

Central Pennsylvania News

PASTOR HAS BEEN MINISTER 50 YEARS

The Rev. J. J. Kerr and His Wife Are Guests at Delightful Entertainment

Special to The Telegraph
Newville, Pa., June 18.—St. Paul's Lutheran Church congregation of this place gave a very delightful reception recently in honor of their pastor, the Rev. J. J. Kerr, and Mrs. Kerr, who has been pastor of this church for twenty years and has been in the ministry fifty years. The Rev. Mr. Kerr will retire July 1 and with Mrs. Kerr will reside in the Snyder property in Chestnut street. The following program was given in the main auditorium of the church:

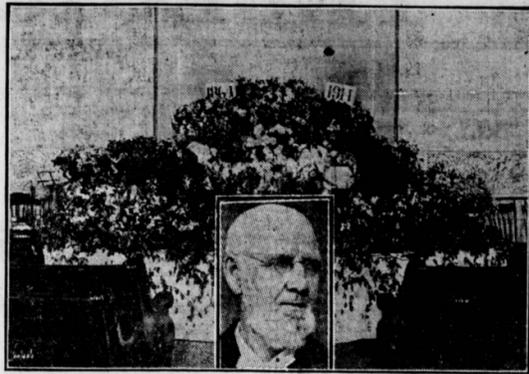

Anthem, choir; prayer, the Rev. G. W. Laufer, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church; greeting to Pastor Kerr and people by the president of the church council, St. Elmo Getter; vocal solo, Ralph H. Lehman; address, the Rev. G. M. Reed, of Newville; address, with greetings from the Cumberland Valley Lutheran conference, the Rev. E. D. Weigle, D. D., of Camp Hill; greetings from the Ministerial Association of Newville by the Rev. F. T. Wheeler, pastor of Big Spring Presbyterian Church; duet, J. W. Strohm and R. H. Lehman. Following this J. S. Hureh, treasurer of the church council, presented the Rev. Mr. Kerr with a purse, a gift from his congregation. Mr. Kerr responded in a most pleasing manner, thanking his people and assuring them of his heartfelt appreciation of all their kindnesses. Benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Thomas.

After the program a delightful social time was spent in the Sunday school room, where elaborate refreshments were served.

The Rev. J. J. Kerr was ordained to the Gospel ministry at Rebersburg, Pa., in 1864 by the Central Pennsylvania Synod, while he was home on a furlough after having enlisted in the army from Canton, Ohio. Mr. Kerr wore part of his uniform at the ordination service. At that early date he was engaged as a Bible reader and preacher to the soldiers, and a supply pastor in places near Canton, Ohio. He took charge of a mission at Millerstown, Pa., after being mustered out of the service of the army. Here he was married to Miss Kate Smith, of Newport, Pa., and then removed to Huntingdon, Pa., where he was a pastor. He next went to Myersville, Frederick county, Md.; thence to Duncannon, Pa.; next to Wilmore, Pa.; then to Altoona, where he was pastor of the First Lutheran Church. Altoona he organized three missions, building two churches and the ground broken for the third church, when he received a call to Brookville, Pa., coming to St. Paul's, at Newville, in 1894. When Mr. Kerr came to St. Paul's the congregation was worshipping in the hall building. Mr. Kerr succeeded in having a beautiful church erected, which will stand as a living memorial to him.

In the fifty years he has been in the active ministry, never having to retire owing to ill health. He is an earnest advocate of temperance and is a fearless speaker. He is also a loyal patriot, a Christian gentleman in every way.

Reception to Minister at Newville Church

John H. Miller, 84 Years Old, Dies at Penbrook

Special to The Telegraph
Penbrook, Pa., June 18.—After a lingering illness of more than a year John H. Miller, 84 years old, a former prominent resident and Republican office holder of Hopeland, died at the home of his son, the Rev. H. M. Miller, in Main street, with whom he has resided for the past year. Mr. Miller had been confined to his bed since early in January.

Mr. Miller was born in Scotdale in 1830. After living in that town for six years his parents moved to Hopeland, where he was a resident for more than seventy years. During that time he was a leading business man and held several offices under the Republican administration.

He is survived by two sons and two daughters, several grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Funeral services will be held Friday morning at the parsonage of the United Brethren Church in Main street. The Rev. Thomas Darling, a retired United Brethren minister, will have charge of the services. Following these services the body will be taken to Hopeland, where services will be held Saturday morning at 9.30 o'clock. Burial will be made in the Hopeland Cemetery.

Thousands Attend Penbrook Picnic at Hershey Park

Special to The Telegraph
Penbrook, Pa., June 18.—To-day the annual union picnic of the churches of this town and Progress was held at Hershey Park with more than two thousand in attendance. Two special trains being necessary to carry the picnickers to the park, the first train leaving shortly after 8 o'clock.

