

G. O. P. TO INVITE ROOSEVELT BACK TO REPUBLICAN RANKS

Congressmen Will Make Overtures to Colonel in Washington Tomorrow

SEEK SPEECH FROM HIM

Will Urge That He Come Out and Fight the Wilson Administration

New York, May 25.—In political circles much significance is attached to the following article in the New York Sun to-day: "A definite move by Republicans in Congress to get ex-President Roosevelt back in the party fold will be made on Tuesday, when he will address the National Geographic Society in Washington. Mr. Roosevelt will be asked to make a speech setting forth the weaknesses of the Wilson administration so as to unite the Republican and Progressive forces against the common enemy. The Republican spokesmen will also try to convince Mr. Roosevelt that the Progressive party is dwindling in numbers and will give the vote in the Pennsylvania primaries to an insubstantial. It is said that the proposed overtures to Mr. Roosevelt have received the approval of conservative Republicans in Congress. Mr. Roosevelt asserted at Sagamore Hill yesterday that he would not accept the Progressive party nomination for Governor of New York. He passed much of the day and several hours of the night in a series of political conferences with Victor Murdock, George W. Perkins and others."

And only a little less than 66 2-3 per cent care more for Latin and Greek and theologies and other frills of the classical and scientific courses than how to fry an egg, boil the coffee, do a steak to a nice turn, sew on a button, or darn a stocking. Furthermore these statistics are official. They represent the wishes of the grammar school pupils who, after pouring over the new courses of study with parents and the other folks at home, have notified the school authorities of the courses upon which they have decided. What? Do Boys, Too, Like Greek? All told, a class of 284 will enter the Central High in September. Twenty-nine Corporation Appeal Cases Heard Before President Judge This Morning

Nearly a quarter of million in corporation taxes will be paid into the coffers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as a direct result of agreement in tax appeal cases based upon a recent decision of President Judge George Kunkel of the Dauphin County Court. BABY SAVING TO BE BIG SUMMER JOB OF HEALTH BUREAU

City Authorities and Pure Milk Society Plan Campaign of Education

Preparations are now under way by the Health Bureau and the Harrisburg Society for Providing Pure Milk for Babies for a summer campaign looking toward the preservation of the lives of infants. It is believed that the campaign, which will be one both of education and practical assistance, will result in the reduction of infant mortality during the summer months. During 1913 from July 1 to October 1 fifty infants under 2 years of age died, and in some cases the deaths might have been prevented had proper sanitary and hygienic precautions been used, say the health authorities. The first essential toward the preservation of the lives of the babies during the hot weather is that absolutely pure milk be secured. For this purpose the pure milk society has completed arrangements with a milk products company to furnish its certified milk—which is as nearly pure as human safeguards can make it—to those unable to obtain it in any other way. Believe Carlisle Indian Murdered Girl With Club During a Drunken Brawl

Carlisle Police Searching For Student Last Seen With Hazel Myers; Questioning Every Redskin in School to Find Suspect; Find Victim Lying on Floor of Out-house; No Arrests Yet Made

Special to The Telegraph Carlisle, Pa., May 25.—Believing that Hazel Myers, 19 years old, of York Springs, met her death at the hands of a Carlisle Indian, District Attorney Alexander, Detective Harry Bentley to-day made diligent search for the Carlisle student said to have been seen with the Myers girl on last Thursday evening. Every male student at the Indian school who had been granted leave of absence on or since Thursday is being closely questioned by the police and the school authorities. In his report this morning the coroner's jury did not fix the crime on any particular person or persons. In the opinion of District Attorney Alexander and Detective Bentley the murdered girl was drinking with a companion or companions at Locust Grove, a place much frequented by beer and whisky drinking parties. The officers believe further that a fight ensued and that the Myers girl was hit over the head with a club or bottle. Find Murdered Girl While putting away a harrow late Saturday afternoon John A. Ludt, farmer of near Locust Grove, found the body of the Myers girl on the floor of an outhouse. Thinking she was drunk, Ludt pushed the body with his foot. Then he saw that the girl was dead. Her neck and face were gashed in several places and there was a great clot of blood on the right side of her head. The district attorney and Chief of Police Daniel Fought, of Carlisle, were notified immediately and they reached the scene of the murder about 4.30 o'clock. The officers made a search of the grove near where the body was found and on a shady spot they picked

