RETAIL HOUSES AND CLAFLIN COMPANY

shall be allowed to borrow to continue the business. At this meeting a committee of creditors may be selected to co-operate with the receivers.

Causes for the failure as given by Mr. Claflin appear to-day to coincide with the views expressed by leading dry goods merchants, jobbers and commission men.

Depression in the trade conditions of the city, due to specialization in lines, and the growing tendency of manufacturers to sell direct to retail-ers, injured the Claflin Company, which did a general jobbing business. These conditions, Mr. Claflin explained, caused his company to look for profits through the ownership or control of retail stores, resulting in extensive financing. So extensive had this financing become that it had reached a point where maturities amounted to about $5,000,000 each week. Recently, it is said, country banks began restricting their purchase of Claflin and other commercial paper and the company found difficulty in taking care of these maturities.

THIS HOT WEATHER AND YOUR VACATION IN SIGHT MAKE OUR PURCHASE OF 800 THIN SUMMER DRESSES TIMELY. The lot has been divided between our three stores. About ONE-HALF PRICE is the story. After hunting Philadelphia and New York for two days—for the new kind—by accident we dropped on to this lot the third day. The dresses just arrived—so did we. To get this announcement to the printers we cannot go into detail.

Sale Begins To-morrow, Saturday Morning, at 9 O'clock

Don't wait for detail—come at once and buy two or three dresses. Sale dresses will have Special Sale Red Tickets to avoid confusion with the regular stock. The dresses are the better kind—stylish and well made—cut over a pattern with lines—not a guess. When you see them you can tell at a glance that they are the last word of fashion. Manufacturers are working on their Fall lines and winding up their Summer business by cutting up their piece goods into late models—but few are ready to cut prices. Choice materials are scarce. We consider ourselves fortunate—so will you. Price Range—$3.75 to $10.00. Values $7.50 to $20.00. EXTRAORDINARY SPECIAL — 25 Silk Panniers to wear over any kind of a thin dress, have sold for $5.50 and $7.50, to-morrow at 9 o'clock $1.50

EIGHTY BABIES WILL "ANSWER" PRESENT

The Goo-Goo Signal Will Be the Reply at Augsburg Lutheran Sunday School's "Baby Day"

Father had his day, Mother had her day, and now on Sunday next will be Baby Day at the Augsburg Lutheran Church, when the annual exercises of the cradle roll department of the Sunday school will be held. A special program will be given at the morning service, consisting of an anthem by the choir, a tableau, "Rock of Ages," by Miss Lusk, Miss Dehart and Miss Geisinger and an address by the Rev. A. M. Stamets. This will be followed by the calling of the roll by the superintendent, Mrs. C. L. Zimmerman, when the eighty-eight babies will answer "present,"—or as near it as possible, all of the members being under 3 years of age.

Baby Day is the time of the year when the babies make their Easter offering. This year they have been saving their pennies in little blue and pink bags and the collection is expected to total $100. Dainty souvenir forks will be given each baby.

Baby Day has been celebrated for the past nine years at Augsburg and the honorary members of other years, now grown into boys and girls, number hundreds. One of these is the child of a missionary in Africa, while other members now reside in many States of the Union.

C. E. Reilly—Christian Endeavorers sang with enthusiasm when illustrated songs were displayed at the song service of the C. E. rally held last evening under the auspices of the Harrisburg C. E. Union in the Church of God, Penbrook. Illustrated songs, entitled "My Country," "The of Thee" and "Pennsylvania," were among the popular selections rendered. The male quartet, composed of F. E. Crist, Samuel Fackler, W. Witman and G. L. Ebnsole, rendered several selections entitled "The Fight is On" and "Nearer, Still Nearer." The Rev. M. S. Sharpe, pastor of the Lutheran Church, Enola, spoke on "The C. E. Place in the Church," and an interesting paper by the Rev. H. B. King, pastor of Paxton Presbyterian Church, was read by J. Frank Palmer. The Harrisburg C. E. Choral Union, accompanied by Miss Emma Lorenz on the piano, led the musical selections. Prayers were offered by the Rev. J. M. Waggoner, pastor of Main Street Church of God, Steelton, and the Rev. C. H. Grove, pastor of Green Street Church of God, this city.

Early Morning Fire Fire in a chimney at 1342 North Seventh street, caused more excitement than damage at an early hour to-day. An alarm was sent in from Box 47, Seventh and Yerkke streets. The firemen were not needed.

Society Girl Gives Up Luxuries to Brave Wilds

Boston, Mass., June 26.—Miss Rosamond Bradley, daughter of Robert Stow Bradley, well-known Boston millionaire, has given up her life of luxury to accompany Dr. Grefell in his mission at St. Anthony's, a few miles across the Strait of Labrador. She will take up the work as a nurse among the fisherfolk of the settlement, paying particular attention to orthopedics—the righting of deformities of children especially. She is an expert in this work. Miss Bradley has already sailed for the mission.

Fighting Disease Germs

There is a popular idea that most sickness is caused by a germ of the footstep finding entrance to our bodies through the food we eat, the water of milk we drink or the air we breathe. This is true as far as it goes, but it is also true that disease germs are entering our bodies every day without causing disease.

The reason for this is that there are forces within the body that are constantly fighting these disease germs and it is only when this defense is weakened that the germs get the upper hand and we become ill. One of the most powerful of these forces that work for health is rich red blood. Good, healthy blood increases the resistance of the body to the diseases that are always threatening. It is easier to keep up this resistance by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, eating proper food, avoiding articles of food that do not agree with us and getting plenty of fresh air and night, than it is to cure disease after it gets a foothold. Keep up the resistance of your body to disease by these tonic pills, which you can get at any drug store, and you will avoid much sickness.

Two booklets, "Building Up the Blood" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.—Advertisement.