On their arrival a committee from the Hershey chocolate mills took the picnickers through the mills. Following this a baseball game, the feature attraction of the way, was played between the married and single men for the championship of the town. Both sides had hosts of rooters.

After the baseball game athletic events were held. There were wheelbarrow races, potato races, spoon races, a one hundred yard dash for young men, a one hundred yard dash for married men, two hundred and twenty yard dash, a four hundred and forty yard dash, a women's race, high jump, broad jump and relay races.

One of the features of the picnic was a great table at which hundreds ate together. In the afternoon the Penbrook Band gave a concert. Tonight a second one will be held.

SMITH-RIGHTER WEDDING

Special to The Telegraph
Duncannon, Pa., June 18.—Miss Deilah Righter, one of the borough's popular school teachers, and E. Chelis Smith, proprietor of Smiths Pharmacy, of this place, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Righter, in South Market street, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. L. Rice, pastor of the Lutheran Church. The young couple left on a several days' bridal tour after which they will take up their residence here.

MINISTER LOSES POCKETBOOK

Sunbury, Pa., June 18.—While en route from Allentown, Pa., to White Deer, Pa., the Rev. George Dane, a retired United Brethren minister of the gospel, lost his pocketbook, containing $45 in bills. At Sunbury members of this denomination helped him to his destination. No trace of the missing money has been found, and it is believed his pocket was picked.

FUNERAL OF MINISTER

Special to The Telegraph
Marietta, Pa., June 18.—The funeral of the Rev. John M. Johnson from the Bethel church this afternoon was one of the largest in years. The Rev. I. H. West, pastor, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Shelley, Lancaster; the Rev. W. T. Brown, York, and the Rev. Mr. Bell, Lancaster; the Past Masters' Council of Odd Fellows had charge of the burial service.

BOY FALLS FROM CHERRY TREE

Special to The Telegraph
Sunbury, Pa., June 18.—Falling from a cherry tree when a limb broke here yesterday, Ira Smith, 11 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith, was picked up unconscious. A doctor found that he was suffering of a lacerated scalp, concussion of the brain, and a broken arm. To-day it was said that he will recover. The mother was in Harrisburg at the time of the accident.

WEST SHORE NEWS

Work of C. E. Convention at New Cumberland Church

New Cumberland, Pa., June 18.—Yesterday the morning and afternoon sessions of the Christian Endeavor convention in Trinity United Brethren Church were well attended. At the morning session the Rev. P. E. Holdcraft, of Walkersville, Md., gave a talk on "Rural Endeavor Work." The Rev. J. S. Glen, of Fayette, Pa., spoke on "Where We Fall in Our Endeavor Work." Some things which should encourage us" was discussed by Mr. Stanley Appenzeller, of Chambersburg, Pa.; "Question Box," the Rev. Gordon I. Rider.

At the afternoon session a report of missionary superintendent was read by the Rev. A. A. Long. An address on "Foreign Missions" was made by the M. R. Fleming, of Baltimore, Md., and on "Home Missions," by the Rev. J. E. Klettman.

The address of the evening was by Bishop W. H. Weakly on "The Young Man." The bishop spoke of the importance of saving young men, as the future will depend on them to do the work of to-morrow in every vocation of life. He said the supreme motive in Christianity was to help the other fellow and not only to preach and pray but vote right.

ARM BROKEN BY FALL

New Cumberland, Pa., June 18.—Alfred Zamberger fell at the corner of Second and Bridge streets, and broke his left arm and hurt his leg badly.

WILL ADDRESS Y. M. C. A.

Enola, Pa., June 18.—On Friday evening the Rev. S. D. Biblack, of West Fairview, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, will address the gospel service at the Enola Y. M. C. A. Special music and illustrated hymns will be used.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS

Enola, Pa., June 18.—Real estate transfers have been made at Enola during the past few days as follows: J. E. Quigley property to F. W. Rambo, consideration $2,200; S. J. Cadwalader and wife, property in Columbia road to C. Mellinger, consideration private; Sarah L. McAdie, lot to J. W. Boldoser, consideration $450.

FIRE COMPANY FESTIVAL

Enola, Pa., June 18.—A meeting of the ladies of Enola was held at the home of Edward N. Bachman, in Altoona avenue on Wednesday evening when all arrangements were completed for the ice cream festival to be given by the Enola fire company on Friday and Saturday, June 26 and 27.

TWILIGHT BALL GAME

Enola, Pa., June 18.—A twilight baseball game will be played on the athletic field of the Enola P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. on Friday evening between the Y. M. C. A. and the Enola Athletic Club. The Enola P. R. R. Y. M. C. A. baseball team is without a game for Saturday afternoon and would like to hear from some strong amateur team for the game. Address Roy S. Diller, Enola, Pa.