IRISH HOME RULE BILL PASSES THIRD READING IN COMMONS

Closing Scene in Fight Brings Great Crowd of Spectators Into Chamber

London, May 25.—The Irish Home Rule bill passed its third reading in the House of Commons to-day by a majority of seventy-eight. The vote was: For, 352; against, 274. Mr. Gannon, the Unionist, who on Saturday defeated C. F. G. Masterman, chairman of the Duchy of Lancaster in the bye-election at Ipswich, met with such an uproarious welcome on his introduction that he appeared glad to escape from the limelight. The closing scene in the fight for Irish home rule brought together a crowd of members and spectators which filled the chamber to its utmost capacity. Under the provisions of the parliament act the bill becomes law after this stage, as it had already twice passed through all its stages in the House of Commons in two separate sessions and the veto of the House of Lords is therefore of no effect. The Rt. Hon. James Lowther, the speaker, appealed to the premier to give the House some information regarding the bill he introduced after the passage of the Irish Home Rule bill for the amendment of that measure so as to meet some of the objections of the people of Ulster. In response to the speaker's plea Premier Asquith announced that the amending bill would give effect to any agreement which the government was still hopeful might be reached. He said that if at the time of the introduction of the Irish Home Rule bill to the House of Lords no such agreement had been reached the amending bill would embody the substance of their alleged negotiations with them to all sections of Berks and to neighboring counties, according to the police.

ABE BUZZARD CHARGED WITH CHICKEN STEALING

Reading, Pa., May 25.—Abe Buzzard, who has spent more than thirty-five of his 65 years behind prison bars, was arrested here at midnight last night on the charge of conducting wholesale operations in chicken stealing. The specific accusation against him is preferred by the Chester county authorities, who have already arrested two of his alleged accomplices, Samuel Graham and George Taylor. They were held for court in West Chester and Buzzard will be taken there also. He had just returned from a trip to Minnesota when arrested. Buzzard's latest activities are described by the police as being most systematic. It was customary, they say, for anyone of the trio to hire teams from local liverymen and announce that they were bound on one of their produce-getting trips. It is asserted that they had even taken out a huckster's license, and put their trade on a somewhat business basis. Their alleged depredations took them to all sections of Berks and to neighboring counties, according to the police.

BECKER PLANNING HIS FIGHT FOR THIRD TRIAL

New York, May 25.—In the preparation of his appeal from the verdict of guilty on the charging of having instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, much of the routine work will be done by Charles E. Becker. Already Becker has prepared notes on a mass of paper left with him by his counsel. Before next Friday, when he appears before Justice Samuel S. Seabury for sentence, Becker hopes to have the ground work of his appeal far enough advanced for his lawyers to take up his fight for a third trial without delay. Becker hopes to have his case ready for argument not later than October. Martin T. Manton, chief of the Becker counsel, and his associates, and District Attorney Whitman spent Sunday recuperating from the strain of the trial.

FRANCIS KOSSUTH, SON OF HUNGARIAN PATRIOT, IS DEAD AT AGE OF 73

Budapest, May 25.—Francis Kossuth, son of the great Hungarian patriot, died here to-day, aged 73. He had been an invalid for many months and his death did not come as a surprise. In January last, during a crisis in his illness, Kossuth was married on his sick bed to Countess Benyorsky, widow of his life long friend. Such had been the wish of Count Benyorsky, made on his death bed, and Kossuth and the countess, who intended to marry in March, hastened the nuptials when Kossuth's illness took a turn for the worse. Francis Kossuth took his father's place as leader of the Hungarians soon after Louis Kossuth died in 1894. Up to the time of his illness Francis Kossuth led his countrymen, in their political struggles, with vigor and much success. He was at one time in the cabinet as minister of commerce of Hungary. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt in April 1910, during a spell of Kossuth's illness, visited him at his home.

STEAMER ROYAL EDWARD STRIKES ICEBERG; CAPTAIN SAYS DAMAGE IS SLIGHT

London, May 25.—The steamer Royal Edward of the Canadian Northern Steamship Company, collided with an iceberg 110 miles east of Cape Race while on her voyage from Montreal to Avonmouth. The captain, in a wireless message to the owners to-day, described the iceberg as a very large one and said that the steamer struck it and on while going "dead slow" in a dense fog. The Royal Edward's stem was twisted by the blow and she was making a little water in the forepeak. The captain declared that the damage was not serious but that it would be necessary to dock her on arrival at England. A later message says the Royal Edward is making no water but that she has been brought to a stop in the fog. Neither of the messages is dated.

MEXICAN OUTPOSTS FIRE ON AMERICAN AVIATORS IS REPORT

New Chapters in Preliminaries of Mediation Looked For by Wilson

Washington, May 25.—After more than 24 hours in the Mexican situation, stopped only by a report that Mexican outposts had fired at American aviators at Vera Cruz, President Wilson and his advisers looked to-day for the unfolding of new chapters in the preliminaries of mediation. Much attention was directed toward the Constitutionalists' attitude over representation at the Niagara conference. It was known that administration officials would be gratified if Carranza sent an agent, but they do not consider that indispensable at this time.
