

REBELS WILL NOT BE OFFICIALLY ADMITTED TO PEACE CONFERENCE

Mediators Will Hold to Original Demands That Armistice Be Declared

CAN BE RECEIVED INFORMALLY

Dispatch From Saltillo Regarding Carranza's Note Not Commented Upon

Niagara Falls, Ont., June 12.—The mediators will not officially admit to the conference here the representatives of General Carranza has announced he will send to Niagara Falls. The South American diplomats said they could not receive from their original condition demanding an armistice. The dispatch from Saltillo yesterday stating that the Carranza note made no mention of the conditions under which he was sending delegates was shown to the mediators. They declined to make formal comment, but let it be known that their attitude had undergone no change. They reiterated that admission of the Constitutionals is and will continue to be contingent upon declaration of an armistice. The mediators would have no objection if a conference could be held between the Huerta delegates, the Carranza delegates and the Americans. In fact, such a suggestion has been under consideration for some time, so that if an agreement could be reached between these three parties at interest the mediators would finally admit all to the signing of a peace treaty.

GUYER, DEFENDER OF THE ALMHOUSE, MAKES EXCUSES

Tries to Disprove Charges Made by Italian Resident Against Conditions There

ACCUSER COMES RIGHT BACK

Sticks to His First Story; Everything Clean Now, It Is Said

The Telegraph yesterday, upon the request of the man whose name is attached thereto, published the following affidavit concerning deplorable conditions in the county almshouse: Personally appeared before me, Joseph J. Guyer, Pa., who, being duly sworn, deposed and said that he was told by Charles Phillipelli, 37 South Summit street, that there was sick at the county almshouse a native of Italy. Thinking I might be of some assistance to him I called upon him and found Ernando Ceriboni, aged 38, confined in the tuberculosis ward. Ceriboni was confined to a bed, the linen of which was filthy and marked with bloodspots where he said he had killed bedbugs the night before. Bedbugs made the night hideous for him, he said. In all the weeks of his confinement there Ceriboni told me he had received no medical attention. Despite the fact that he was supposed to be suffering from tuberculosis he said he had been refused milk and eggs, which are essential to a cure of that disease. No attempt was made even to put water within his reach, and the supply was left so far from his bed that when he wanted to drink he had to get up and go after it, falling often three or four times before he could get back to bed, because of his extreme weakness. I was astonished at these very evident indications of cruel neglect at an institution that has been held up as a model of its kind. From what I had read I was lead to suppose that under the management that took charge last January everything at the almshouse was in the best of order and that the taxpayers' money was being well spent. Now I know that the management is bad and that the poor people confined there—at least those of the tuberculosis ward—are being neglected.

DRASTIC PUNISHMENT FOR WILD WOMEN IS DEMAND OF PUBLIC

Leniency of Government in Releasing Prisoners After Few Days' Detention Is Condemned

CORONATION CHAIR DAMAGED

Bomb Placed in Westminster Abbey and Attempt Made to Wreck Part of Building

London, June 12.—Expressions of anger at the vandalism of the militant suffragettes were more vehement than ever to-day among the general public, which was roused to a state of intense excitement by yesterday's attempt to blow up the historic coronation stone and chair in Westminster Abbey. Demands for the drastic punishment of the women engaged in this campaign of destruction are heard on every side. The leniency of the government in releasing the women criminals after a few days' detention in jail is generally condemned. The hope was widely expressed to-day that Reginald McKenna's suggestion of the prosecution of subscribers to the funds of militant suffragette organization would stop to a large extent the flow of income to the coffers of the women engaged in the widespread activities undertaken by that society. It is known that much of the money handed over by the largest subscribers is sent in with the earmark education. Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant leader, being left to decide what that means. It is believed, however, that this clause in the gift will not prevent the law reaching the persons who provide the funds used for crime. Damage Is Slight. Closer examination to-day of the coronation chair in Edward the Confessor's Chapel showed that the damage was slight and easily repaired. The coronation stone, which was damaged at all, in fact, most of the damage done affected the wall of the chapel behind the chair. The abbey was open as usual to-day except for the chapel where the bomb was placed and in which an immense amount of soot, dust and dirt fell as the result of the explosion. A large congregation of women who were seen in the vicinity before yesterday's explosion, but no arrest has yet been made.

