

PERSONAL SOCIAL

BRIDE'S GRANDFATHER PERFORMS CEREMONY

Wedding of Miss Ruth Creep and William R. Julius in Church Today

The marriage of Miss Ruth Anna Creep, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Creep, to William Robinson Julius took place this morning at 11:30 o'clock in the Derry Street United Brethren Church in the presence of a large number of friends of the young couple. Pink rambler roses and smilax in profusion formed the pulpit decorations. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. R. Hutchinson, the bride's grandfather, assisted by the Rev. J. A. Lyter, pastor of the church. Mrs. John Henry, who gave a recital prior to the service, played the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" as a processional and the Mendelssohn wedding march as a recessional for the bridal party.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a charming toilette of white crepe meteor with garnitures of chintilly lace. Her soft tulle veil was arranged cap fashion with orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of bride roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Ethel Goddard Bratton, wore pink taffeta with draperies of white tulle and carried white sweet peas with a shower of pink sweet peas. Miss Aline Steffy, of Baltimore, and Miss Sue Williamson, of this city, the bridesmaids, wore dainty frocks of white voile with touches of pink and carried nosegays of pink sweet peas. The best man was Joseph D. Smith, and the ushers were Clyde Brandt and the bride's brother, Chester Creep, of Bethlehem. A wedding breakfast was served at the Creep home, 59 North Eighteenth street, by Rutherford. The appointments were of pink with rambler and Lady Gay roses prevailing in the flowers.

The Northern wedding journey will include a summer's stay at Portsmouth, N. H. The bride, for whom many prenuptial social events were given, is a graduate of the Central High School, class of 1910, and has a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Julius is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Julius, of this city. He was graduated with the class of 1907, Central High School, and afterward from the Technical School at Lynn, Mass. He is connected with the United States Coast Survey and recently returned from a prolonged stay in Cuba.

Miss Anna MacGowan, of Chambersburg, was a recent guest of Mrs. Robert H. Moffit at her country place near Hogestown.

Mrs. Harry Calvert left for her home at Altoona to-day after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Harper, at 351 South Eighteenth street.

Mrs. Frank A. Gibson, of North Second street, has returned to the city after a pleasant stay at Drexel, Pa.

Kaufman Store's Clean Sweep Sale Next Tuesday

Announcement is made in the paper to-day regarding a merchandising event which is always awaited with much interest by the public in and about Harrisburg. It is the semi-annual Clean Sweep Sale of the Kaufman Underselling Stores. The sale will begin on Tuesday next at 8:15 o'clock in the morning and continue throughout the month of July. The purpose of the sale is to effect a complete clearance of all summer merchandise remaining in stock and special prices are placed thereon to accomplish the end in view quickly and effectively.

In order that stocks may be rearranged and remarked and put on display for the convenient inspection of the public when the doors are thrown open Tuesday morning the store will be closed all day Monday and the force of clerks will devote their time on that day to this preparatory work for the big event.

Every line of merchandise carried by the Kaufman Underselling Stores will be included in the Clean Sweep Sale. Full particulars regarding prices and description of merchandise will be published in this paper Monday. The broom, a characteristic feature of these semi-annual sales, will also be featured in this event.

There Is Nothing Like a Trip to "Yellowstone Park"

I know of no other vacation spot in all the world that is in any way similar to Yellowstone. It is entirely different and offers to the vacation seekers, weary of the sameness--in ocean or land travel, or the monotony of the seashore or mountains--a distinctive outing that is unrivaled. Imagine the fascination of a six day stage tour of this great National Park stopping daily at picturesque and well kept hostleries. Think of geysers, throwing out boiling water, waterfalls of immense heights--deep, chasms with beautifully colored sides.

Then to make the trip doubly enjoyable, my road--The Burlington (C. B. & Q. R. R.) provides a special conductor every week who acts as guide and points out everything of interest and who looks after the comfort of our traveling guests.

Let me send you a copy of our booklet showing maps, pictures and descriptions of Yellowstone Park, and the Mississippi Valley that you pass through en route. I will also gladly help you plan your trip and take care of the details--no obligation on your part because it's my duty. I am paid for it. Wm. Austin, general agent passenger Depts., C. B. & Q. R. Co., 826 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.
