

Central Pennsylvania News

CIVIL WAR VETERANS MEET AT LANCASTER

Survivors of One-hundred and Twenty-second Regiment Hold Enjoyable Reunion

Adjutant D. H. Heitshu, Marietta, Pa., May 22.—A glorious time was had in Lancaster Tuesday when the survivors of the One Hundred and Twenty-second Regiment met in the Courthouse. This regiment was recruited in the county by the late Colonel Emory Franklin and almost every member of it lived in the city of Lancaster...

TO QUICKLY DARKEN GRAY, FADED HAIR

If You Use This French Receipt, No One Can Discover It Has Been Applied, but in a Few Days You will Have Soft, Dark, Glossy Hair. If you want your hair to have that youthful, vigorous appearance that will compel the admiration of everybody, step into your pharmacist's...

Lunchmen

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Backhurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water. When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys...

Perry County Town Plans Big Street Improvements

Special to The Telegraph. Elliottsburg, Pa., May 22.—D. C. Stackpole and assistant surveyors of the State Highway Department are here making surveys and giving the grade for the laying of pavements. It is the purpose of the citizens to put down granolithic walks from the United Brethren Church through the town past the stores and hotels to the public schools and to the Lutheran Church...

BANQUET OF BROTHERHOOD

Special to The Telegraph. Columbia, Pa., May 22.—The Rev. Dr. J. W. Meninger, of Lancaster, and the Rev. Phillip Vollmer, D. D., professor in the Central Theological Seminary of the Reformers at Dayton, Ohio, addressed the members of Chapter No. 5, Brotherhood of Andrew and Phillip, in Trinity Reformed Church last night. The annual banquet was held at six-thirty and men participated. John K. Royce acted as toastmaster and a feature of the exercises was a vocal solo by John F. Sloas.

TO BREAK UP STREET LOAFING

Special to The Telegraph. Columbia, Pa., May 22.—Burgess Detwiler has issued an order which will break up street loafing in this borough, which at some points had become a nuisance and a great annoyance to the residents. He threatens to impose the penalty of the law on offenders and will use drastic measures to prevent the practice.

ASKS BIDS FOR FIREHOUSE

Special to The Telegraph. Halifax, Pa., May 22.—Halifax borough council asks for bids for the erection of a two-story brick firehouse, to be erected according to plans and specifications drawn by G. W. Grove, architect, of Harrisburg, within ten days.

WILL TELL OF CONGRESS

Special to The Telegraph. Halifax, Pa., May 22.—The Rev. George Richter, missionary, returned from West Africa with an address at the men's congress of the United Brethren Church at Dayton, Ohio, and he has consented to give a resume of his congress at the United Brethren Church on Sunday evening.

THREATENS FAMILY WITH AX

Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., May 22.—Lawrence Sanders, of Blue Rock, near Waynesboro, was taken to the Chambersburg jail by Constable Ditch. Sanders is somewhat crazed and yesterday acted as a mad man at his home. He knocked out one of the doors at his home and drove his wife and child away with an ax. Mrs. Sanders and her child were afraid to return to the house and the former had her husband arrested.

MEETING OF TRADE BOARD

Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., May 22.—This evening the annual meeting of the Waynesboro Board of Trade will be held in the new rooming house building. Twelve members of the executive committee will be elected and there will be a brief address by Sheriff Ewing, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Reading. A luncheon will follow.

VACCINATING FOR HOG CHOLERA

Special to The Telegraph. Annville, Pa., May 22.—An epidemic of cholera is causing the death of hogs in the vicinity of Annville. Gideon Shuman, of the Union Way Works, north of town, lost forty hogs from the disease. The farmers are having their animals vaccinated to prevent a spreading of the cholera.

WHAT IS OLD AGE?

Some Younger at 65 Than Others Are at 40 Years. Old age is not marked by years, but by the stiffened frame, the hardened tissues, the loss of elasticity. So many people whom you meet about the time they reach 40 begin by saying, "I can't do this, and I can't do that, because I'm getting old now."

BUSINESS LOCALS

PURE COUNTRY CREAM. And natural fruit flavoring, combined with long experience in ice cream making, is the reason for that rich, smooth and wholesome quality noticeable in Hershey's all-cream ice cream. Sunday school picnics will soon be here. Phone Hershey Creamery Co., 401 South Cameron street.

HE KNOWS THE EYE BEST

Who has studied optics as a science, and we are experts in the business. With the adjustment of the exact lens to suit the individual sight we charge no more than the market. Hence enjoy your eyesight. D. Pratt, eye-sight specialist, 807 North Third street.

