SHELL A. REEMIE DIES AT PENBROOK

Was Business Man and Bank Director Well-Known Throughout Dauphin County

Special to The Telegraph
 Penbrook, Pa., June 15.—After a lingering illness of more than two years, Shell Austin Reemie, 65 years old, one of the best known and wealthiest men of Penbrook, died at his home in Main street, near Curtin, last evening. Mr. Reemie was one of the best beloved of the elderly men of the town and had a host of friends, both here and throughout the county. He was a staunch Republican and was a holder of several offices here. Death was due to nephritis.

Born at Shiremanstown on March 20, 1849, Mr. Reemie lived on a farm directly opposite Harrisburg until 14 years old. At that time his parents moved to this town, being among the earliest settlers. Their home was a third built in this section. Mr. Reemie spent his early manhood here, attending the Progress district public schools. He received a grammar school education.

In September, 1872, he married Miss Emma Brightbill, of Carlisle. They left Penbrook for a number of years residing on what is now the Ober farm near Progress. Twenty years ago Mr. Reemie moved into the home where he died last night. He was elected director of the poor on the Republican ticket and held this position for four years.

Later he was elected superintendent at the almshouse and held that position for six years. During his superintendency the old building was destroyed by fire and Mr. Reemie helped to erect the present building. For sixteen years he was secretary and treasurer of the East Harrisburg Cemetery company. He was one of the organizers of the Merchants' bank of Harrisburg and was a director until his death. He was also a director in the Central Trust company. He was a leading stockholder in several other Harrisburg banks and was interested in many business concerns.

Mr. Reemie had been confined to his bed since January. His two daughters were with him at his death. Mr. Reemie was one of the oldest members of the United Brethren church.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Charles Applefan, of Washington, D. C.; and Mrs. William Behrman, of Natick, Ill. One granddaughter, Katherine Appleman, and a brother, T. O. Reemie, of Watsuka, Ill., also survive. Funeral services will be held from the home and will be in charge of the Rev. H. M. Miller, pastor of the United Brethren church. Burial will be made in the East Harrisburg Cemetery. No time for the funeral services has been decided on as yet.

RED ROSE RENTAL FOR MANHEIM CHURCH

Miss Anna L. Boyer, of Harrisburg, Receives Flower as Heir of Henry William Stiegel

Special to The Telegraph
 Columbia, Pa., June 15.—Yesterday the beautiful poetic ceremony commemorating the payment of church rental with one red rose was again observed in the Zion Lutheran church at Manheim.

This church has acquired unique distinction by reason of the peculiar manner in which the ground upon which the present structure stands was deeded to the congregation by Henry William Stiegel, a German ironmaster, who founded the town in which it is located and who was one of Pennsylvania's foremost manufacturers before and during the time of the Revolutionary War.

When he deeded the ground to the congregation the consideration was five shillings and the annual payment of one red rose in the month of June when legally demanded. Only twice during his lifetime did Stiegel demand and receive this rental, and the stipulation in the document was lost sight of until twenty-three years ago, when Dr. J. H. Sieling, of York, then a resident of the borough and member of the church, discovered the ancient deed among the archives of the church and instituted the ceremony of annually paying to a Stiegel heir the red rose.

This event became an annual affair and on account of its historic interest and the beautiful ceremony connected with the payment has attracted thousands of enthusiastic spectators to the church, discovered the ancient deed presented to an heir of Stiegel, and this year the recipient was Miss Anna L. Boyer, of Harrisburg, a lineal descendant of the illustrious German.

The present ceremony was held on Sunday was made by W. U. Hensel, and after being received by the heir, the response on her behalf was made by ex-Congressman D. F. Philadelphia. A solo was rendered by Mrs. H. L. Link, of York, and a reading entitled, "The Wild Red Rose," was given by Miss Minnie Ritters, of Newark, N. J.

FARMERS ARE MAKING STATE ROAD REPAIRS

Contribute Funds For Putting Cumberland County Highway in Passable Condition

Special to The Telegraph
 Carlisle, Pa., June 15.—An example of what the farmers of this section have had to contend with by the holdup of the State road funds by Auditor General Powell is given on the road leading through New Kingstown, the principal roadway between Carlisle and Harrisburg.

When road work was stopped last year when the funds of the department were exhausted repair work had just begun in this section, but lack of money caused it to be discontinued entirely. With the Spring rains and the heavy storms of the past few weeks it had become well nigh impassable, through the efforts of George A. Albright, highway supervisor for this district, it is now being repaired.

By personal solicitation among the farmers of the neighborhood he secured the promise of sufficient funds and help, given voluntarily to put the road in good condition, and yesterday work was begun on repair.

To Look and Feel Bright in Hot Weather

This is the season when she who would have a lily-white complexion should turn her thoughts to mercolized wax, the firm friend of the summer girl. Nothing so effectively overcomes the soiling effects of sun, wind, dust and dirt. The wax literally absorbs the scorched, discolored, frocked, withered or crumpled cuticle, bringing forth a brand new skin, clear, soft and girlishly beautiful. It also unclogs the pores, removing blackheads and increasing the skin's breathing capacity. An ounce of mercolized wax, obtainable at any drug store, applied nightly like cold cream, and washed off mornings, will gradually improve the worst complexion.

When depressed by the heat and you want to freshen up for the afternoon by evening, bathe in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of powdered exalote in a half pint witch hazel. You'll find this more refreshing than an hour's rest. It is fine for smoothing out wrinkles, even the deeper ones.

WHAT NEURASTHENIA IS

Neurasthenia is a condition of exhaustion of the nervous system. The causes are varied. Continuous work, mental or physical, without proper vacation periods, without proper attention to diet and exercise, also worry over the struggle for success, are the most common causes. Excesses of almost any kind may produce it. Some diseases, like the grip, are a cause of neurasthenia. So also will a severe shock, intense anxiety or grief.

The symptoms are over-sensitiveness, irritability, a disposition to worry over trifles, headache, possibly nausea.

The treatment is one of nutrition of the nerve cells, requiring a non-alcoholic tonic. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed toward building up the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and with proper regulation of the diet have proved of the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia. A tendency to anaemia, or bloodlessness, shown by most neurasthenia patients, is also corrected by these tonic pills. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat" will be sent free by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., if you mention this paper.—Advertisement.
