SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 23

JUDGE KUNKEL'S VICTORY

RESIDENT JUDGE GEORGE KUNKEL, of Dauphin county, has been nominated for the State Supreme Court under conditions that practically assure his election next November.

Without going deeply into the elements of the situation it may be said there are indications that Judge Kunkel will receive a heavy vote not only within the Republican ranks but that thousands of Democrats, Progressives and Independents will cast their ballots for him.

All of the complex elements that entered into the campaign previous to the primaries have been eliminated. Party considerations cannot possibly affect the situation, and as between the two candidates in the field there can be no question of the superiority of Judge Kunkel, although Judge Frazer is a man of ability and high character.

Judge Kunkel is in the very prime of virtue manhood, with every prospect of living through the entire twenty-one years of the term to which he will be elected in November, a very important factor, indeed. Judge Frazer, on the other hand, is older in years, although younger in experience.

Where in the world could be found a man better fitted for the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania by natural ability, high character, legal training, experience as a lawmaker, district attorney and judge than Judge Kunkel? If he had deliberately planned his career it is doubtful if he could have selected a better means of qualifying himself for a place on the Supreme bench.

There can be no doubt of the meaning of the Republican rally of Tuesday throughout Pennsylvania. Only those who choose to shut their eyes and close their ears can get any comfort out of the figures for the opponents of the Republican party. And all efforts to distort the situation for the encouragement of the anti-Republican aggregation will be futile in the face of a deep-seated public resentment against Democratic blundering at Washington.

Democratic bosses are now trying to persuade men who are thrown into the Wilson free trade propaganda that they are simply enjoying a holiday and that they ought to be glad of a chance to rest. We shall expect presently to have our Democratic friends tell these same idle men that they only imagine they are out of work.

MARTIN G. BRUMBAUGH
The question has been asked: "Why did Martin G. Brumbaugh pull a vote at the primaries that practically assures his election next Fall?"

There are two reasons. One of them is the deep resentment of Pennsylvania people against the Wilson administration and the other is Martin G. Brumbaugh himself. The Republican candidate is a mighty big man; big in everything that goes to make for bigness of character. He is a giant physically, morally, intellectually and spiritually.

He made a splendid showing at the primaries, but his total vote is a mere handful as compared to the avalanches that will be launched in his favor in November.

THE CANAL AND BUSINESS
In these days of business depression it is pleasant to note that all the consular reports agree that when the Panama canal once opens for business many industries which have hitherto been more or less dormant in South America will be stimulated into activity.

President Wilson's newspaper supporters are making a strenuous effort at this time to overcome the widespread dissatisfaction with the administration on account of its vacillating policy in international affairs and its unrelenting products. One of the most profitable industries for which some of the South American countries are especially well adapted is that of fruit growing.

Last year the United States imported something over $32,000,000 worth of fruits from foreign countries. These consisted almost altogether of the kinds that are produced in limited quantities or not at all in this country, such as bananas, currants, dates, figs, olives, etc. Apricots, peaches, pears, plums, cherries and the many other fruits to which we are accustomed would find a splendid market here in the winter season if they could be had fresh. It is this demand for our native fruits in the off season which will develop the fruit industry in the west coast countries of South America, for with refrigerator steamers they can be shipped via the Panama canal from Callao, Peru, to New Orleans in seven or eight days and the fast fruit trains of the railroads will have them in Chicago and eastern markets in two or three days more.

Congressman M. Clyde Kelly, who broke into Congress from the old Dalzell district of Western Pennsylvania, has been denied a renomination by the Republican party. It could hardly have been otherwise in view of the fact that Kelly voted for the Underwood tariff bill, without regard to the important iron and steel industries of his constituency. The Kellys and Rupleys and others of their stripe will be retired to private life next November.

COMPLETE THE WORK
WITH THE City Planning Commission organized and in hearty co-operation with Superintendent of Parks and Playgrounds Taylor, there is nothing now in the way of a completion of the original park plans and development.

Fortunately for Harrisburg, many of its generous landholders have freely given of their holdings, and it is only due to these generous citizens that the park authorities speedily complete whatever is yet to be done in the way of acquiring the necessary properties for the parkway and parks ought to be done without further delay.

This is the season of complaints about the dust in the roads leading into the city. Most of the highways entering Harrisburg are made of limestone and it has become powdered through the heavy Spring traffic and every passing breeze distributes it over the landscape. The trolley cars sweep it up in clouds and the automobiles create cyclones of dust. It is regrettable that the city engineer, entering Harrisburg are made of limestone and it has become powdered through the heavy Spring traffic and every passing breeze distributes it over the landscape.

