

NEW MEN ARE WEAK; YORK WINS THE GAME

White Roses Helped Out by Eddie Hooper a Last Season's Star

New men in Harrisburg's line-up made team work impossible at York yesterday. York won, score 5 to 4. Eddie Hooper helped in the victory for the Roses.

Paris Kunkel, cast off by York, twirled for Harrisburg. The boy would have fared better against his teammates had his support been better. Harrisburg's big sticks also failed at critical times and Hammersly sewed up the game tightly after the first inning.

In the first inning errors by Hammersly and Morrow, with McCarthy's single, a fielder's choice and Whalen's double scored three runs for Manager Cockill's chasers.

In their half of the first York tallied a run. Swayne was hit by a pitched ball, Hopke singled and Swayne scored on Whalen's error on Clay's grounder.

In the fifth York tied up the game on singles by Hammersly and Swayne, Hopke's sacrifice and a double by Hooper. In the seventh Whalen fouled Hopke's grounder and then threw the ball over Cockill's head, allowing one run to score. In the eighth Emerson dropped a fly ball. Lidgate singled and Swayne doubled, scoring another run.

Harrisburg scored a run in the eighth on Miller's home run. Cockill hit for two bases and went out trying to get to third. The score:

Junior Baseball League Promises Exciting Sport

Doings in Central Pennsylvania Body Furnishes Much Interest to the Fans

In this week's game in the Central Pennsylvania Baseball League many exciting contests are expected. Highspire will play at Steelton and New Cumberland is scheduled to play at Middletown. The teams are rounding into the form that means close battles. All teams have had their troubles, but with warmer weather better things are looked for.

Steelton went into the opening game at home in a badly crippled condition. Rhoads and Biever, their star battery, was out of the game, and Shultz was playing with a broken finger. Boughter was on the bench with a badly sprained ankle. In addition, Chester Books entered the game without practice as he just recovered from a severe spell of sickness.

Biever was missed in the opening game at Steelton.

Wertz, the New Cumberland slugger, has started out in great shape. In Saturday's game he climbed Biever for a two bagger and a triple.

Atticks, the Steelton catcher, is playing the game and hitting the ball hard.

Rote is always in the game and the opposing players must keep their eyes open when he is on base.

Johnny Kling is a "come back" and is pitching great ball for Middletown. Aderholt has been switched from first to third for Middletown.

Landis, the second catcher for Middletown, is a good hitter and will help out with his pinch hitting.

"Gus" Boyne has replaced Krause as the Highspire first sacker.

"Rebel" Leedy is playing a fine game for the Highspire team.

New Cumberland picked up a good one in Keiffer.

Rhoads will hardly return to the game for a month. He will be on crutches for another week.
