We have marked down some of our prettiest Hats-- About 20 Hats.

We could not find any more which needed marking down. However, we think we can interest 20 women sufficiently to give them quite a bargain.

The balance of the Hats in our French Room are too new and priced so moderate that they sell on sight.

This notice is worth investigating.

"WAR SPIRIT" OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

Boys at Lebanon Valley Demonstrate Their Feelings in Sham Battle

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., April 29.—Led by Joseph Rutherford, a Middletown boy, about 150 of the male students of Lebanon Valley College marched around the campus and through the streets of Annville last night as a demonstration of the war spirit brought on by the present trouble with Mexico. The students surrounded the administration building, where the national flag was saluted with much cheering. As a fitting conclusion of the night's enthusiasm the "army" divided itself into two squads on the campus and charged each other with broom clubs, canes and rakes. This morning several of the less fortunate students are nursing badly swollen faces.

The Systematic Housewife Eliminates Wash Day

System should prevail in the home just as it does in the business house, for it eliminates much work, waste time, expense and trouble. Adopt the system of knowing housewives. Send your washing to us. We will handle it as well as you, yourself.
All you do is simply give our driver your laundry bag. Before you know it, your washing is returned, clean and sweet—no garment torn—no buttons pulled off.
Phone now for our wagon. Learn what it means to get the upper hand on wash day and enjoy a day of rest or pleasure instead of drudgery and worry.

JUDGE TREXLER AT CHILD CONFERENCE

Will Speak on Saturday, May 9, at the Lehigh Valley Conference

All other engagements have been set aside by Judge Frank M. Trexler for Saturday, May 9, so that he may attend the fifth annual meeting of the Lehigh Valley Child Helping Conference, to be held at Muhlenberg College. Of this admirable movement Judge Trexler was the founder, as he was at the time on the common pleas bench of Lehigh county at Allentown. Notable instances of the child helping movement are the famous Neighborhood House at Palmerton and the Carter Junior Republic at Redington. Judge Trexler, who was on the bench of Lehigh county for eleven years prior to his elevation to the Superior Court, is intensely interested in children. First of all, long before he ever thought of becoming a judge, he acquired a family of his own, of the size approved by Colonel Roosevelt. From his experience on the bench he gleaned the idea that it was all wrong to treat certain children, or any children at all, in the criminal sessions, and became a pioneer in the child helping movement.

Judge Trexler is president of the Juvenile Court Association of Pennsylvania, which aims to keep children out of the courts, and he is the founder and has for twenty years been the president of the Allentown Young Men's Christian Association, which during his administration, year by year, has had a membership of upward of 25,000. A remarkable stroke of ability on the part of Judge Trexler was the financing of the magnificent $200,000 building of the Allentown Y. M. C. A.

ENDERS-ELDER MARRIAGE

Miss Bessie E. Elder and Matthew H. Enders, both of this city, were united in marriage Monday evening, April 27, at the home of Mrs. Francis Elder, Wodbine street, by the Rev. A. S. Williams, pastor of the Curtin Heights Methodist Church. The bride wore a frock of white silk voile, with touches of lace and satin. She carried a bouquet of bride roses. Congratulations and a supper followed the service. Mr. and Mrs. Enders will make their home in this city.

Miss Charles Freysinger and Charles Martinisale, both of Lemoyne, were married here Saturday evening by the Rev. E. K. Thomas, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Miss Emma S. Adams, of Shermansdale, and Ira D. Fish, Jr., of Mechanicsburg, were married here Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Baptist church by the Rev. E. K. Thomas.

Baum-Miller Wedding at the Bride's Home

The marriage of Miss Romaine Bertha Miller and J. Lauer Baum was a quiet event last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Miller, Wormleysburg. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock, by the Rev. George B. Renshaw, pastor of the United Brethren Church, at Wormleysburg, in the presence of the immediate families of the young couple.

