The Republican party comes out of Pennsylvania's first State-wide primary united and confident of victory at the general election in November, having polled more votes than its rival parties combined and having named its standard bearers by majorities so tremendous that there can be no question of the result in the fall.

Unlike the faction torn Democracy of the Republicans in the past, the great principles of their party and the people at their back. Emerging from the gloom caused by the election of 1912 the Keystone State Republicans are to-day commencing a march toward success at the polls which will demonstrate to the nation that Pennsylvania stands for protection to the industries which have made it an industrial Commonwealth. The votes for the nominees on the State ticket and for the Republicans who ran for congressional nominations indicate plainly the temper of the people. This is a Republican year.

Judge Kunkel's Vote At a late hour this afternoon John R. Geyer, who has been one of the prime movers of the movement for the nomination of Judge George Kunkel, announced that he believed from figures then at hand that Judge Kunkel had been nominated for the State Supreme Court. Judge Frazer is unquestionably in the lead all over the state, but the fact that Associated Press figures give Kunkel a majority over Endlich in both Philadelphia and Allegheny counties leads the Kunkel managers to believe that this favorable vote will be maintained throughout the State.

As a general rule the returns of the primary are unsatisfactory and throughout the State there is much speculation as to the result of the non-partisan primary for supreme and superior court judges, and fears are entertained that it may be forty-eight hours before reliable figures can be secured. Philadelphia and Pittsburgh newspapers as well as the Associated Press and other press association have been making strenuous efforts to obtain figures from county seats, but in many instances it has been found that the returns entered are so incomplete that anything like an accurate estimate is impossible.

It is apparent from what can be procured from official sources that Judge Kunkel has carried a number of counties in this part of the State and done well in others. Philadelphia and Allegheny counties give majorities for Kunkel and Frazer. Unofficial returns say that in the Quaker City Judge Kunkel received 14,554 votes, Frazer 42,923 and Endlich 14,069. In 562 districts out of 696 in Allegheny county Frazer got 58,291, Kunkel 3,341 and Endlich 2,123.

Kunkel Committee Confident Judge Kunkel's campaign managers said this afternoon that reliable information from Pittsburgh indicated that he would carry Allegheny county by a majority even larger than is indicated by the Associated Press reports. Messages have been received indicating that Kunkel has carried Jefferson county by 600; Perry by 1,200; Cumberland by 2,000; Franklin by 500; Adams by 1,000 and has also carried Tioga and Fulton. Lebanon county will give him as many as Cumberland and incomplete returns are to the effect that he is running well in the northern tier. The Kunkel committee concedes that Judge Endlich is running very strong in Berks and some of the nearby counties, but that his strength is not nearly as great as claimed in the anthracite counties and that his big majorities at home will be offset by the big Kunkel vote elsewhere.

The Kunkel campaign managers were confident this afternoon that Judge Kunkel would win out over Endlich by a substantial majority.

Democrats in Despair. Enough returns are in hand to show that Senator Boies Penrose has been renominated for United States Senator by anywhere from 170,000 to 180,000 majority over J. Benjamin Dimmick. In Philadelphia the senator got over 80,000 votes and Dimmick but 10,000, and he carried all but a few counties. Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh triumphed over Mayor Joseph Cauffiel, of Johnstown, his nearest rival by over 200,000 majority. The Republican majority are enormous and their very size caused despair among the partisans of Vance C. McCormick who are rejoicing over a claimed majority of 25,000 over Michael J. Ryan for the Democratic nomination for governor. The Democracy of Pennsylvania has passed through the most bitter primary campaign ever known in its history and the wounds will not be healed for years. The "United Democracy" for which the successful candidate pleaded early this morning is in the years unborn. William Draper Lewis will lead the forlorn hope of the Washington party, whose collapse is one of the most remarkable of the many remarkable events in recent political history.

Bonnivell Keeps Going. The Democratic State headquarters this afternoon said that Allegheny county would give a small majority for McCormick and added a few more counties to the list.

