make the same class of goods as under the former ownership and will employ 800 hands. Work will be resumed on or before May 1.

ADDRESS TO GRADUATES

Special to The Telegraph. Middleburg, Pa., April 22.—The Rev. S. A. Snyder, pastor of the Evangelical Church, delivered the annual baccalaureate sermon to the class of 1914 of the Middleburg high school Sunday evening. The services were held in the Lutheran Church. The board of directors, superintendent, teachers and students of the high school attended in a body.

BERRYVILLE OFFICER SHOT

Special to The Telegraph. Hagerstown, Md., April 22.—Charles Feltner, chief of police of Berryville, Va., while coming to Hagerstown after Philip Jackson, a negro, who had been baccalaureate at Wheatland on the Norfolk and Western Railroad while attempting to arrest them. Feltner is believed to be fatally wounded.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Special to The Telegraph. Marietta.—Mrs. Annie Bryan, widow of Benjamin Bryan, 82 years old, died at the home of her sister. She died in the house where she was born. One sister survives. Little Britain.—Mrs. J. Gyles Jamison, 65 years old, died yesterday from typhoid pneumonia. Three weeks ago her husband had the disease and she contracted it while caring for him. He may not recover. Lancaster.—John Stewart, 93 years old, the oldest man in this city, died yesterday. He was the oldest Odd Fellows of Monterey Lodge and besides his wife four children and a number of grandchildren survive.

MAJOR GENERAL LEONARD A. WOOD

Chief of staff of the United States Army, who is now on his way to the border to take personal command of the forces that may be ordered to invade Northern Mexico.

Special to The Telegraph. Hagerstown, Md., April 22.—Reuben P. Myers, 26 years old, of Confluence, Pa., died yesterday at the Washington county hospital in this city as the result of being badly scalded in an accident on the Western Maryland Railroad, near Doe Gully tunnel, when a steam ditching machine turned over, pinning him beneath.

A WOMAN'S HEALTH

Every woman's health is peculiarly dependent upon the condition of her blood. How many women suffer with headache, pain in the back, poor appetite, weak digestion, a constant feeling of weariness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, pallor and nervousness? If you have any of the symptoms, do not despair of getting better but begin now, to-day, to build up your blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. See how the nervous energy of the body is restored as the blood becomes pure and red and the entire system is strengthened to meet every demand upon it.

DIES FROM INJURIES

Special to The Telegraph. Hagerstown, Md., April 22.—Reuben P. Myers, 26 years old, of Confluence, Pa., died yesterday at the Washington county hospital in this city as the result of being badly scalded in an accident on the Western Maryland Railroad, near Doe Gully tunnel, when a steam ditching machine turned over, pinning him beneath.

LETTER LIST

LIST OF LETTERS REMAINING IN THE POST OFFICE, at Harrisburg, Pa., for the week ending April 18, 1914. Ladies' List.—Mrs. Mary Angstadt, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Lena Barnes, Miss Pauline Bentz, Mrs. Mary Bricker, Miss Sallie Byrum, Mrs. Levi S. Clay, Annette Z. Cochran, Miss Mary Conners, Mrs. J. W. Curren, Mrs. J. A. Franz, Miss Ida Hamvish, Mrs. E. H. Hartman, Miss Annie L. Hay, Mrs. Ray Horlick, Mrs. Oscar Johnson, Mrs. John Lankester, Mrs. M. C. Lawson, Mrs. J. Lykes, Mrs. Harry McNeil, Mrs. G. H. Moore, Miss Minnie Meyer, Mrs. B. Barry, Miss Rosie Penn, Mrs. Theo. J. Prawl, Mrs. Samuel Quigley (D. L.), Miss Elizabeth Ross, Miss Mary Roush, Mrs. Sarah Shandler, Miss Mary Shealey, Mrs. J. W. Shepherdson, Mrs. John Smith, Miss Margaret Smith, Mrs. Clara Stevens, Miss Mary Strong, Margaret F. Tuell (D. L.), Mrs. Verna Welkins, Miss Mary Whitty, Mrs. M. L. Wood, Mrs. Julia Woods. Gentlemen's List.—S. G. Andrews, C. Adruan Balthasar, Walter M. Belinger (D. L.), George D. Berry, Rev. S. Bless, John M. Brinton, Harry Bryson, Rev. J. B. Burns, Geo. Everett, Geo. R. Fisher, T. J. Flynn, L. W. Freeman, David Freymover, Harvey R. Funk, Rev. Wm. M. Gamble, Joseph H. Goldstein, William Grimm, Harry Groves, Robert B. Hall, Master Warren Harmon, D. L. Harvey, Ralph R. Harvey, James H. Hunsicker, John Kazanas, J. T. Knox, J. M. Langham, James E. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Marshall, Charles Martin (C), Giovanni Mastascuto, John H. Miller, Mr. Mitchell, L. M. Myers, Rev. Edw. H. Orlay, J. W. Pangle, A. J. Pincus, F. W. Price, C. Radle, Campbell Roberts, James A. Robinson, J. L. Ross, Ernest L. Satchel, Geo. Shader, C. W. Siechler, Rev. Dr. Spangler, J. T. Thomas (D. L.), Wm. Thorp (D. L.), E. Faella Tomolillo, Frank Van Kirk, Warren Walkerman, W. E. Walton, William Washington, Charles W. White, Charles Wilson, John William Yingling, Harry Zanker. Firms.—R. P. Andrews Co., Harrisburg Beneficial Association, York Card Co. Foreign.—Jon Czujonski, Inofre Cas tells y Drago, C. S. Satchel, Geo. Satchel, Gabor, Miss Ethel Kary, Antonio Lanni, M. Marcus, Giorga Mmarnoni, Crisiede Penna, Margherita Rovarini, Gaeano Panoveth. Persons should invariably have their name matter addressed to their street and number, thereby insuring prompt delivery by the carriers.

