

Come tomorrow with FIVE dollars and come with the expectation of having one of these magnificent pianos or player-pianos sent home

Copyright, 1912, by Stone & McCarrick, Inc.

COME here tomorrow. Tuck a five dollar bill in your pocket before starting. And come with the expectation of beginning right then and there to own one of these fine pianos.

You will be surprised—agreeably surprised. We expect you to be. For you will see a piano, which in design, in finish, in tone and in action will equal—if not surpass—those of your friends and neighbor which cost three hundred and fifty to three hundred and seventy-five dollars: And even up to four hundred dollars!

We don't care how skeptical you may be. You will see that these instruments are the biggest kind of bargains at the price ($248.75), to say nothing of the many other advantages you get in the plan through which they are now being sold.

You will see that these are just the kind of pianos you have been picturing in your mind for your home. You will see at a glance that these instruments will grace any home. That they will correspond with any modern room, it matters not how beautifully appointed.

In fact, you will be so delighted with them that you will be irresistibly compelled to select one for your very own.

The whole proposition gone over again

In order that YOU will know this whole proposition just as well as WE know it, we will go over it again.

First, we are going to sell three hundred pianos for two hundred and forty-eight dollars and seventy-five cents each which, under the USUAL METHODS of selling—sell at three hundred and fifty dollars each.

Instead of selling them on REGULAR TERMS of twenty to twenty-five dollars down and ten, twelve, fifteen dollars a month, you pay BUT FIVE DOLLARS as an initial payment and the remainder at the rate of ONLY ONE DOLLAR AND TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A WEEK—and the piano is sent to your home AT ONCE.

A joint guarantee, signed by both the manufacturer and ourselves, is handed to you IN WRITING, which guarantees the material and workmanship of the piano for five years from the day you make your purchase.

You can GET YOUR MONEY BACK at the end of a thirty days' trial of the piano—if you wish. At the end of the first year's use of the piano, should you wish, YOU CAN EXCHANGE IT for any other new piano we sell of equal or greater value. This gives you a whole year to fully satisfy yourself, that the piano is all you wish it to be.

And, should you die before all of your payments have been made, all future or unpaid payments WILL BE CANCELED VOLUNTARILY.

If you wish, you need not take the full one hundred and ninety five weeks' time in which to pay for your piano. YOU MAY PAY IN LESS TIME. This is wholly optional ON YOUR PART. But for each and every week you DO shorten the life of your agreement, you can earn a CASH dividend or CASH premium of fifteen cents.

Included, without extra charge, are a late style scarf, a stool to match the piano and two tunings.

Sidney Lanier, the poet, the Christian, the greatest flute-player, of all time, said this: "To make a home out of a household, given the raw materials—to wit, wife, children, a friend or two and a house—two other things are necessary. These are a good fire and MUSIC. And inasmuch as we can do without the fire half the year, I may say MUSIC is the one essential."

"FIRST AID" IN SCHOOL

Special to The Telegraph
Columbia, Pa., May 18.—Miss Mary Welsh, principal of the high school, has inaugurated a system of instructions on "First Aid" in the school, the first lecture on the subject being delivered by Dr. J. P. Kennedy, who is the Pennsylvania Railroad physician here. Miss Welsh plans to have a second lecture by another physician before the close of the term.

HIVES IN LARGE RAISED PATCHES

Itched and Burned So Couldn't Sleep. Eyes Swollen Shut. Couldn't Bear Clothing. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

West Main St., Stroudsburg, Pa.—"My brother had hives all over his face and body in great large raised patches. They itched and burned so he couldn't sleep. His eyes were swollen shut. He couldn't bear any clothing near his skin and just tossed around the bed and cried. He had to be bathed and rubbed. He bathed for two nights with no relief then decided to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment. He washed with Cuticura Soap and applied the Cuticura Ointment thoroughly and the itching stopped. The large red patches went down. The cure was complete inside of two weeks." (Signed) E. G. Reynolds, July 25, 1913.

PIMPLES DISFIGURED FACE

1330 Reed St., Philadelphia, Pa.—"The trouble began with some pimples on my face. They got worse instead of better. The pimples were very large and made my face red. They caused disfigurement for the time being. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment every night before going to bed, using the Soap first and applying the Ointment, leaving it on for five minutes and then washing it off with the Cuticura Soap. I had this ailment for a year and after using Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment I am cured." (Signed) George H. Ward, March 28, 1913.

HOME FROM GERMANY

Special to The Telegraph
Waynesboro, Pa., May 18.—G. Talbot Shearer, foreign representative of the Landis Tool Company, Waynesboro, and Mrs. Shearer and daughter Mary have arrived home from Germany, where they have lived the past three years. Mr. Shearer and family were located in Berlin while abroad. They will remain in Waynesboro until the latter part of June, when they will sail again for the Old Country for a period extending over several years. Their trip to Germany next month will be the fifth for Mr. Shearer and his family. They have lived abroad for a period of nine years.