AID YOUR DOCTOR

When your doctor uses all his science to cure you when you are sick, you can aid him materially by having his prescriptions filled here. We follow his directions implicitly and use the purest drugs. Potts' Drug Store, Herr and Third streets.

New Order For Movement of Trolley Cars at Penbrook

Special to The Telegraph. Penbrook, Pa., May 22.—Borough council has made a new ruling for Main street to prevent the interference with traffic by the cars of the Harrisburg Railway Company at the switch. For the past year the street has been blocked at rush hours of the day and night by two, three, four, five and even more cars stopping there until the cars heading the other way have either passed or cleared the block.

Some Very Old Relics Are Owned by Lewistown People

Special to The Telegraph. Lewistown, Pa., May 22.—There are some very old relics in the way of furniture, etc., in this section of the country. A C. Garber has a bureau and a chest of drawers, both of which are over a century old. Mrs. R. Clapby has a wooden rolling pin 100 years old. Ed. Sherwood has a table that is over a century old. Herb Goss has a watch around the century mark. George Swartz has a clock 150 years old that is still keeping good time. W. N. Hoffman has among his collection of clocks several about 100 years old. Mrs. Anna Callahan has several stands at least a century old. Joseph Seilheimer has a relic that attracts much attention, a bicycle built about Civil War times. It has wooden wheels with iron tires and a big leather seat.

WOMAN INHERITS MONEY

Special to The Telegraph. Shippensburg, Pa., May 22.—Mrs. Mary Eberly was one of the beneficiaries of the John Linsinger will which was probated last week at Chambersburg. She will receive the interest of $10,000 and $200 annually from the two farms which Linsinger owned.

WEASEL KILLS CHICKENS

Lewistown, Pa., May 22.—Chicken fanciers of this section have had much trouble for several years with chicken thieves invading their coops and stealing the chickens. Now during the past few weeks a weasel has been entering coops here and killing chickens. Edward Mayberry has been one to suffer from the depredations of these animals. A weasel entered his coop and killed two of his chickens. A number of other coops here have lost chickens to this pest.

FIFTY-THREE TO GRADUATE

Special to The Telegraph. Sunbury, Pa., May 22.—Fifty-three young men and women will be graduated from the class of 1914 of the Sunbury High School on June 8. Miss Irma Manbeck won first honor, with a percentage of 96.9. William Johnson was second, with 96.8, and Kepner was third, with 96.1 per cent. Thirty-five gave them the right to take part in the commencement exercises.

SCHOOL TEACHERS ASSIGNED

Special to The Telegraph. Shepherdstown, Pa., May 22.—The school board of Upper Allen township has made the following assignments of teachers for the coming school term: Shepherdstown, Miss Ada Miller; Mount Allen, Professor G. A. Berkley; Union, Miss May; Ridge Summit, Blue Ridge mountains, killed two large reptiles yesterday. The two measured fourteen feet in length and were only twenty feet from Mr. McAfee's house.

BLACKSNAKES COMING OUT

Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., May 22.—Blacksnakes have begun to come out in the mountain section—the warm weather of the past week causing them to become quite active. William McAfee, who resides on the Roland land, Blue Ridge Summit, Blue Ridge mountains, killed two large reptiles yesterday. The two measured fourteen feet in length and were only twenty feet from Mr. McAfee's house.

INJURED MAN IN HOSPITAL

Special to The Telegraph. Waynesboro, Pa., May 22.—Jesse Fishock, Edgemont, is in the Hesse town hospital for an operation to remove a clot of blood on his brain. He is a foreman in a peach orchard and, after working with an axe, was struck on the head with a club in the hands of the fellow he punished.

FAMILY HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Columbia, Pa., May 22.—The family of Aaron Gochenauser, a conductor on the York Furnace trolley line, had a narrow escape from death when their dwelling at Coleman street was destroyed by fire. They retired as usual, but Mrs. Gochenauser was awakened by the clouds of smoke that poured down from the porch and gave the alarm, which enabled the family to escape with the aid of neighbors.

DID THE WORK

Grew Strong on Right Food. You can't grow strong by merely exercising. You must have food—the kind you can digest and assimilate. Unless the food you eat is digested it adds to the burden the digestive organs must carry. This often means a nervous breakdown.

H. L. Flender Undergoes Operation at Hospital

Camp Hill, Pa., May 22.—H. L. Flender, of Camp Hill, who was operated upon at the Harrisburg Hospital for appendicitis on Wednesday, was in a serious condition today, according to reports. Mr. Flender was seized with an acute attack of appendicitis early Wednesday and an operation was ordered by his physician at once. He rallied after the operation, but was weaker to-day.