In Philadelphia Eugene C. Bonnivell, head splitter of the Ryan campaign party, refused to concede McCormick's election, saying that Draper Lewis should wait until the anthracite counties were heard from and that McCormick would be found at the tail of the ticket.

Late reports from Allegheny county showed 16,000 majority for Penrose and about 20,000 for Brumbaugh. Ryan men claimed to have carried it and so did the McCormick men.

THE RESULTS IN DAUPHIN. As it will take days to compile the returns for the state at large and to show the exact votes for the men who submitted their candidacies to the electorate of Pennsylvania at the first primary, only estimates can be made. In Philadelphia the Republican state headquarters does not expect to be able to say much for a couple of days and the best that could be said at Democratic state headquarters was that McCormick had carried fifty counties and Palmer all, with most of the slate safe.

Under these conditions the results in Dauphin county are of much interest. They include practically every district complete, a few groups here and there being missing, but not enough to change any results.

Practically complete returns from Dauphin county show the results to have been as follows:

United States Senator Penrose—city 2901, county 1924; total 4825; Dimmick—city 957, county 827; total 1784; Palmer—city 1970, county 1431; total 3401; Budd—city 708, county 578; total 1286; Pinchot—city 499, county 162; total 661.

Governor Brumbaugh—city 3329, county 2266; total 5595; Cauffiel—city 250, county 213; total 463; Ritter—city 79, county 77; total 156; Wood—city 105, county 182; total 287; McCormick—city 1324, county 1442; total 2766.

Lewis—city 839, county 562; total 1401; Humm—city 188, county 96; total 284; Lewis—city 341, county 85; total 426.

Rockefeller Returns to His Work After 20 Days

New York, May 20.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., has returned to work after twenty days spent at the country estate of his father at Pocantico Hills. Since May first when he went into retirement most of his tormentors under the leadership of Upton Sinclair have been silenced, several being sent to jail. Sinclair, in Colorado and Marie Ganz and Rev. Houck White are serving sentences on Blackwell's Island, the latter for having broken up the services at the Calvary Baptist church ten days ago. "Methers" Jones alone remains in the lecture field and nightly denounces the Rockefeller interests in the Colorado coal district.

Mr. Rockefeller's secretary said yesterday that he was making an investigation of conditions in Colorado. There was only a minority stockholder in the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, it was said, and whatever recommendations he could offer might not influence the officials of the company in dealing with the miners.

PURE FOOD REGULATIONS WILL CHANGE MAY 1, 1915

Washington, May 20.—The Department of Agriculture today began notifying more than 58,000 manufacturers throughout the country that on May 1, 1915, their guarantees filed under the pure food and drugs regulations would be stricken from the files and that thereafter the serial numbers assigned to them must not be used on food or drug labels or packages of any food or drug. This action is in accordance with the regulations adopted recently which abolished the use of the guarantee legend and serial number of foods and drugs.

100TH ANNIVERSARY OBSERVED

London, May 20.—The 400th year of the foundation of Trinity House, the world famous corporation of Master Mariners, chartered on May 20, 1514, by Henry VIII was celebrated to-day.

KREIDER RUNS FAR AHEAD OF OTHERS

Dauphin, Lebanon and Cumberland Solid For Change at Washington

Congressman Aaron S. Kreider's course in behalf of protection was given a tremendous endorsement by his Republican constituents yesterday at the primary election and the result is but a forecast of what will happen in November. Mr. Kreider was not opposed for renomination, but that did not prevent his Republican constituents from turning out for him in force.

Throughout his term in Congress Mr. Kreider has been one of the staunchest advocates of Republican principles and his return to Congress is clinched and copper riveted by the vote cast for him yesterday. Not only in this county but in Cumberland the Republicans went to the polls and voted to show their confidence in him, while in Lebanon he ran splendidly.

