Mrs. Francesco Villa, Who May Become "First Lady" of Mexico, and Some of Her Friends on a Visit to El Paso, Texas, Hospital