Special Services in Old Church For Last Time

New Cumberland, Pa., May 22.—Special services will be held in the Church of God Sunday, May 24, which will be the last services in the old church before it will be torn down and replaced by a fine new structure. Sunday school will be held at 9 o'clock a. m., the first superintendent, Charles E. Bair, of Goldsboro, will have charge; at 10 o'clock the Rev. C. D. Rischel, of Mt. Joy, the first pastor of the church, will preach; at 7:30 p. m. the last communion service will be held; the congregation will worship

The Men's Store is separate from the Ladies' Section. A suit for the well dressed man of Imported Homespun—made by hand looms—tailored by the highest class factory—a splendid variety—many 1/4 silk lined—AT TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS.

A Chauffeur's Suit Complete, Including Cap $20.00. These suits in stock in several shades of summer weight whipcord—proofed against rain—special measurements costs no more. The Dress Department as well as the Waist Department has been enlarged with conveniences for patrons—

WEST SHORE NEWS. Many Camp Hill Ladies and Their Guests Have Enjoyable Evening Near Borough. Camp Hill, Pa., May 22.—A social, under the direction of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Camp Hill Methodist Church, was held on the H. S. Musser farm, near the borough, last evening.

End of Lively Contest For Baseball Queen at Halifax. Special to The Telegraph. Halifax, Pa., May 22.—This evening the baseball queen contest ends. The winner will throw out the first ball at the start of the game with Duaneannon to-morrow afternoon. The contest has been interesting and many votes have been cast, which has netted the association nearly $29 to start the 1914 season.

COL. GILMORE DISAPPEARS FROM ATLANTIC CITY HOTEL. Atlantic City, N. J., May 22.—The mysterious disappearance of Colonel James Gilmore, a Grand Army of the Republic member and a prominent resident of Chambersburg, Pa., is puzzling the local police. They fear he has met with some serious accident. On Sunday night he left his hotel and has not returned. Nothing was said about his disappearance until Wednesday night when the police were called in. Assisted by William Reynolds, a nephew, detectives have scoured the city, but their efforts have gone unrewarded.

Six Young Women Graduate in New Cumberland Class. New Cumberland, Pa., May 22.—Commencement exercises of the New Cumberland high school in the Methodist Church last evening were attended by many from here and from surrounding towns. The large auditorium was very prettily decorated with the class colors, white and green, potted plants, baskets and white flowers. On the platform were seated the graduate, six young women, the teacher, the board of education, ministers of town, speakers, high school and orchestra. The young ladies had well chosen subjects, which were of a very interesting and instructive nature. Professor J. Kelso Green, county superintendent, Dr. William A. Granville, president of Pennsylvania College, and G. W. Hoffman, president of the board of education, made addresses.

Man Secreted Under Bed at New Cumberland Home. New Cumberland, Pa., May 22.—When Mrs. Samuel Guistwhite, who resides at Front and Bridge streets, went upstairs on Wednesday night she saw something lying under the bed in the next room which she thought was a dog. Going in to investigate, she gave the object a kick and was astonished to find a man. Rushing downstairs she called the police and a man was taken to the hospital. He was a veteran and a cripple, she told him to watch until she went out to give the alarm. After getting help she went upstairs, only to find the man had gotten down from the porch and escaped. Mr. Guistwhite, who keeps a cigar store, has been robbed on several occasions and it is thought this was the object of the intruder.

FRIGHTFUL CASE OF MRS. M. SHULER, OF MECHANICSBURG. Chronic Stomach Troubles Finally Relieved. Not by Death, as Is Usually the Case, But by Complete Restoration to Perfect Health. It is not our intention to even attempt to describe all the tortures, miseries and inconveniences which Mrs. M. Shuler, of Mechanicsburg, suffered during the past many years. Her dreadful and serious condition was known to many and there will be much rejoicing among her friends to learn that she is again in perfect health. Her home, at 216 East Locust street, is now the scene of many congratulations. Cheerfully, yes, anxiously in Mrs. Shuler now willing to tell all sufferers of various stomach and nervous complaints what the wonderful Quaker Herb Extract has done for her. Physically unable to call for the remedies at Forney's drug store herself, she sent her husband. After taking Quaker Extract with confidence, results were hoped for, and once more this valuable remedy showed its remarkable powers, for to the surprise and gratification of herself, her husband and her friends, she was entirely cured, not by a miracle, but by Quaker Herb Extract. All sufferers from rheumatism, catarrh or stomach troubles, are most cordially invited to call on or write to the now happy Mrs. Shuler, or if that be an inconvenience, her grateful husband, who is employed by the Elliott-Fisher Typewriter Company, of this city, will be only too glad to substantiate what is here published. Either call on him or telephone him, as you please. Convince yourself. These things all prove what Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm are doing for sufferers of rheumatism, catarrh or stomach troubles. These remedies are being sold at W. H. Kennedy's, 30 South Third street.—Advertisement.