REPUBLICAN SUCCESS
DISCUSSING the campaign of 1914 and results of the primaries of Tuesday, the Public Ledger of Philadelphia, in referring to Senator Penrose's nomination, intimates that his success in November "will be due to the deep resentment felt by the people over the destructive effects upon Pennsylvania interests of Democratic blundering and persistence of stupid legislative attacks upon business."

People who have been interested in military affairs in this city for a long time will with pleasure be informed that the Captain George W. Jackson of the Governor's Troop, is arranging for an open air drill. If it can be worked out this drill will take place near the State arsenal, there being a large field at that place which is well adapted for the maneuvers.

THE crowded condition of the hotels of the city this week, due to the numerous conventions and meetings of State organizations held here, caused more or less embarrassment for the traveling men who come here in regular trips and for people who had business at the various places in the city. These men made the rounds of the hotels and found everything filled. Most of the rooming houses were filled up. As a result the Turkish bath establishments were filled every night.

Some of the houses recently sold to the Pennsylvania Trust interests in the district about Mulberry street include buildings probably older than any others. Several of the houses later transferred are over a century old and some of them are of the log construction which was the first method adopted here. These old log houses are as solid as the day they were put up and the demolition of them will show great rough lumber that are good for years to come.

STATE COMMITTEE MEETINGS HERE

Chairmen Will Be Elected and Resolutions Adopted at Sessions Early in June
Meetings of State committees will be held here in the first week in June if the returns are completed in time. The Republican State committee will meet here probably on June 1 or 2. The Democrats will pick June 3 and the Washington party June 4.

BRUMBAUGH IS FAR AHEAD

Democratic Reorganization Bosses Nearly All Lost Their Counties on Tuesday
Meetings of State committees will be held here in the first week in June if the returns are completed in time.

EVENING CHAT

What do you think of the suggestion that June 1 be observed as "Rooster Day" in Pennsylvania and that on that day all roosters be killed, sold or penned up. The idea has been given hearty endorsement by A. L. Martin, director of the State Bureau of farmers' institutes in the farm counselors' work. The suggestion "Rooster Day" was made in a letter to Mr. Martin by W. Theo Wittman famous as the poultry expert in the farm counselors' division of the Department of Agriculture. It is his idea to get rid of the surplus of roosters and at the same time improve the quality of fowls and yield of eggs.

Observance of Ascension Day, which has always been more or less noted in this section of the State, appears to be growing in popularity. On Monday and Thursday there were many people at services or participating in various events of the day. This was especially so in the smaller communities and in some portions of the county. Notably those in which Germans predominate, many stores were closed and people out enjoying the day. In Harrisburg the event of the day was the parade of the Knights Templar who attended services.

As late figures come in they show the manner in which the vote over Martin G. Brumbaugh has mounted throughout the State, and many people are predicting that he will come near breaking a record. In many counties he was the only Republican serious candidate and he will have a tremendous total. The returns from sixty counties compiled at Philadelphia show that McCormick has 100,271 and Ryan 79,225. It is not expected that the Democratic total of votes will go to 200,000. As the various candidates for Keystone nomination for Governor are dropping out it looks as though Dr. Brumbaugh would be named on the party ticket.

Central Gratitude Very Much
Herr Moeslein last night announced that he would be a candidate for re-election at the summer meeting of the Pennsylvania State committee, and the members of the club gave him their blessing and consent in his candidacy. The old, reliable, T. K. VanDyke, also figured in the proceedings in a long statement in which various opinions were expressed about McCormick, but nothing about the new system of raising an army of "watchers." Postmaster Frank C. Sites offered a resolution endorsing Moeslein, but no one spoke in support of it. The chairman went home in a good humor. The meeting was as large as could be expected right after the inauguration of the policy of having numerous speakers at the party meetings.

Brumbaugh is Running Far Ahead
The revised figures show that the force for more than seven months. The figures available show that since the beginning of the year the total of exports decreased 113,012,355, in comparison with the corresponding period in the previous year. At the same time imports increased 22,625,493. As a result the trade balance was in favor of the United States in April, while last October it was $37,444,586.

Governor Tener's Speech

[From the Altoona Tribune.]
One of the many pleasant memories carried away by every guest at the recent testimonial luncheon in honor of Dr. J. T. Rothrock, at Harrisburg, was the remarkable speech delivered by Governor Tener. It has been said that our Chief Executive is no orator and that he has not been able to sway many votes by his efforts in the stump, but those who heard him eulogize Dr. Rothrock formed an entirely different impression.