WILLIAM LORIMER'S BANK IN CHICAGO IS CLOSED BY EXAMINER

Three Subsidiaries Also Suspend Business Following an Examination

Chicago, June 12.—The La Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank, of which William Lorimer, ex-United States Senator, is president, was taken in charge to-day by the State Bank Examiner. The examiner reported that conditions were such as to warrant the closing of the bank. A mad run started on the bank two days ago, according to the secretary of the institution, and to-day more and more depositors gathered in front of the institution. An hour after the arrival of the State Bank Examiner the doors of the bank were closed. Examination of the subsidiaries of the La Salle Street bank, it was announced, was taken up by the examiner and these banks were closed. Mr. Lorimer was in conference with the directors of the institution through the morning. In the last statement issued by the bank its capital stock was placed at $1,000,000, surplus $250,000 and undivided profits $2,531. Its stock was then held at par. The statement gave the deposits as $5,058,586 and the loans $4,363,398. William Lorimer, Jr., is listed as the heaviest stockholder in the Illinois State Bank of Chicago, which at the last report had deposits of $177,000 and a capital stock of $200,000.

Athens, Greece, June 12.—The Greek government to-day sent a vigorous note to Turkey demanding the cessation of the persecution of the Greeks in Turkey and the repair of damage caused to them and their interests. Public opinion in the Greek capital is greatly excited and demands are made that the government take immediate sharp action in the matter. A warning to Turkey which fell little short of a formal declaration of hostilities was uttered to-day by Premier Venizelos of Greece in the Chamber of Deputies. He was speaking on the treatment of Greek subjects in Turkey. The premier's attitude showed that the tension between Greece and Turkey was near breaking point and that the danger of war was imminent. M. Venizelos obviously found difficulty in restraining his language when he spoke of the way in which the Turks had treated his fellow countrymen.

SLICK AUGER THIEF GETS GOOD HAUL IN MARKET ST. STORE

Boring a hole with an auger and letting himself into W. F. Paul's store in Market street, a slick young man yesterday got away with $300 worth of shoes and stockings.

Bores Through Windsor Hotel Floor and Drops Into Paul's Shoe Place

Marking out with his eye a two-foot square, he bores holes in the floor close together and then lifts out this piece of the floor. Next he encounters the galvanized tin above the window of Paul's store. He cuts through this with a knife and lets himself down into the window. After getting in the store he carefully puts two iron rings through the front door and proceeds to investigate the stock. It is estimated that he got about $160 worth of shoes and then went on down to the basement, where he turned on the light and took about $175 worth of silk stockings.

Then He Got Busy

Owner Couldn't Get In

Mr. Paul came down town this morning and couldn't get in his store. So he called up the police and Detective Joe Ibach came up and tried the door. He couldn't get in either. So he went up to the room that Johnson had occupied and somebody said "Why everything's all right here," but Detective Ibach kept walking around until his foot went down through a plate of glass.

Then they pulled up the carpet and saw the two square foot aperture through which the auger thief had let himself down. After finishing his job he had carefully swept away the sawdust, so there was no trace of anything amiss.

Early this morning the auger thief went down to the office and said, "Well, I couldn't see my party and there's no use me waitin' around. Here's the key."

President Judge Kunkel allowed the continuance and explained to counsel that the court would hear testimony in chambers bearing upon the question of whether Smith's plea for a special jury insanity inquiry should be allowed.

