ARE WRINKLES MORE COMMON?

Because life is more complex—Because women are interested in so many more things than they used to be—Because dividing a day among household duties, politics, clubs, charities, society, business and personal care is a strenuous thing—and strenuous life makes marks upon the face, the woman of to-day who wants to look right has long since started to aid Nature in its uneven fight and many of the wisest and busiest have decided upon this economical vegetable jelly cream as the simplest wrinkle remover and skin stimulator. It protects the surface of the skin and brings the blood to the surface where it performs its upbuilding work. Just get from your druggist an ounce of al-mazoin, put it into a fruit jar and add half a pint of water and two tablespoonfuls of glycerine. Let this mixture stand for several hours, stirring occasionally during this time. Before retiring apply rather thickly over wrinkled or flabby surface and allow it to dry. It will harden rapidly and, when applied, you will note a slight tightening of the skin. In the morning remove with hot water and note the immediate effect.

and report at a meeting of council next Monday evening.

The following contractors were the bidders: Central Construction and Supply Company, W. R. Benson, G. W. Ensign, Charles T. Eastburn Company, W. O. Thompson, J. B. Trexler, Standard Bitulithic Company and S. W. Shoemaker.

Following the opening of the bids the representatives of the various paving material companies and the contractors present were given the privilege of asking questions. For another two hours the councilmen listened to the various materials and received some interesting information about street paving from experts.

On the suggestion of President Reynolds a motion was made instructing the borough secretary to petition for the aid in paving the road between the old borough line, which is the limit of the section to be paved by the borough, to the northern line of Highspire borough. Under a recent act of Assembly the State will bear one-half the cost of this work and the county and local authorities each one-fourth.

To Change Tracks.—The question of allowing the Harrisburg Railways Company to move its tracks in South Front and Chambers streets, two of the streets to be paved, then arose. The company was granted permission to move its tracks in Chambers street to the south side of the street. The tracks now running along the west side of South Front street, below Mohn street, will be placed in the center of the street. The cost of all this work must be borne by the trolley company and it must also assume responsibility for any damage to the sewer in Chambers street.

Four bids for remodeling the Baldwin house were opened. H. C. Wright bid $3,950; George H. Sechrist bid $3,970; W. Scott Sides, $4,766; E. E. Wright, $3,790, with a possible reduction of $175. On motion of Councilman Nelly the bids were referred to the town property committee to be tabulated and report at Monday's meeting.

Two bids on five kinds of fire hose were opened. The bids ranged from 70 cents to $1.10 per foot. These bids were also referred to the town property committee.

HEARD ON THE "HILL"

The Industrial Board meets in Philadelphia on Friday.

The Forestry Commission will meet here on Friday.

Chief Clerk Lichteiter, of the Department of Agriculture, has returned from Erie.

HEARING CHIEFS ABOUT EMPLOYES

Economy and Efficiency Commission Begins Investigations at the Capitol Today

Members of the State Economy and Efficiency Commission to-day began to supplement information obtained from the various State government departments by hearing heads of departments. The commission has made a study of the conditions in the departments and it is the idea to hear more detailed explanations from the chiefs. Then if there are any weak points which the commission thinks should be specially considered they will be taken up.

The officials heard to-day were Dr. Nathan C. Schaeffer, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and N. B. Critchfield, Secretary of Agriculture. Tomorrow the personnel and duties of the fisheries and dairy and food offices will be gone into with their chiefs.

To Resume Probe.—The legislative commission in charge of the inquiry into the manner of fixing fire insurance rates will meet here to-morrow to determine upon its schedule of meetings and hearings. It is the idea to visit Philadelphia and eastern cities again.

New Assistant.—Paul E. Flichen-scher, formerly connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad and now of Philadelphia, has been named as assistant to Chief Wilson, of the Bureau of Tariffs and Rates, of the Public Service Commission.

Federal Officer Here.—Carl Hook-stadt, of the national commission on industrial relations and an expert on labor laws, was at the Capitol to-day making a survey of the laws and methods of the Department of Labor and Industry in dealing with labor, including mediation, employment bureaus and inspection. He spent some time with Commissioner Jackson and his staff and stated that he was "much impressed" with the organization of the department and its objects.

New Justice.—Martin V. Stanton was to-day appointed a justice of the peace for Knoxvile, Toga county.

