GIVING LAWN PARTY FOR CHURCH BENEFIT

EPWORTH LEAGUES HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

With Country Store, Gypsy Tent Flowers, Ice Cream, Cake and Candy

A special feature of the lawn fete given to-morrow afternoon and evening by the ladies of St. Stephen's Episcopal church at the Capp property, Front and Harris streets, will be the country store, where everything one can imagine will be on sale. Groceries, jewelry, butter and eggs, neckties, aprons, soap and the usual conglomeration of wares found in a general store will be found here.
In the gypsy tent, one may hear of their past, present and future, and throughout the grounds there will be cake and candy tables, ice cream and flower booths.
Mrs. George Douglas Ramsay is the general chairman of the fete, assisted by Mrs. George M. Whitney, Mrs. John W. Rolly, Mrs. Edward F. Dunlap, Mrs. Harry G. Keffer, Mrs. William Watts Galbraith and Mrs. Lesley McCreath, with a large corps of helpers.

Methodist Young Folks Will Enjoy Fun and Feast on Island

The Senior Epworth League of Grace M. E. church are going to have their annual picnic on Saturday, June 13. About one hundred young people will meet at Grace church at 1:30 and proceed to the ferry boat landing. From there they will be ferried to McCormick's Island, where the picnic will be held. The girls will provide the picnic dinner, the boys the cost of transportation and the league itself will furnish the lemonade, cake and ice cream.
Games have been arranged, such as the three-legged race, potato race and hog race; to amuse the young people, as the twilight deepens into darkness, the picnickers will get into the boat and float down the river by moonlight, to the music of a Victrola.
A most enjoyable time is anticipated and the picnic committee, consisting of Misses Jane Scott, Augusta Hean, Olive Himes, Marguerite Rauch and Messrs. Charles W. Boll, Boas Sites, Robert Seitz and Joe Todd, are to be congratulated on such pleasing picnic plans.

Dance and Lawn Fete to Open "Mountain Lodge"

A large five hundred party and dance will mark the opening of the recently erected "Mountain Lodge," next Tuesday evening, for which fifty invitations have been sent out. Cards from 8 to 10 o'clock will be followed by dancing. The committee in charge of the event includes R. B. Roberts, Jr., H. P. Hummelstine, R. Burkholder and W. Murphy, Jr.
Members of the lodge are R. B. Roberts, Jr., P. H. Crawford, H. P. Hummelstine, R. Burkholder, III, P. P. Gully, A. Shroad, Jr., Al Mower, W. Murphy, C. Ellinger and R. Prowbody.

Interesting Events of the Maclay School

The school year at the Maclay building closed with three enjoyable social events. First, the teachers and pupils held a festival for the benefit of the Athletic Association, clearing $125.00 in honor of the principal, G. Herman Goetz, who will be the principal of the Cameron building next Fall, and Miss Bertha Berthel, a member of the faculty and June bride. Miss Ruth Himes gave several readings in negro dialect and expressions of regret and good wishes were made. Miss Berthel was presented with a mahogany clock and Mr. Goetz with a bouquet of carnations.
Wednesday, June 10, Professor Goetz gave an informal farewell to the faculty and after refreshments were served, the teachers again expressed regret at his leaving the school and presented him with a silk umbrella. Mr. Goetz received a handsome brass desk set from his pupils.

Mrs. Taylor Is Hostess For Class Porch Party

Mrs. Bruce Taylor, of Sixteenth and Briggs street, was hostess last evening at a porch party attended by members of Mrs. Emily E. Miller's Sunday School class, of the Grace Methodist church.
Rambler roses and bright hued lanterns decorated the porch and the guests enjoyed violin numbers by Miss Sara Lerner, piano selections and refreshments.
In attendance were: Mrs. John C. Johnson, Miss Fike, Miss Jessie Kishpaugh, Miss Bess Hubley, Miss Edith Sheffer, Mrs. James G. Hatz, Miss Martha Monro, Miss Carrie Baskin, Miss Sara Lerner, Miss Marjorie Foote, Mrs. Emily E. Miller and Mrs. Taylor.

Kirk-Berthel Wedding at the Home of Bride

The marriage of Miss Bertha May Berthel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Berthel, of this city, to Arthur L. Kirk, of Woodbine street, was a pretty event of last evening. The ceremony, witnessed by fifty guests, took place at the home of the bride, 345 Crescent street, at 8 o'clock, and was performed by the Rev. Homer Skyles May, pastor of the Fourth Reformed Church.
The house was aglow with roses and summer blossoms and a wedding supper was served after the service. The bride, who was unattended, wore an exquisite gown of white lace over satin, and carried a shower of bride roses.
The wedding journey, to Buffalo and the Great Lakes, will be followed by a residence at 444 Crescent street, this city.
The bride has been a teacher in the Maclay school building for several years and many pre-nuptial events were given in her honor. Mr. Kirk is an engineer.

Miss Ruth Payne Entertained Twenty Friends at Home

Miss Ruth Payne entertained twenty friends last evening at an informal dinner at her home, 612 North Front street.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wistar have gone home to Cincinnati after a short stay among old friends in this city.
Miss Ruth B. Stewart, a student at the Pennsylvania School of Industrial Arts, Philadelphia, has returned to her home, 224 Crescent street, for the summer vacation.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Carney and Miss Louise Carney, of Steelton, were called to Boston by the death of Mrs. Carney's father, Judge Sherman.
Miss Harriet Dresser, of Cove Allen, is the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. McMorris, of 636 Emerald street.

R. F. O. M. CLUB GIRLS TAKE RIDE TO MARYSVILLE

The R. F. O. M. Club of the Young Women's Christian Association took a trolley ride to Marysville last evening, where they took supper and had a good time. The following members were in the party:
The Misses May Myers, Mary Backenstoss, Florence Brown, Ruth Eckard, Fannie Reynolds, Carrie Gable, Edith Eisenhart, May Patterson, Grace Owens and Mary Potts, Mrs. Mary Hess and Mrs. Elsie Eckert.
