HUERTA WILLING TO RESIGN IF NECESSARY

tained in the despatch, this subject being one in which it would be necessary to consult opinion of constitutionalists and other leaders in Mexico.

Supreme Court Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann who will represent the United States at the peace conference at Niagara Falls, Ont., today, arranged to leave Washington at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning. This arrangement will put the American delegates at the scene of the conference at the same time the Mexican delegates arrive there from New York.

Represent Best Elements

The information of Huerta's attitude now received through foreign diplomatic channels, agree with the view obtained by some of the close friends of the Mexicans during their stop here. According to this view the delegates realized that the present administration at Mexico City was fast going to pieces, and it was inevitable that Huerta give place to some other authority. It did not, however, disclose that Huerta had authorized his resignation if they considered that course necessary, and this more definite phase was first made known in the despatch through diplomatic channels.

The Mexican delegates are not "Huertistas" but represent broadly the best elements in the federal districts, desirous of bringing about an orderly government in that section and throughout Mexico. In that respect they are believed to correspond with the wishes and intentions of the American government.

Who will come after Huerta, whether an individual or a professional commission, still is an open question, but it is gathered that the succession will not be likely to fall on military leaders who have come to prominence "by arbitrary force."

Tampico Flag Incident Will Not Likely Be Considered by Mediators

Washington, D. C., May 18.—While the stage was being set in Niagara Falls today for the next big scene in the Mexican crisis, officials in diplomatic and administrative circles eagerly discussed the open question, but the mediation preliminaries might reach, and the bearing the negotiations eventually would have on the hope of settling the long republic's ills. Reported optimism of the Huerta delegates over the mediation and their confidence that their long journey will not have been in vain found reflection in the capital.

The Constitutionalists were proceeding rapidly with their aggressive program in Northern and Central Mexico, yet the Federal mission in Washington and the exchange of courtesy among them and the South American states, as well as the American mission overshadowed military developments.

No Statement Given Out

The Huerta delegates firmly declined while here to give out any statement of their program. Nevertheless, some idea of their viewpoint was believed to have been obtained from representative talks. They are reported as feeling that the Federal administration is disintegrating and that it is inevitable that a successor must be chosen for Huerta. At the same time they are fully interested in the unfolding of that world which would be Mexico City, and what guarantees could be obtained against possible property confiscation by invading Constitutionalists; safeguards against anarchy and the kind of government that would stand and attract world recognition.

Mexican Representatives Spend Day in New York

New York, May 18.—The Mexican delegates, Emilio Rabasa, Augustin R. Falla and Luis Elguero, rested at their hotel early today, though they planned to make some visits and do some sightseeing later.

The delegates, with their party members of their families and servants, arrived from Washington Sunday night. They look forward to getting a real rest in New York before taking up their work at the mediation conference at Niagara Falls, for which place they will leave to-morrow.

Members of the party decline to talk of their plans. Manuel Martinez del Campo, who has acted as spokesman ever since the party left Mexico City, said the delegates would continue their policy of silence.

"I will tell you our itinerary late today and what we do while here," he said, "but nothing more. The delegates do not mean to say anything until they reach Niagara Falls."
