

MEN TO COOK AND SERVE CHURCH FEED

Fellows Will Spit on Their Hands and Get Busy With the Supper While the Ladies Sit and Chat

Mere men folks only will shed hats and coats, roll up their sleeves, adjust borrowed aprons, and—perhaps spit on their hands and get busy arranging for the preparation and service of the bean supper to be held tomorrow evening from 5 to 9 o'clock in the Curtin Heights Methodist church.

And the wives and daughters, sisters and the other fellows' sisters will just sit 'round and chat and gossip and sit and give critical attention to the manner in which they are served by the heads of their respective homes or homes-to-be.

The dinner is a result of some fond swain's brag about any man's ability to handle such a little affair as a church supper. He is a member of the men's Bible class. Much fun was poked at him; he was derided—so the story goes; he insisted that he and his whole class could prove it. Thus the trap was sprung.

For some days the men have been looking forward to the occasion and have been making preparations accordingly. This is also true of the women. But the plans have been carried very successfully so far even so far as the banner and flag display and a big attendance is looked for. The whole congregation is talking about it.

"Oh, dear," sighed a pretty uptown matron the other evening, when the head of the house returned from his run, "John, I'll have to have some funds to spend at your old party tomorrow evening. Wonder if it will be worth spending one's money for?"

"Why should you worry?" returned John as he counted from his roll.

Green presented the clergyman with an antique chair on behalf of the parish. The Rev. King will be installed next night in Paxton church. Dr. Lewis S. Mudge, of the Pine Street church, will preach the installation sermon.

The Rev. J. Ritchie Smith, of Market Square church will give the charge to the pastor. Special music will feature the services.

Delegates Return.—The Rev. J. H. Miller and J. S. Peifer, lay delegate, returned last night from the Spring meeting of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium's Lancaster conference at Columbia.

DICKENS TAUGHT HAPPINESS

Dickens was a manifest example of the great truth, he who makes us laugh the most, is the one to whom life appears most serious. He devoted his genius to the description of happiness. Happiness is a mystery. We can sense it, we can feel it, we know it, but we cannot tell what it is. Literature has failed in attempting to describe happiness as a state. It is not a state. It is a crisis. We are only happy in action. We are happiest at Christmas time, for then we are most active in the consideration of others. True happiness is measured not by selfishness, but by self-sacrifice. A man must give to the world a part of himself. We are most happy when we give, not when we receive. Dickens taught that to be truly happy we must interest ourselves in the welfare of each other.

THE CHARM OF DICKENS

Where other writers have thousands of admirers, Dickens has millions. He is equally beloved by all classes, because his stories go straight to the heart.

He possessed to a remarkable degree the power to delineate character. His people are regarded more as human beings than mere characters in books.

And his talents—You open a book and immediately a flood of delightful entertainment bursts upon you. You are unconscious of the effort of reading; you forget the printed page. So wonderful is the charm of Dickens that you seem to experience the things portrayed.

Where else will you find such lumbering, comfortable old stage coaches filled with such good company? Where else can you enter such dear old-fashioned inns, pull your chair before a roaring fire, and pass the evening with such jolly companions?

In what other books will you find such vivid contrasts! Here the most joyous of humor, there sombre tragedy. Then passages of infinite tenderness, followed by scorching denunciations of laws and customs that oppress the poor, the down-trodden, the weak.

The debtor's prison, the almshouse, the thieves' dens, the foundling asylum, quaint corners of old London, rural old England, Paris seething in the grip of the French Revolution; you see them all.

Finishing one of his books is like parting with old and dear friends; you cannot remain away long, because Dickens is one of the few authors you can read over and over again, each time finding new interest and charm.

ECZEMA ITCHED FOR 20 YEARS-- RESINOL CURED

Over Face, Arms and Hands. Would Walk the Floor All Night

Dec. 8, 1913: "I had eczema for 20 years. It started on me when I was 13 years old and am now 34, and I suffered all these years. It started with small pimples all over my arms and hands. My hands would swell up so that I could not hold them, and I was almost blind. I would itch, then burn, and I had to have the affected parts wrapped up so that I would not scratch them. I didn't sleep at all—just walked the floor a whole night.

I have tried many different remedies, and spent a large sum of money, but had no relief. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment were recommended to me. They gave me great relief. After the third application, and after using four jars of Resinol Ointment, three cakes of Resinol Soap, I am completely cured." (Signed) Mrs. H. Fleasler, Box 13, Dauphin, Pa.

Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap quickly heal skin eruptions, clear pimples and blackheads, and is a most valuable household treatment for sores, burns, boils, piles, etc. Trial size, free, write to Resinol, 10-R, Baltimore, Md. Sold by druggists. Prescribed by doctors 19 years.—Advertisement.

Two Weeks or More in Colorado—as Inexpensive as Home

You will be surprised to learn how it costs to spend two weeks or more in Colorado. I have corrected my wrong impressions about Colorado's Hotels and Boarding Houses and read "The Burlington" (C. B. & Q. R.) now get out a booklet showing reasonably and pleasantly one can spend a vacation in Colorado.

I would love to go to Colorado on vacation this summer, but the Hotel rates are so high—used to be the exception of many. Five minutes talk over the telephone, Colorado has her share of elaborate Hotels, but Colorado has lots of comfortable boarding places where the rates are as low as $10 a week—surroundings, wholesome, appetizing fare.

I would like to send you a copy of booklet. It will give you an entirely different idea about Colorado's hotel expenses, a complete list of hotels and boarding houses, their locations, rates, conveniences, elevators, other information. In addition, it contains full particulars on Colorado—its attractions and points of interest.

When it is known that its power to strengthen the system and build up the body is why Father John's Medicine relieves colds, it will be understood why it is so valuable as a tonic and for driving the impurities out of the system. It feeds the tissues and makes strength; not a patent medicine; pure and wholesome—50 years in use.