The bride, who was unattended, wore a charming gown of white satin with chiffon draperies, and carried a shower of bride roses and valley lilies. After an informal reception and supper Mr. and Mrs. Baum left for their wedding journey to Southern points. Mr. Baum is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Baum of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Baum of the Bridge and Construction Department of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, at Steelton.

MRS. DECEVEE HEADS THE WEDNESDAY CLUB

Election This Morning Follows Brilliant Concert Which Closes Season

The annual meeting of the Wednesday Club was held this morning, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. Edwin J. Decevee; vice-president, Miss Nancy Shunk; recording secretary, Mrs. Bent Leonard Weaver; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William L. Keller; leader of chorus, Miss Ruth Swope Conkling. The president will appoint a program committee later on.

Last evening's concert in Fahnestock Hall was a brilliant closing to a Saturday morning from 9:30 to 12 o'clock Mrs. Edwin S. Herman, chairman of the garden school committee of the Civic Club, will be with her assistants at the Saturday business office, 11 North Second street, to give out seeds free to all school children who wish to compete for prizes. Pupils of all grades from the primary to the high school are eligible to enter the contest and they may purchase other seeds if they wish in order to make their gardens larger and prettier. Full directions will be given them on Saturday how to proceed with their work.

Prizes will be awarded as follows: Ten dollars for the most beautiful back yard; two of $5 each for the next best and two of $2.50 each for the fourth and fifth winners, and a large number of $1 gifts for faithful work and improvements. It is hoped that all who will avail themselves of this privilege offered by the Civic Club.

The cantata, "Fair Ellen," by Max Bruch, was sung under the direction of Miss Conkling, with George Sutton, baritone, and Mrs. Cox, soprano, taking the solos. The concerted part showed careful work on the parts of both leader and chorus, and the whole effect was most pleasing.

Noon Meetings Held by Y. W. C. A. Committees

The noon meetings held by committees of the Young Women's Christian Association at various factories of the city are most interesting and largely attended. Monday at the Biograph factory was a red letter day, for the large audience had the pleasure of hearing Master Hugh Wall, a boy soprano, give some beautiful solos. He was heartily applauded and kept singing until the whistle blew to resume work.

Tuesday noon Mrs. Arthur M. Keown was the entertainer at the Knott factory. Mrs. Keown gave several whistling selections and the girls were so interested and appreciative of her talent that they have urged her return. Miss Amy Keown accompanied the soloist. The next meeting here will be a gospel service.

Bride-elect Is Hostess to Her Girl Friends

Miss Jean Fishel Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Robinson, 1538 Derry street, who is to be married to Harry Holmes, of C. L. Lawrence Shepley, 29 South Third street, last night entertained for her girl friends.

Following an evening of song and social frolic, a buffet supper was served to the Misses Helen Weaver, Ruth Heagy, Irene Sholl, Miriam Carl, Rene Shields, Merne Speece, Villa Baker, Margaret Aveney, Ruth Creep, Ruth Booth, May Baur, Ruth Willoughby and Mrs. John Record.

Reception After Lecture at Executive Mansion

Following the annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Executive Mansion, Dr. Arthur Holmes, of the Pennsylvania State College faculty, will make an address on "Child Development," to which all interested are invited.

Mrs. Tener will hold her "at home" to-morrow from 4 to 6 o'clock. It will be as delightfully informal as usual, as no cards are issued for these events.

Mrs. Thomas S. Blair, of 403 North Second street, went to Newville today to attend the funeral of a relative.

Miss Maude Mote, of 341 Hummel street, entertained the Olivet Embroidery Club at her home last evening.

Mrs. Guy S. Vogt, of 1826 Green street, was hostess last evening for a Five Hundred Club, of which she is a member. Twelve members were present.

Miss Effie McCaleb has returned to Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, after visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Baird McCaleb at 27 North Front street.

Mrs. Harry Crist, of 1509 Penn street, is enjoying a little visit in Washington, D. C.

Miss Tamson Drinkwater, of 111 Tuscarora street, was hostess Monday evening for the Queen Esther Circle of St. Paul's Methodist Church.