Washington, June 12.—Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, majority leader in the House, was to-day being congratulated by his colleagues upon his narrow escape from serious injury last night when a pair of runaway horses attached to a heavy dray crashed into the rear of the Virginia coast still fresh in mind. Secretary Redfield so indicated to-day in a letter to the head of the steamboat inspection service, calling attention to the recent grounding of the passenger steamer Iroquois in the Hudson river, for which the captain of the Iroquois is said to have received a thirty days' suspension of his license. The Secretary is convinced that the punishment inflicted upon the vessel captains who are in accidents is insufficient with the gravity of the offense.

SMITH MAY NOT HAVE TO STAND TRIAL FOR MURDER AFTER ALL

Before Edward G. Smith is called upon to stand trial for murder at September quarter sessions a special panel of Dauphin county's good men and true may have to determine whether the Inglenook youth is mentally able to fight the legal battle to save himself from the electric chair.

Smith was called for trial this morning for the murder of his aged grandfather, John E. Bush, December 13, 1913.

Counsel for the defense contended that Smith is now insane, that his insanity is so pronounced that he doesn't realize his plight and that he has not even given his counsel a chance to prepare a defense.

And then the defense sprung for the first time in a Dauphin county court the plea that was offered in New York to save Hans Schmidt from the chair.

That because of his mental condition the defendant is legally incompetent to answer to the law to a charge of murder, and that before he is required to defend himself a special jury be empaneled to decide the question of his sanity.

District Attorney M. E. Stroup pleaded legal "surprise" and asked that the case be continued until September quarter sessions in order that the State could prepare an answer to the plea that was offered in New York to save Hans Schmidt from the chair.

President Judge Kunkel allowed the continuance and explained to counsel that the court would hear testimony in chambers bearing upon the question of whether Smith's plea for a special jury insanity inquiry should be allowed.

The ruling on this point will be made before September quarter sessions, and if the special jury is allowed the youthful accused will face an issue that will determine whether he shall spend the remainder of his life in a

Washington, June 12.—Home Secretary McKenna's appeal to the newspapers to suppress reports on outrages in order not to play into the militants' hands by advertising them, will fall on deaf ears. The London morning papers, which comment editorially in a tone of intense dissatisfaction at the inadequacy of Mr. McKenna's proposal regarding the suppression of militancy, point out the evils likely to follow an agreement among the newspapers to suppress news of any kind, and argue further that each suppression would only serve to provoke the militants to offenses of still greater enormity.

Copenhagen, Denmark, June 12.—King Christian X, of Denmark, to-day placed an unexpected obstacle in the way of the plan of the Danish cabinet to solve the deadlock, in electoral reform by dissolving the upper house of parliament, the King objecting to the inclusion in the dissolution of the twelve members of the upper house nominated by himself and declared that he wished only the other fifty-four members to be affected.

Suffragettes Attempt to Destroy Ancient Church

London, June 12.—A determined attempt was made by militant suffragettes this morning to burn the ancient Church of St. Margaret's at Chipstead, fourteen miles south of London. Three distinct fires, fed by fire lighters composed of squares of felt saturated with oil, were set by the "arson squad."

The rector, the Rev. William H. Stone, and the villagers were soon on the scene and were able to extinguish the flames before much damage had been done. The church dates from the twelfth century.

Suffrage Question Is to Be Fully Discussed by Federation Delegates

Chicago, June 12.—The question of woman's suffrage will receive the fullest consideration at the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

This announcement was made suddenly by Mrs. Percy W. Pennypacker, president of the federation, at the opening of today's session. She was greeted with a storm of applause.

The chair wishes to answer some seventeen questions which have been received with regard to the subject of woman's suffrage," announced Mrs. Pennypacker. "The purpose of these questions is, are you going to smother the suffrage question?"

At this the speaker became very silent and the speaker paused dramatically. Then the speaker resumed with an explosive "no." Then the president amplified.

It is not the intention to smother this great question."

The rumor of a break in the general organization was strengthened by the receipt of a telegram from Mrs. Horace Brock, honorary president of the Pennsylvania Federation, warning the Federation that if it should admit political clubs to full membership and officially act on the question of woman's suffrage, either for or against it, there would be an immediate break in the national organization.