WILL SELL PROPERTY

Sunbury, Pa., June 18.—W. R. Rhoads and H. T. McNeal, Sunbury, receivers for the Barber Car Company, a concern organized to manufacture a gasoline-propelled street car, but which failed, have announced that they will sell the property, located at Rolling Green. Sunbury investors have $75,000 tied up in the venture, and will lose practically all of it.

SHORB SHOE CO.

Closing Out Sale

Our lease has been disposed of and the entire stock of Shorb Shoes, as well as thousands of pairs from our YORK STORE MUST BE CLOSED OUT within the next few weeks.

In order to dispose of them quickly we have made a sweeping reduction on all lines of shoes.

Just received from the York Store a big shipment of Men's Stetson and Dr. Reed's Shoes.

Regular price $5.50 and $6.00 which will sell at

$3.85 a Pair

The B. A. Shorb Shoe Co.

Third and Market Streets

Pleasant Days Being Spent at Stoverdale

Special to The Telegraph
Stoverdale, Pa., June 18.—Miss Shirk, of Harrisburg, is the guest of Mrs. Samuel Fackler, at Hickory Lodge.

Misses Jane Rothe, Caroline Sparrow, Marie Delone, Mary Bingham, Rebecca Shoemaker and Irene Burns are spending sometime at Pine Lodge.

Mrs. Samuel Fackler and children spent Wednesday at her Harrisburg home.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Kitzmiller and children, Frank and Janet, are at their summer cottage here.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. German, Jr., are occupying their cottage, Sunny-side.

Mrs. C. Bodmer and daughter, Elizabeth Bodmer, made a short trip to Harrisburg yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Engle and children, Claude, Jr., and Sara Engle, and

Mrs. Emma Engle and daughter, Dorothy Engle, are spending a week at Clyrest cottage.

Miss Hazel Johnston and Paul Johnston, of 1238 Derry street, are spending a week at the Johnston cottage.

Edwin Lukens, of Macungie, was the recent guest of his daughter, Mrs. Scott Shern.

The Rev. Scott R. Wagner and Richard Wagner are at their cottage.

Paul Yowler was a recent guest at the Sylva cottage.

Mrs. Scott Shern and son Carl are enjoying a week at their city home.

Miss Mary Craig made a short business trip to Harrisburg yesterday.

Mrs. L. C. Graffins and Mr. and Mrs. Marion Sourbeer, Sr., are at the Chelsea cottage.

Charles Zerfoss, of Hummelstown, made a short trip to the grove yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dreher and son William, Jr., are spending two weeks in the grove.

Miss Edith Lewis will spend several days in Harrisburg. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Johnson have opened their cottage for the season.

NEW BILL AT THE COLONIAL

Music and comedy are sparing for places of honor on the bill that opens at the Colonial to-day to fill out the balance of the week. The music will be furnished by Emmet and Emmet, a man and woman who will give some good old Irish songs in a pretty skit entitled "On the Banks of Killarney." The laughs will come from the efforts of Frank Mayne's players, a company of three, who will put on a comedy sketch entitled "Pretzels." The third act on the bill is a silent one, but nevertheless pleasing. It is an exhibition of shadowgraphy by Frazer. The Colonial bills lately have shown marked improvement, and so has the attendance. All next week the Colonial will present that delightfully pleasing posing act, "La Grottozza." —Advertisement.

"THE CANDY KID"

Here I Am!

5c

Just Arrived!

You'll like me—everybody does—particularly the youngsters. I'm a happy tickle-the-palate confection—select Popcorn and Peanuts coated with a rich combination covering of New Orleans Molasses and sweetest Creamery Butter. Sounds good—is as good as it sounds.

You'll find me at almost all up-to-date dealers where candies and confections are sold. I'm going to be in great demand. Note the box that I come in—along with a little surprise prize—one in every package. I'll always be good—fresh, crisp—in an air-tight package.

FREE!

FREE!

With 25 "Candy Kid" Coupons—One in Each Package

Knives for the Boys

With 25 "Candy Kid" Coupons—One in Each Package

A pocket knife that any boy will be mighty proud to own—a solid nickel handle with two blades of imported German steel—a knife that will stand real strenuous usage. You'll find a knife coupon in every package.

Buy Candy Kid yourself and get your friends to buy it and give you their coupons. You'll be surprised in how short a time you can get twenty-five coupons—and with them one of these "Candy Kid" Pocket Knives.

"The Candy Kid" Is Made RIGHT in Johnstown

By the F. S. LOVE MANUFACTURING COMPANY, Confectioners