ONE MORE BATTLE THEN HOME AGAIN

Harrisburg Gains a Few Notches in a Lucky Victory Over the Chicks Baseball fans in Harrisburg are feeling quite jubilant over the fact that Cockill's crew is leading the race. With the pitchers going good Manager Cockill believes that the Senators will continue in the first division. The team will be away from home four days next week. Allentown will play here Monday and Tuesday. One of the days will be a double-header. The Senators will then journey to Trenton and will stop at Reading on their way home for games. WON GAME ON TWO HITS Special to The Telegraph Wilmington, Del., May 28.—Jarmon pitched good ball. He also was wild. That accounts for Harrisburg's victory over the Chicks yesterday, score 4 to 3. Wilmington scored one in the first. Brown singled, Jackson's double scored Brown. Another was gathered in the sixth when Jackson was walked, stole second and scored on Meyers' sacrifice. In the eighth Jackson walked, was advanced on Meyers' single, went to third on an error and scored on Sharpe's single. Harrisburg scored one in the first. McCarthy was passed, stole second, went to third on an out and scored on Keyes out. In the sixth, O'Neill got to first on an error, but died stealing. Emerson hit and Keyes lined one which went through Jackson, Emerson scoring. Crist hit for a single and two scored on Jarmon's wild pitch. The score: HARRISBURG AB. R. H. O. A. E. Front Street to Be Roped Off For Big Rollerobile Races

Front street from State to Locust will not only be roped off, but some of the depressions in the asphaltum will be repaired and the street otherwise placed in good shape for the second electric iron rollerobile race on Saturday, Memorial Day. City Commissioner M. Harvey Taylor, Superintendent of Parks and Public Property, who had been asked to serve as president of the board of judges, has accepted and assured the committee in charge that he will issue the necessary instructions to the Fire Chief to rope off the streets, and furthermore, that he will request Commissioner W. H. Lynch, Streets and Public Improvements, to make any needed repairs to the paving. Plans for the big electric iron race have been practically completed. Cards for the winners as they cross the tape were ordered yesterday. The races are due to start promptly at 9 o'clock and the electric iron racers are requested to report at 8.45 to City Detective John Murnane, the starter, at State and Front streets. Eight additional entries received, run the total to fifty. The latest entrants are Donald Gardner, Wilbur Crisswell, John Miller, Harold Young, Joe Waldschmidt, Rushing Myers, Carl Chand, Richard Conway.

Rain Stops Game; Telegraph Team Scores

Rain stopped the game between the Harrisburg Telegraph team and Brelisford Company's nine last evening. Three innings were played. The Telegraph team led with a score of 5 to 0. Ibach was elected captain of the Telegraph team before the game. Twilight games are desired for two evenings next week, preferably Tuesday and Friday, after which the team will be picked from the following list for the season: Berrier, Sterrick, Boss, Scheffer, Thach, Daugherty, Mersinger, Minnich, Shields, Dwyer, and pitchers Holstberg, Kline and Cooper. At the end of the college season 'Cy' Davis will join the pitching staff, and Edward Stackpole, former Academy star, now on the Yale team, will play an infield position.

It's Jeffery Week In Harrisburg Glenn Curtiss, the aviator of Hammondsport, N.Y., perhaps the greatest light engine expert in the world, says: 'I have been running the new Jeffery Six and I am glad to report that the car is as good as it looks and a mechanical masterpiece. The machine is up to date in every respect and incorporates the latest European practice throughout. It has plenty of power and speed, is easy riding and very easy to handle. The engine is quiet and pulls exceptionally well on direct drive at slow speeds. I wish to thank you for your prompt delivery and courteous treatment.'