FOR THIS SET CLIP OUR FREE LIBRARY COUPON. (DUMAS) HOW TO GET IT. Clip this Library Coupon and bring or send to the Telegraph office, with the expense item of 98c for the entire six volume set of books. This amount we ask you to pay to cover the cost of transportation, U. S. custom duties, handling, etc. If you desire to have the set sent by mail or express, all charges prepaid, add 17c, or $1.15 in all, and fill in name and address below.

FOR THIS SET CLIP OUR FREE LIBRARY COUPON. (DUMAS) HOW TO GET IT. Name Address

The Dress Department as well as the Waist Department has been enlarged with conveniences for patrons—

Long Tunic Dresses. To repeat the comments of most everyone who glances at our dresses, "aren't they perfect darlings," is the best words we know to say that our dresses, both in style—materials and prices, are winning favor with every woman interested in the right kind of dresses—our showing of dresses for morning wear priced as low as $8.50, shows that even at low prices there is that Schleisner style elegant dresses for immediate and "go away" use $12.50 to $37.50.

NEW SKIRTS. Extra skirts for various purposes in models and materials appropriate for different occasions, made of Silk Crepe—Cotton Crepe—Mesh materials—Linen—Crash in white and colors. $1.95 $3.50 $5.00 $8.50. In keeping with the new skirts—the enlarged Waist Department is opening daily new numbers. Splendid assortment, $1.95, $2.95, $5.00, $8.50, $10.00 and $12.50.

A Sale—Ladies' Suits. We beg to announce that the price of every suit has been reduced—the values are unmatchable—$10.00, $12.50, $15.00, $18.50. 25 Silk Petticoats, slightly soiled; 3 shades blue, 2 shades mahogany; value $3.95 at 95c. Schleisner's 28-30 and 32 N. Third Street Schleisner's

PENNSYLVANIAN GETS QUICK RELIEF FROM DISORDERS OF HIS STOMACH

I. E. Beckwith Says Mayr's Wonderful Remedy Gave Him Great Help. I. E. Beckwith, of Harrisburg, Penn., a victim of disorders of the stomach and intestinal tract. He tried treatment after treatment. Nothing gave him relief. Then one day he discovered Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy—and soon was happy. Mr. Beckwith wrote to Geo. H. Mayr, the maker of the remedy and for twenty years the leading druggist of Chicago: "I believe that Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is the greatest stomach remedy on earth. One dose would convince anyone who is troubled with his stomach of its wonderful merits. It removed some of the most awful looking stuff from my stomach. I have taken other remedies, but they never helped me."

FRIGHTFUL CASE OF MRS. M. SHULER, OF MECHANICSBURG. Chronic Stomach Troubles Finally Relieved. Not by Death, as Is Usually the Case, But by Complete Restoration to Perfect Health.

It is not our intention to even attempt to describe all the tortures, miseries and inconveniences which Mrs. M. Shuler, of Mechanicsburg, suffered during the past many years. Her dreadful and serious condition was known to many and there will be much rejoicing among her friends to learn that she is again in perfect health. Her home, at 216 East Locust street, is now the scene of many congratulations. Cheerfully, yes, anxiously in Mrs. Shuler now willing to tell all sufferers of various stomach and nervous complaints what the wonderful Quaker Herb Extract has done for her. Physically unable to call for the remedies at Forney's drug store herself, she sent her husband. After taking Quaker Extract with confidence, results were hoped for, and once more this valuable remedy showed its remarkable powers, for to the surprise and gratification of herself, her husband and her friends, she was entirely cured, not by a miracle, but by Quaker Herb Extract. All sufferers from rheumatism, catarrh or stomach troubles, are most cordially invited to call on or write to the now happy Mrs. Shuler, or if that be an inconvenience, her grateful husband, who is employed by the Elliott-Fisher Typewriter Company, of this city, will be only too glad to substantiate what is here published. Either call on him or telephone him, as you please. Convince yourself. These things all prove what Quaker Extract and Oil of Balm are doing for sufferers of rheumatism, catarrh or stomach troubles. These remedies are being sold at W. H. Kennedy's, 30 South Third street.—Advertisement.

FOR THIS SET CLIP OUR FREE LIBRARY COUPON. (DUMAS) HOW TO GET IT. Clip this Library Coupon and bring or send to the Telegraph office, with the expense item of 98c for the entire six volume set of books. This amount we ask you to pay to cover the cost of transportation, U. S. custom duties, handling, etc. If you desire to have the set sent by mail or express, all charges prepaid, add 17c, or $1.15 in all, and fill in name and address below. Name Address