Came From West.—State Health Department officials to-day stated that it had been definitely established that the smallpox outbreak in Snyder county came from a case of smallpox originating in North Dakota. There are now forty cases in that county, with Mount Pleasant Mills as the center, and it is claimed that the infection was brought in holiday week last December and diagnosed as chickenpox.

Engineers.—It is expected that in a short time information will be received from Washington regarding the part the engineer will play in the maneuvers for engineers near Washington. The joint maneuvers for regulars and volunteer infantrymen and cavalry regiments have been cancelled, but the engineer maneuvers is a separate affair and orders regarding it will be issued.

Industrial Roads.—Hearing of industrial road cases was resumed by the State Public Service Commission to-day, two phases being taken up. The Kane and Elk Railroad Company, operating in the northern part of the state, objected to cancellation of joint rates by trunk lines and the National Tube Company and McKeesport Connecting Railroad asked for restoration of allowances from trunk lines. Several other industrial roads are to be heard later in the day, practically all of the big steel interests about Pittsburgh being interested.

Big Payments.—County Treasurer Bailey to-day paid the State Treasurer $3,500 as mercantile licenses. Register Sheehan, of Philadelphia, paid $4,000 as county taxes. Fifty-six paid to-day that fifty-six counties had been paid their primary bills for 1913, being reduced on the scale laid down by the accounts of the department. All but Philadelphia have been paid for 1912.

Smith Welcomed.—Banking Commissioner William Smith, who had been away from his department a week or so, returned yesterday and was warmly welcomed back. The attaches of the office decorated his desk with flowers and his best wishes for improvement in health.

Movie Men Here.—A committee of representatives of moving picture theater owners and managers, architects, equipment men and electricians discussed the regulations for existing buildings. The code is already laid down for new buildings. The question now is how to know all the buildings to be drawn to provide for existing precautions for existing buildings or whether a minimum should be established. Theater people will be here to-morrow.

More Counties in Line.—Columbia, Millin, Blair, Fayette and Washington counties are expected to have their trustees for mothers' pension law organized within the next few months. McKean and Clearfield will make requisition soon.

Livestock Board.—The State Livestock Sanitary Board held its monthly meeting at the executive department and reports indicated a generally good state of affairs. A number of prosecutions for violation of the quarantine laws were reported.

Awards Due To-morrow.—The Board of Public Grounds and Buildings will to-morrow morning announce when the award of contracts for supplies will be taken up and bids opened for the subway and garage at the arsenal.

Tracing Contacts.—State health officers are tracing the wanderings of a man who is at Marcus Hook with smallpox. He is said to have traveled across the State from Buffalo.

May Meet at School.—Arrangements are being made for a meeting of the State Board of Education at Lock Haven State Normal school to consider the financial condition of the school. The board has taken over three schools and is considering the situation at Lock Haven.

Water Supply Meets.—The State Water Supply Commission is holding a special meeting this afternoon to dispose of accumulated business. A number of charter applications are to come up.

STATEMENT RECEIVING ATTENTION IN CAPITAL

Secretary Bryan was in frequent communication with the members of the American mission at Niagara Falls but beyond his statement that the conference was "progressing favorably" no intimation of the trend of the exchanges was forthcoming. It was believed, however, that the American delegation had not ceased their efforts for admittance of a Constitutional representative to the conference.

In unofficial circles in Washington speculation could be gathered from the outcome of the mediation preliminaries if the three envoys and the chief of the North faction failed to agree on a basis for Constitutional participation. The envoys, however, were confined to differences between Huerta and the United States and the northern faction continued their campaign to sterner judicial issues. The need of outside help to restore normal conditions in the republic.

Rafael Zubaran, head of the Carranza agency here, commented to-day upon the dispatch of a representative General Huerta as desiring that the affairs might be settled by Mexicans. "The Constitutionalists have nothing to mediate with Huerta," said he, "and I must meet him at the point of the sword."

Serious View Taken.—The situation last night reached a point where even the State Department, with its longing for peace, looked to a sterner judicial position. The whole Mexican tangle is so threatening that the Administration is seriously considering, it is understood, either a reimposition of the embargo on arms from the United States or a blockade of certain Mexican ports to the extent of excluding arms from Mexico. The Administration wishes to avoid as far as possible the charge of intervention, that arms come within the grasp of American officials were later turned against American soldiers.

