DANGERS LURK IN COUNTRY WELLS

Dr. Dixon Calls Attention to What People May Strike in Way of Pollution

State Commissioner of Health Dixon has called attention to the dangers that lurk in unguarded and uncared for wells and springs. This is the season of the year when people go out into the country and when they are apt to drink of any water that they strike.

On this subject Dr. Dixon says: "It is indeed a modest property owner who will not boast of his wells and springs and general excellence of their water supply is a favorite topic of conversation with thousands of people."

"One-half of our eight million Pennsylvanians depend upon wells or springs for their water supply, and from now on for the next four or five months the other half of our citizens on their vacation trips or half-holidays in the country will find themselves depending upon water from these sources."

"When investigations are made by sanitary experts the water of many of these wells and springs has time and again shown pollution, which means that they are positively dangerous for human consumption. Unfortunately water may appear clear and be agreeable in taste when it contains sewage organisms which may cause typhoid fever or dysentery when taken into the system. Much of our rural typhoid is due to polluted wells and springs."

"No well should be located near a cesspool, privy or barnyard where the drainage from these places can reach directly or indirectly by seepage through the water-bearing strata. In a limestone country there is particular danger of sewage or animal wastes which find their way through fissures in the rock and may reappear many miles away in some subterranean stream which serves as a water supply."

"Open wells are particularly liable to pollution and all wells should be carefully walled and covered to prevent surface and direct drainage from contaminating them. The close proximity of possible sources of pollution should be sufficient to place any well or spring under suspicion."

"Unfortunately many property owners who strive to keep their houses and grounds in a clean, sanitary condition overlook this vital factor."

"The cost of a water tight stone or cement covering which will deflect drainage from the well or the sinking of a new well in a safe locality is vastly more economical than a single case of typhoid fever."

Irving College Classes Royally Entertained at Silver Spring Manse

Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 14.—Yesterday afternoon the senior and sophomore classes of Irving College had a delightful outing, when the latter entertained the former to a 5 o'clock chicken and waffle dinner at the Presbyterian manse in Silver Spring township. Hay wagons conveyed the merry party under the chaperonage of Miss Frances B. Shelton, preceptress, to the manse, where they were received by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ferguson. After roaming through the woods and gathering wild flowers, music and games were enjoyed by the young ladies. Celebrations were held for the dinner, where the table decorations were lilacs and Spring flowers. A toast given by Miss Teresa Grove, president of the sophomore class, was responded to by Miss Mary Elizabeth Huston, president of the senior class, and Miss Frances B. Shelton. At a later hour singing and giving class yells, the merry-makers returned to the college.

It Kills 'Em Dead by Contact or Drives 'Em Out—by Odor

Any Reliable Dealer Will Sell It. Use from Cellar to Garret!

When you begin to pay you begin to own your piano and in event of death all unpaid payments are immediately cancelled

When you pay your first five dollars, you begin right THEN AND THERE to own one of these beautiful pianos. You also begin right then and there to get the pleasure out of it.

When you pay your first week's payment of one dollar and twenty-five cents, you have taken the second step toward OWNERSHIP; the second week another step; the third week still another step, and so on, and so on, until the first thing you know you will be the proud owner of a fine three hundred and fifty dollar piano, for which you will have paid but two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents, WITHOUT HAVING MISSED THE MONEY.

But, now suppose that while you were still making your payments you should die. Ordinarily, it would be necessary for your family to keep up the remaining payments, or else lose the piano.

BUT NOT SO IN THIS CASE. These pianos are sold through our co-operative plan. This plan is a mutually helpful one. It is based on the principle of "you help me and I'll help you." So if you should die before you have completed your payments (it matters not how few you have made) the remaining payments will be cancelled "forthwith" (meaning immediately), and the piano turned over to your family free of any encumbrance whatsoever.

You thus save the piano for your family. Your family is relieved of all further obligations. The helpful co-operative hand reaches out and cancels the remainder of your indebtedness and the piano becomes the property of your family without their having to make any other payments.

The value of these pianos as an investment

By investing in one of these pianos, you are acquiring valuable property. You are investing in something which will be WORTH something when you have paid for it. You are BUILDING UP AN ASSET, which, aside from the entertainment and pleasure you get out of it, will be worth something to you in DOLLARS AND CENTS, twelve, fifteen, or twenty years from now.

Remember you are buying three hundred and fifty dollars worth of piano value at a cost of only TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY-EIGHT DOLLARS AND SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS. Taking the regular run of wear and tear into account, one of these pianos will be worth MORE AFTER YOU HAVE IT FULLY PAID FOR THAN YOU NOW HAVE TO PAY FOR ONE, and at that time, you will have nearly four years use out of it.

And, in the same way, the LONGER you own it, the LESS it will have cost you per month for its use. Figure it any way you wish, it is hard to see how pianos of the exceptional value of these will have cost you OVER A DOLLAR A MONTH for their use, it matters not how long you own one, whether it is ten years, fifteen years, or even twenty years.

All of the features of this co-operative plan are carried out in offering player-pianos, with the single exception that the terms on the player-pianos are two dollars a week instead of—as on the piano—one dollar and twenty-five cents a week.

Ten Bids Received For Water Meters by Supt. Bowman

Ten bids for water meters are being considered by Commissioner Harry F. Bowman, superintendent of the department of public safety, and it is probable that the choice may be determined upon in time to obtain Council's approval at next Tuesday's meeting. The prices offered range from $6.50 to $11, and it is the Commissioner's intention to obtain the cheapest possible without sacrificing efficiency. Should Mr. Bowman's plan work out his method for obtaining prices for the new water meters will mean a considerable saving to the consumer and the city.

A column giving the whole proposition in brief paragraphs

- FIRST. You get a piano which is worth and sells regularly at three hundred and fifty dollars, for two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents, saving you at the outset one hundred and one dollar and twenty-five cents. SECOND. When you finish paying for your piano, if bought in the usual way, you still owe from twenty-five to thirty-five dollars INTEREST. Through this CO-OPERATIVE PLAN, when you have paid your two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents, YOU HAVE FINISHED PAYING. There are NO FURTHER PAYMENTS to be made, either on account of interest or for any other reason. THIRD. Instead of paying twenty to twenty-five dollars as a first payment and ten, twelve or fifteen dollars a month as you will in a regular way, during this co-operative sale you pay but five dollars to join in this associate movement and then BUT ONE DOLLAR AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A WEEK. FOURTH. You get the strongest guarantee ever put on a piano; a joint guarantee signed by the manufacturers—Bacon Piano Co.—and ourselves, giving you protection for five years that is as safe as a government bond. FIFTH. You get the privilege of returning your piano at the end of a thirty days' trial and getting YOUR MONEY BACK. SIXTH. Within one year from the day you get your piano, through this co-operative plan, you may exchange it FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER, without so much as a penny's loss. SEVENTH. All payments remaining unpaid are voluntarily cancelled in event of your death—thus leaving the piano free of encumbrance to your family. EIGHTH. You get through this co-operative plan an opportunity to earn cash dividends for each and every week's time the life of the co-operative agreement of one hundred and ninety-five weeks is shortened. Through this privilege it is possible for you to earn cash dividends amounting in all to TWENTY-NINE DOLLARS AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS. NINTH. You are given opportunity to secure others to co-operate in this plan. This still further reduces the cost of your instrument. TENTH. Under this plan, two tunings, a piano stool to match the piano, a late style scarf and delivery within one hundred and fifty miles of Harrisburg are included without adding any further expense to the two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents.
