Snyder, of Eric. Nineteen new lodges were instituted in the State during the past year, according to her report. The session adjourned at noon to meet again this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Defense Opens Its Side in Becker Trial

New York, May 19. — The defense launched its case to-day at the trial of Charles Becker, former police lieutenant, for the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, and called as its first witness Jacob Reich, allas Jack Sullivan, "king of the newsboys." Whether Becker will take the stand was still undecided to-day.

Rosenthal died in a gamblers' war, at the hands of the four gunmen put to death for the crime, according to the contention of Martin T. Manton, chief, counsel for the defense, in his opening address. It was doubtless true, he said, that Jack Rose induced the gunmen to slay Rosenthal, but Rose was acting for himself, not for Becker.