The returns for this county, practically everything ready for opening of PEACE CONFERENCE

Formal Introductions and Exchanges of Courtesies Will Feature First Day

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 20.—Everything was ready to-day for the opening of the mediation conference which, under the guidance of Ambassador Da Gama, of Brazil, and Ministers Naoh, of Argentine, and Suarez, of Chile, is to attempt to compose the differences between the United States and Mexico. The Mexican peace commissioners arrive to-day from New York, while the American delegates reached here shortly before midnight.

The formal opening of the conference was set for 2 p. m. to-day. The program for to-day included nothing except the formal introductions, exchanges of courtesies and adoption of plans for the conduct of the proceedings such as are customary to the opening of an international gathering of this character.

The mediators were prepared to lay before the delegates from the two governments the rules and regulations which will govern during the proceedings. Ambassador Da Gama, of Brazil, as ranking representative among the three mediators, will be the leader in whatever action is taken, but it has not yet been announced whether there will be a chairman formally chosen to preside over the sessions.

ROOSEVELT MAY BE PROMINENT FIGURE IN FALL ELECTION

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 20.—Twelve hours after Theodore Roosevelt returned from South America he was back to-day in the thick of politics. He was up early and as soon as breakfast was over he was hard at work, picking up the threads where he dropped them seven months ago.

Colonel Roosevelt, it was learned to-day, looks forward to one of the hardest political campaigns of his career. Except for the time occupied by his trip to Spain for the wedding of his son, Kermit, he expects to devote to politics most of his time until November. Already a tentative plan of action has been mapped out. Colonel Roosevelt has in mind one of the longest campaign trips he ever has made, taking him from the Atlantic into the Pacific and several shorter trips into nearby States.

By 9 o'clock to-day he was in his library, a great quiet room on the ground floor of the old house on Sagamore Hill. He paced the floor and dictated letters and telegrams at top speed to the stenographer whom he had summoned from New York. His desk was piled high with messages from all parts of the world, inquiring from his supporters.

INDIAN MAIDEN, WON AT DICE, CAUSES RACE WAR IN GUATEMALA

Sixty-four Negroes and a Hundred Red Skins Reported to Have Fallen

FIGHT KEPT UP MANY DAYS

Strange Story of Love and War Is Being Investigated To-day by Wireless

By Associated Press

New Orleans, La., May 20.—The United Fruit Company to-day was using its wireless in an effort to confirm a strange story of a race riot reported to have occurred on one of its plantations in Guatemala in which it is said sixty-four negroes and probably 100 Indians were killed.

Smoldering race hatred of the native Indians for negroes inflamed by one of the negroes winning the Indian girl, Nazada, from her father at dice and his refusal to sell her back to a native, is reported to be the cause of the trouble. The story came to New Orleans by mail.

The negro, Clarence Williams, had been working on the Tezuahuu farm, one of a number of plantations the United Fruit Company operates in the Mantagua river district, according to the story, he had incurred the hatred of many of the Indians because of his prowess with dice. In a game recently which Nazada's father participated he won all the old peon's money and then, Guatemalan in fashion, the old man wagered his daughter. He lost. As is customary among these Indians, the girl did not object to her part of the transaction and was taken to the shanty of the American negro.

Half-breed Loved Her

As the story goes, Christof Zurello, a half-breed boss of a neighboring farm, had wanted Nazada as a wife for his son and was incensed when he learned that she had become the property of the negro. He offered his son to a Guatemalan Indian custom the father of the girl was eliminated from the matter by his unlucky cast of the dice so Zurello entered into negotiations with the negro. He offered him 100 pesos for the girl. The negro refused. Soon after Williams left for his work Saturday, May 9, three men appeared at the shanty. It is said they were Zurello, a peon named Pedro and a half-breed. Williams had occasion to go to the shanty a few hours later. Tied to a nearby tree was his Indian girl mutilated with a knife. Just before she died she told him who had assailed her. Arming himself Wil-

It is consulted by all. It is guide and counselor—more than friend.

Is it to be wondered that the advertising in a good newspaper like the Telegraph produces great results?

The advertisers come to the general public with the introduction of a friend to help them.

They are given respectful attention and the results they secure are largely due to the reputation of the newspaper through which they have pleaded their cause.