RECENT DEATHS

Special to The Telegraph. Middleburg, Pa., April 22.—The Rev. S. A. Snyder, pastor of the Evangelical Church, delivered the annual baccalaureate sermon to the class of 1914 of the Middleburg high school Sunday evening. The services were held in the Lutheran Church. The board of directors, superintendent, teachers and students of the high school attended in a body.

BERRYVILLE OFFICER SHOT

Special to The Telegraph. Hagerstown, Md., April 22.—Charles Feltner, chief of police of Berryville, Va., while coming to Hagerstown after Philip Jackson, a negro, who had been baccalaureate at Wheatland on the Norfolk and Western Railroad while attempting to arrest them. Feltner is believed to be fatally wounded.

Recent Deaths in Central Pennsylvania

Special to The Telegraph. Marietta.—Mrs. Annie Bryan, widow of Benjamin Bryan, 82 years old, died at the home of her sister. She died in the house where she was born. One sister survives. Little Britain.—Mrs. J. Gyles Jamison, 65 years old, died yesterday from typhoid pneumonia. Three weeks ago her husband had the disease and she contracted it while caring for him. He may not recover. Lancaster.—John Stewart, 93 years old, the oldest man in this city, died yesterday. He was the oldest Odd Fellows of Monterey Lodge and besides his wife four children and a number of grandchildren survive.

Special To-morrow, Friday and Saturday An Interesting Sale of Women's Blouses

At prices much below their actual values in a variety of popular materials. Blouses of Flowered Crepes and Voiles in dainty blue and pink effects; values $1.95. Blouses of White Voile, some slightly soiled—high or low necks; values $4.95 to $9.00. Blouses of Colored Chiffons, over white foundations, one of a kind; values $6.95 to $12.00. Crepe de Chine Blouses, in the leading Spring shades, including black; value $5.00. Blouses of Shadow Lace in a number of rich designs—white and flesh colored; values $7.50 to $12.50.

Special attention is directed to our display of Middy Blouses of White Linene and Washable Crepes. The new shaped sailor collars are either white embroidered, solid colored or the latest Roman plaid effect—sizes 12 to 20. 95c $1.29 $1.39 $1.49. Shell M. B. Schlisner Stores 28-30-32 N. Third St.

Col. H. I. Zinn Post, G. A. R. Receives Historic Cannon

Special to The Telegraph. Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 22.—Colonel H. I. Zinn Post, No. 415, Grand Army of the Republic, made a requisition on the United States Government for a cannon, which arrived here yesterday, and will be placed as soon as arrangements can be made by the post. The officials were notified that the cannon would be shipped from one of the New England forts, and some cannon balls from New Jersey. It was billed to H. S. Mohler, commander of the local post, and will be taken to the post room, in the Reaue Hook and Ladder Company house.

MARRIED AT BALTIMORE

Special to The Telegraph. Mechanicsburg, Pa., April 22.—Announcement has been made of the marriage, in Baltimore, of Miss Jessie Re-

We Can Hatch 40,000 Hen Eggs

In lots of 150 each or more at 2c for each egg set. Send eggs to Stouffer Poultry Farm WHITE HILL, PA. or write to C. A. STOFFER, Box 224, Harrisburg, Pa.

WHY NOT HAVE A CLEAR SKIN CUTICURA SOAP

Used exclusively and Cuticura Ointment occasionally will promote and maintain a clear skin, free from pimples, blackheads, redness, roughness and other unsightly eruptions. Samples Free by Mail. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 25¢ book. Address "Cuticura," Dept. 1531, Boston.

SIX VOLUMES LARGE TYPE

FREE LIBRARY COUPON Imported Six Volume Set Introductory Distribution by HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH Not Good After May 1st

Great Authors Library FREE LIBRARY COUPON FREE HOW TO GET IT! Clip the Library Coupon and bring or send to the Telegraph office, with the expense item of 98c for the entire six volume set of books. This amount we ask you to pay to cover the cost of transportation, U. S. custom duties, handling, etc. If you desire to have the set sent by mail or express, all charges prepaid, add 17c, or $1.15 in all, and fill in name and address below. Name Address

"CREDIT IF YOU WISH" Come in & See How VALENTINE'S VALSPAR The Varnish That Won't Turn White PROTECTS THE DINING TABLES All this week there is a practical demonstration. Hot and cold water will be poured on Valspar finished tables and there won't be the sign of a scar, no white rings, no blistering nor checking. Positively no damage or discoloration whatever. Almost seems impossible to get a varnish that will do this, yet all this and more can be done on Valspar finished tables. You don't have to worry if hot dishes are placed on the table or if something is spilled. It can't hurt a table finished with this wonderful Valspar finish. Special Prices on Valspar Tables As an introduction during this demonstration week—we offer these two specials, and sold with the VALSPAR GUARANTEE. finished table. Genuine quartered oak top, size 6 feet, scroll foot, fluted center column. Special, $15.50. finished table. Genuine quartered oak, plank top, massive pedestal, best construction. Special, $21.00. Burns & Co. 28-30-32 S. Second Street