The Constitutionalists have not felt that it was necessary to a cessation of hostilities because it would accrue to the benefit if General Huerta withdrew giving any assurance that it would be followed by a successful solution of the Mexican problem.

The Constitutionalists feel that their victories in steady succession should be followed up promptly. To consent to an armistice, they think, would enable the Huerta government to strengthen its military position, not sufficiently to prevent ultimate victory for the Constitutionalists, but to such an extent as to prolong the conflict, when hostilities are resumed. Their position is that they will be less bloodshed without than with an armistice.

The American delegates are reporting to their government the mediation contentments with reference to Constitutional participation, but have as yet no official knowledge on the subject from the mediators.

The mediators have not finished their discussion with the mediators about the Constitutionalists and are awaiting more information from Washington in this connection.

Indications to-day were that nothing definite would be resolved on Constitutional representation, though the mediators were reported to be framing a reply to the last Carranza note.

Mediators Deadlocked on Rebel Representation
By Associated Press
Niagara Falls, Ont., June 2.—Still deadlocked over the question of Constitutional representation at the conference here, the Mexican and American delegates were awaiting more information to-day about the character and ability of certain persons who have been previously suggested to compose the new provision government.

"Honor and Dignity Will Be Saved"—"El Imparcial"
Mexico City, June 2.—A semi-official note relative to the mediation conference at Niagara Falls was published under a prominent heading in El Imparcial to-day. It says:

"We can give the assurance that the peace will be achieved in the end, and that conciliation between the mediators and delegates must be based on respect to our sovereignty and to the dignity of the Mexican nation. The mediators know all too well that three days and our readers will see the result. We declare that our honor and dignity will be saved."

RIVER WALL WORK IS UNDER WAY

Company has been filling out along the steps between the pumping station and Herr street and it is expected there will be sufficient material from the subway excavations downtown to provide sufficient fill along the steps north of Calder street.

Under the specifications the deposits along the low shore line between the river and steps will be excavated and used for grading behind the wall. This will not only provide filling material but will also give a clean shore line after the work shall have been completed.

There seems to be nothing now in the way of an energetic prosecution of the big job, inasmuch as the bank is more open in the northern section of the city than along the older stretches south of Herr street, and the contractors will be able to handle their materials and labor to better advantage.

Give Uptown Folks Open Air
For years the large population north of Third street has complained that the improvements of recent years, especially those having in view the recreation of the people, were provided for other sections of the city at the expense of the important district northward. For this reason it is urged that the completion of the River Park and wall will furnish open air facilities for the people who use the park.

A strip north of Calder street, where more care will be exercised in the operations of the contractor to the end that the grass may not be destroyed and the park ruined this summer.

"Twelfth Night" on Academy Campus Tomorrow
On the Harrisburg Academy campus, to-morrow evening, Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" will be given by the Devereux Players of New York. The proceeds will go to the library fund. The performance starts at 8 o'clock.

STEELTON HUNDREDS ON EIGHT HOURS AND SEVEN DAYS

Scarcity of Orders, Officials Say, Makes the Cut in Time Necessary

Orders were issued yesterday by the Pennsylvania Steel Company placing the employees of a number of shops in the big plant at Steelton on an eight-hour day.

At the Steelton offices of the company this morning it was stated that it was impossible to tell just how many men would be affected by the order. An estimated 1,000 was said to be too high. Five hundred was said to be nearer the mark. A scarcity of orders, it was explained, necessitated the cut.

This simple but well-balanced meal for four people was put into the Eco-Thermal at one o'clock before the oven was heated. The fire was lighted and the gas allowed to burn until the thermometer showed the proper temperature when the oven was locked, the fire turned out with the meal to be left in the oven until three o'clock when it was taken out and better food you never tasted.

This should show beyond any doubt that the Eco-Thermal cooks and cares for an entire meal at the same time, with the same heat, with no mixing of flavors, and without the usual watching, care and attention.

This should also prove that the Eco-Thermal lifts the burden of kitchen DRUDGERY and RESPONSIBILITY from the housewife's shoulders and enables her to spend Sundays with the family instead of slaving over a hot stove in a hot kitchen on a hot day; and at the same time it enables her to have an unusually good Sunday dinner.

The Eco-Thermal saves a wonderful amount of labor, time and worry, besides preserving the general health of the family by giving them a superior quality of cooking.

We want you to see it.
