House-Cleaning Sale

Began Yesterday. Tomorrow the 3rd and Last Day. Better Than We Expected. Continuous Crowds from Opening of the Store Until Closing Time. Women Are Shrewd Buyers. Every Evidence That the Right Garments at the Advertised Prices Were Here

Or such a glorious sale could not have been kept up all of the first and second day. We expect a grand finish to-morrow. Come early and all day. Many of our customers remarked, "How can you do it?" The answer is simple.—The purchasing power of four stores,—two in Harrisburg and one each in Lancaster and Williamsport, Pa.,—small rents and other overhead carrying expenses,—volume of business,—a resident New York buyer, etc.

While hundreds of waists, dresses, gowns raincoats, other coats, suits, etc., carrying the Red Special Sale tickets were sold—much regular business was done on regular garments marked at interesting prices. This is a general sale—garments of every kind—not a handful but hundreds yet here for your approval. Taken from our regular stock and re-priced and red ticketed are 100 tailor-made suits—wistaria, Copen, tango, brown, green, etc., $5.00, $7.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $17.50, $18.75, $21.50, $22.50 and $25.00 for the best in the store.

10 black moire coats, $14.75, $13.75, $12.50 and $10.00; your choice $7.50 40 raincoats, black, tan and navy, $4.00 to $13.75; your choice Saturday $1.95, $2.95, $3.95 and $5.00

As this ad must go to press before 10 o'clock it is impossible for us to say just what garments, sizes and prices will be here at closing time for to-morrow's business. But we will guarantee you a nice assortment of and odds and ends picked from regular stock Saturday morning—300 tailor-made suits, etc.. You cannot miss it and sure to find several rare bargains.

Evening Gowns, Afternoon and Street Dresses in Silks, Wool Crepes, etc. Rain Coats, Waists, Long Serge Coats, Shorter Coats

Garments carrying the Red Special Sale Ticket will NOT be charged, sent C. O. O., sent on approval, laid away, nor exchanged—Try them on in the store or it will be your risk. Kindly do not ask us to make one exception to this rule as has been frequently done. Alterations extra on Red Ticket Garments only. We frankly say we never before gave such values in any of our many sales, nor such a variety. Whether you get your share or not, depends upon you—All first-class garments as are found here.

ALUMNI 'ROUND BANQUET BOARD

Dickinson Grads Hear President and Others at Country Club

Alumni of Dickinson College, Carlisle, harked back to college days last night when they united in paying tribute to Dr. Eugene Allen Noble its president, who was their guest of honor at a dinner at the Harrisburg Country Club.

Belief in the future of Dickinson was the keynote of Noble's talk. "The possibilities of Dickinson are not exhausted," he said. "What we must have is a belief in Dickinson and the power that comes from loyalty to her ideals." Dr. Noble told of a plan by which he hoped to create an endowment fund for the college.

At the business meeting, Philip S. Moyer was elected president; John H. Shoop, vice-president, and John T. Olmsted, secretary and treasurer.

Those present were: Lewis Bacon, Baltimore; George W. Lloyd, S. Carolina; Miller, J. L. Shelley, Walter S. Hauck, Mechanicsburg; Frank B. Sellers, Carlisle; Dr. Eugene A. Noble, Carlisle; Dr. Edgar S. Everhart, Lemoyne; William F. Hausman, Steelton; Harry L. Dress, Steelton; William Boyd Steelton; Addison Bowman, Camp Hill; Edward R. Brunner, Lykens; John Myers, Camp Hill. The Harrisburgers were: John P. Melick, Elmer E. Ehler, Howard E. Moses, George W. Hamilton, George R. Hull, David H. Biddle, John T. Olmsted, Dr. John D. Fox, John H. Shoop, William S. Snyder, Victor Braddock, Harvey E. Runick, Arthur Underwood, Ralph E. Steever, John W. Jacobs, George L. Reed, J. Henry Spicer, J. Harris Bell, A. Coleman Sheetz, J. Young Mens Class Debate About Canal

A debate on the question, "Resolved, That American-owned vessels in coast-wise trade be exempt from tolls when passing through the Panama Canal," was a feature of an entertainment of the Young Men's Bible Class, of Westminster, during the evening of May 7.

The judges, J. C. Cresswell, A. J. Lightner and James Bates, decided in favor of the affirmative team, composed of William Vanbaugh, Silas Rutherford and James Bates. The negative team was composed of Alfred P. Davies, Charles King and Russell Johnson. During the evening a musical program was given, and the Rev. E. H. Curtis, Dr. H. B. Walters and C. W. Kunkle, the teacher of the class, spoke.

AT THE VICTORIA

"Shorty Escapes Matrimony," the first of a series to be run every Friday. A comedy drama in two reels that will no doubt become a popular weekly feature.

"The Outlaws Remorse," another three-reel Indian drama of the West is featured to-day, and "Izzy and the Bandit," a comic comprises to-day's picture program.

To-morrow is "Scrooges," Charles Dickens' Christmas carol in three reels by Seymour Hicks in the star role.—Advertisement.

CAMP HILL GIRL TO SHINE AT "CASTLE"

Will Take Prominent Part in Field Day Exercises at Tarrytown School

A Camp Hill girl, Miss Sarah E. Coape, will take a prominent part in an elaborate entertainment which will mark the Field Day exercises at The Castle, Tarrytown, N. Y.

An elaborate outdoor program, including spectacular drill dances and displays, has been arranged. Here also will be a practical demonstration in the essentially economic and commercial departments of life.

The affair, like the Spring Day ceremonies at Vassar and Bryn Mawr is an exclusively social function calling for Tarrytown scores of the younger matrons of the smart set who are members of the alumnae of Miss Mason's school.

SAYS FRIEDMANN CURE CANNOT BE RECOMMENDED

Washington, D. C., May 8.—Delegations at the closing session of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis were told to-day by Dr. George Mannheimer, of New York, that the Friedmann vaccine has exhibited "neither curative nor preventive powers" and that it could not be recommended.

Dr. Mannheimer's report was read to the clinical section, where numerous technical points in the campaign against consumption were discussed. Dr. Edward Archibald, of Montreal, outlined details of two kinds of operations that have proved effective in the treatment of certain cases.