Mrs. Richard C. Hall has returned home to Bedford after visiting Mrs. New E. Salsich at the Riverside Apartments.

The Rev. Horace Clute Marries in New York

Announcements were received in this city to-day of the marriage of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Duncan, of New York, and the Rev. Horace Edwin Clute on Tuesday, April 28, at the Church of the Holy Nativity, of which the Rev. Mr. Clute is rector.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Dr. Mottet, rector of the Holy Communion Church.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, the wedding was very quiet, only the immediate family and a few intimate friends being present. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clute left for a two weeks' trip, after which they will reside in the rectory at Bedford Park, New York city.

STORK-NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. Harris Bell, of 1602 State street, announce the birth of a son, Chester Ellwood Bell, Monday, April 27, 1914. Mrs. Bell was formerly Miss Elizabeth S. Grumbine, of Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wheaton, of Pittsburgh, announce the birth of a daughter, Helen Keene Wheaton, Saturday, April 25, 1914. Mr. and Mrs. Wheaton were residents of Harrisburg for a time.

TURN THE BACKYARD INTO A FLOWER GARDEN

Civic Club Wants School Children to Beautify Their House Gardens

The Harrisburg Civic Club will try a new experiment this season, introducing work along the home garden lines, as practiced by many of the eastern and western cities, which have urged co-operation in the movement. Saturday morning from 9:30 to 12 o'clock Mrs. Edwin S. Herman, chairman of the garden school committee of the Civic Club, will be with her assistants at the Saturday business office, 11 North Second street, to give out seeds free to all school children who wish to compete for prizes. Pupils of all grades from the primary to the high school are eligible to enter the contest and they may purchase other seeds if they wish in order to make their gardens larger and prettier. Full directions will be given them on Saturday how to proceed with their work.

Prizes will be awarded as follows: Ten dollars for the most beautiful back yard; two of $5 each for the next best and two of $2.50 each for the fourth and fifth winners, and a large number of $1 gifts for faithful work and improvements. It is hoped that all who will avail themselves of this privilege offered by the Civic Club.

Y. W. C. A. District School Has Many Graduates

There was fun for everybody last evening at the Young Women's Christian Association, when a district school was held with an attendance of sixty pupils and visitors.

Girls of the T. M. T. M. Club were hostesses and the whole affair was carried out perfectly from the kindergarten class, in charge of Miss Elizabeth Hillery, through the primary and grammar grades, with Miss Roberts Swartz and Mrs. E. W. Harvey, teachers, to the graduating class with Dr. M. C. Jones, principal.

Special mention must be made of the German readings by Mrs. Sarah Erlenneyer, an advanced pupil, the musical numbers by Ellen Stitt, a pupil of Leschetizky, and the recitations by the Blair and Snyder children. Prizes for excellent work were presented to Mary Fisher, of the kindergarten; Helen Tighman, of the primary class; Mary Frances Abel, of the grammar school, and Maude Hoster, Edith Wilson and Edna Forner, of the academic department. Diplomas were presented at the close of the school and afterward the children received lunch boxes filled with good things to eat.

Gifts For Miss Sullivan Who'll Soon Be a Bride

Miss Mary Kennedy Sullivan, of 526 North street, a coming bride, received a shower of housekeeping gifts last evening from the clerks of a local department store.

Cards, music and a buffet supper were enjoyed later in the evening by the following: The Misses Kathryn Hagerman, Elizabeth Hager, Ruth Baker, Mary Weaver, Mary Earhart, Laura Fraehlich, Florence Shreffler, Gertrude Kell, Alice Cooper, Kathryn Eby, Martha Craig, Esther Martz, Ella Keenly, Mary McDevitt, Bertha Metzgar, Genevieve Watt, Leibel Koons, Sarah Holtry, Miss Humphrey, Miss Wilson, Miss Keener, Mrs. Dora Zell, Mrs. Smith Mrs. Moyer, Charles E.
