BRESSLER BIG FACTOR IN A MACK VICTORY

Former Harrisburger Had Yankees Fanning the Air in a Pitchers' Dual

"Rube" Bressler, the young south-paw, may not return to Harrisburg. There is a reason. Yesterday he helped the Athletics win. Bressler wants to remain in fast company and believes he will make good. Mack's crowd defeated New York, in eleven innings, score 7 to 6.

Since Bressler has shown his ability to do something, other leagues are likely to seek the services of the Harrisburg twirler. Here are a few things the Philadelphia papers say about Bressler and his sensational work yesterday:

North American—"Standing out like a palm tree in a desert was the pitching of Rube Bressler, 2, late of the Tri-State League. The youthful left-hander succeeded J. Weldon Wyckoff during a shaky epoch in the fifth inning. Right off the bat, James Walsh made a clean steal of home, but otherwise the Yanks never got in gun range of the plate. They made only two hits in the 6-2-3 innings that the ex-Harrisburg southsider performed." Press—"In the early part of the skirmish with J. Weldon Wyckoff holding the firing line for the Army of Mack, it looked as if the invaders would repeat. The tall tutor saw defects in the firing of his general. He ordered "Rube" Bressler, a recruit from Harrisburg, to the front and the youthful shooter cast his portside shells with such accurate aim that the Chancemen were unable to penetrate the defense to any great extent.

"This young recruit from the capital of this State surprised some five thousand souls by his clever firing. Only twice did the invaders dent the line for no further damage was done after the retreat of General Wyckoff. Five of the New Yorkers died over the strikeout route, so sure was the delivery of the Rube."

Double Windup on Lancaster Fight Bill

With a double windup as the one big feature, Manager Harry H. Hensel of the Lancaster Athletic Club expects another large crowd Monday night when he offers an unusually interesting program.

Changing the Lancaster shows to Monday night has brought about increased patronage. Ty Cobb who has won and lost with Tommy Greiner, will meet Tim Dorney of Lancaster. The two other bouts will be between Young Russell, of Lancaster, and Joe O'Keefe, of Manayunk; Jimmy McCluskey, of Pencoed, and Ben Finerock, of Lancaster. Harrisburg fight fans have engaged a large section of seats, and York and Reading will also send many patrons.

Penn's Annual Relay Race Today's Big Athletic Event

Small Army of High School and College Athletes Entered; New Records Are Expected From Olympic Stars

Philadelphia, April 25.—Nearly 2,500 college and school athletes, including many champions, took part in the annual relay carnival of the University of Pennsylvania to-day on Franklin field. The greatest interest centered upon the four-mile college relay championship of the world in which Oxford University, Cornell, Pennsylvania, Ohio State, Pennsylvania State and Boston College were entered.

Two members of the English team, Captain Jackson, the olympic 1,500 meter champion, and Taber, the Rhodeas scholar from Brown University, have both done better than 4 minutes 16 seconds for the mile, while Gausson and Sproule, the two other members of the team were depended upon to do better than 4 minutes 30 seconds. Cornell had a well-rounded team while Pennsylvania had McCurdy, the intercollegiate champion, and three other strong runners. The 100-yard dash in the special events brought together Howard Drew, the A. A. U. champion who is now a student at the University of Southern California, and Patterson, of Pennsylvania, the intercollegiate champion. Drew recently ran the distance in 9 3-5 seconds, according to reports from the coast. Jones, of Georgetown, was a dark horse in this race.

Bucknell Salutes Cockill's Senators

Lewisburg, Pa., April 25.—Bucknell bit large chunks of grass from the sod, ploughed the diamond with their noses, and did many other circus tricks in their efforts to follow the pace of George Cockill's Tri-State squad yesterday. It was the opening game for the Harrisburgers and they won hands down, score 12 to 3.

Three Bucknell twirlers who have stood the storms of many battles with college teams, large and small, were toys for the Senators' slugers. On the other hand the Lewisburg contingent almost broke their backs in reaching for puzzlers handed up by Gohn, Adams and Wyckoff. Harrisburg plays at Scranton to-day with Bill Coughlin and his team. The score yesterday:

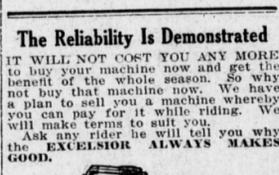

Bucknell 0 0 0 2 0 0 1 0 — 3
Harrisburg 0 0 2 0 4 2 1 0 3 — 12

BOWLERS BATTLE FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Colonial Club Tournament Is Arousing Unusual Interest; Good Scores Made

An interesting bowling tournament is on at the Colonial Country Club that promises some new records before the series is ended. Five teams are in competition for championship honors and rules governing this tournament are quite unique.

Busy men are in the contest and sometimes one or more bowlers may not be able to play. To cover the absences, averages have been agreed upon for each man. If a player is unable to be present and cannot provide a substitute, his average will count in his team's score.

Three of the teams have already been at work and it looks like a close and exciting tournament. The two teams holding the highest total scores on May 20 will compete for the championship. The schedule of games is as follows:

Teams 1 and 2, April 28; May 1, Teams 3 and 4; May 5, Teams 1 and 5; May 8, Teams 2 and 1; May 12, Teams 3 and 5; May 15, Teams 1 and 4; May 19, Teams 1 and 4; May 22, Teams 2 and 5; May 20, championship contest.

The members of each team and their averages are:

Team 1—W. P. Starkey, assumed average, 160; J. C. Orr, 155; R. E. Holmes, 130; C. H. Kinter, 140; A. S. Dellinger, 130.