WOMAN CRUEL TO CHILD

Special to The Telegraph
Waynesboro, Pa., May 18.—Mrs. Cora West, of Walnut street, was taken before Magistrate J. F. Newman on Saturday to answer to a charge of assault and battery. A neighbor brought the suit. It is alleged that Mrs. West picked up her baby by the feet on Friday on the front porch and lifted it up and down, its head striking the porch every time its body descended. It is alleged, also, that she kicked it in the way of punishment. Mrs. West was fined $4.50, which she paid, after which she was released.

SHRINE CLUB ENTERTAINED

Special to The Telegraph
Columbia, Pa., May 18.—The Lancaster County Shrine Club, over one hundred strong, was entertained in the Masonic Temple here, and a banquet was served at Hotel Columbia. The noble came in automobiles and the caravan of nineteen cars presented an imposing appearance as it passed through the streets.

BURNED AT BONFIRE

Special to The Telegraph
Sunbury, Pa., May 18.—While playing around a bonfire Melvin Polk, 12 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Polk, Sunbury, had his clothing catch fire. Bystanders wrapped a piece of old carpet around him, and extinguished the flames. He suffered bad burns on the shoulder and arms.

DONEGAL CHURCH REUNION

Special to The Telegraph
Columbia, Pa., May 18.—On Wednesday, June 17, the annual reunion of the historic Donegal Church, at Donegal Springs, will be held, at which time a program of unusual interest will be rendered. Prominent speakers will address the meetings, which is always largely attended.

Carlisle Carpenter Injured in Saving Fellow Workman

Special to The Telegraph
Carlisle, Pa., May 18.—In his efforts in preventing a fellow workman from getting a serious fall, William H. Line, a carpenter employed on the construction of the fine new edifice for the Church of the Brethren of the Southern District of Pennsylvania, lost his own balance and dropped from the second floor to the ground floor of the unfinished basement. The accident occurred late Saturday afternoon. In the descent he fell between the girders of the main floor, and the flesh of both sides of his body was terribly cut and torn. He was picked up in a dazed condition and assisted home by other workmen. It was just the day previous that Mr. Line caught a large building jack in time to prevent it falling a considerable distance on the head of a fellow carpenter, and which would doubtless have resulted fatally.

Lebanon Valley College Wins Debate With Juniata

Special to The Telegraph
Annville, Pa., May 18.—Lebanon Valley College debating team was awarded the decision over the Juniata team held in the Conservatory of Music on Friday evening. This is the first time in eleven years that Juniata College has lost a debate. Lebanon Valley lost at Huntingdon last year on a close decision but this year's victory was given to the Annville debaters unanimously by the judges. Lebanon Valley College had the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, That the United States Should Abandon the Monroe Doctrine as a National Policy." Juniata was represented by Raymond Ryder, Eston Fox and Henry P. Harley, while Henry E. Snavely, Carl C. Schmidt and John H. Ness, upheld Lebanon Valley. The judges were Robert C. Blair, of York; Professor A. R. Wentz, Gettysburg, and W. H. Earnest, of Hummelstown. Paul G. Adams, of Lebanon, acted as chairman.

BAKE WAS A SUCCESS

Halifax, Pa., May 18.—A bake held in Chubb's Hall on Friday and Saturday by the Mothers' Association for the benefit of the Halifax Fire Company, was well patronized and $50 was realized. This will be used toward the erection of the new firehouse.

If You Have or Know of a Delicate Child Read This Letter.
"My little daughter Louise age 8 years, has always been delicate, anemic, had no appetite and seemed listless, and we could not seem to find anything that would help her, until we were advised to give her Vinol. She started taking it six weeks ago and inside of two weeks she showed a marked improvement both in appetite, vim and looks. Being so well pleased with the results, I continued giving it to her, and words fail to express my gratitude, and faith in Vinol both as a blood maker and body builder. As my child was an anemic for so long makes the reason all the stronger for me to recommend it to others in similar condition." Geo. E. Munro, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Vinol restores health and strength in conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, enriches the blood and strengthens every organ of the body.
Every bottle of Vinol is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. George A. Gorgas, druggist, Harrisburg, Penna. Vinol is sold in Steelton by John L. Pott.

Newport Woman Found Dead in Bed Saturday

Special to The Telegraph
Newport, Pa., May 18.—Mrs. Katura Miller Hornbach, widow of the late Adolphus Hornbach, was found dead in bed on Saturday morning, due to heart trouble. Mrs. Hornbach was 74 years old and has been a resident of this place for many years. Since the death of her husband she has been making her home with her son, Paul R. Hornbach, in Second street. Another son, George W. Hornbach, also survives.
Mrs. Hornbach was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Her pastor, the Rev. John C. Collins, S. T. D., officiated at her funeral this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with burial in Newport Cemetery.

Interpreters Are Needed in Many Court Cases

Special to The Telegraph
Sunbury, Pa., May 18.—May Criminal Court for Northumberland county opened at Sunbury to-day with sixty-five cases for trial. Frank Strouss, district attorney, said that most of them are of a trivial nature, but that he expected it to take a whole week to try them, as interpreters will be needed for most witnesses.
For the first time the $100,000 addition to the Northumberland county courthouse was put in use, one branch of the courts, with Judge Cummings sitting, being held there. The smaller courtroom is not yet finished, and Judge Moser is holding court in the Masonic Temple.
