PINCHOT IN BAD REPUTE WITH T. R.

Fight Over Perkins May Eliminate Senatorial Candidate as Factor in Penna.

Washington, D. C., June 27. — That Gifford Pinchot, Progressive Senatorial candidate in Pennsylvania, has earned the resentment of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt by joining in the attack of his brother, Amos, on George Perkins, executive head and principal financier of the movement, was the statement made here to-day by Progressive members of Congress, who fear that the Pennsylvania Senatorial candidate has lost all chance of obtaining Roosevelt's wholehearted support in the November campaign.

Colonel Roosevelt, it is said, is deeply disappointed over Gifford Pinchot's attack on Perkins, whom Colonel Roosevelt describes "as the most useful member of the Progressive Party." Roosevelt is said to take the position that his Senatorial candidate should have consulted him in the Perkins matter before he sailed for Spain. He realizes, his Progressive friends say, that the Pinchot family has created an embarrassing situation which he will be compelled to face in Pittsburgh next Tuesday.

Progressives in Congress differ in the Pinchot matter, but all are hopeful that it will not be brought before the Pittsburgh conference. If the fight is averted they will rally to the support of the Colonel and Perkins. This will be equal to a repudiation of the Pinchot candidacy and will virtually eliminate the candidate as a serious contender for the Senatorship.

Governor's Troop to Go on Two-Day Practice March

A novelty in military practice so far as the local guardsmen are concerned will be put into effect after the parade on July Fourth, when Captain George C. Jack will lead the Governor's Troop on a two days' practice march.

Fully equipped for service, but carrying neither rations nor forage, the troop will proceed into a part of the country that will not be divulged until just before the order for marching. While the practice hike is not compulsory, most of the men will be in on the hike.

SUCCESSFUL BIBLE CLASS

Special to The Telegraph
Swatara Station, Pa., June 27.—On Thursday the Men's Perseverance Adult Bible class of the Lutheran and Reformed churches at Union Deposit held its quarterly meeting at the home of H. P. Peiffer, the treasurer. The class enjoys success, educationally and financially, through their teacher, John M. Baker. By an address by George H. Seiler several Sundays ago, still greater enthusiasm has been awakened and it was followed by another address at this meeting by the Rev. A. C. Forsht, which should be published all over the world.

AT PAXTANG
The Perry Minstrels will close their second successful engagement at Paxtang Park this evening. Few girls have pleased as well as this one, and the reason is not hard to guess. The girls are pretty, the music good and the comedy equal to that of any male minstrel organization that has ever played the town.

The four other acts on the bill are above the average and round out a bill that has proved a winner.

POSTMASTER UNDER ARREST

Special to The Telegraph
Chambersburg, Pa., June 27.—J. Frank Raifsnnyder, postmaster at Orrtown, was arrested by Post Office Inspector A. B. Crawford and Deputy J. A. Snyder, charged with the embezzlement of government funds. On May 27 Inspector Crawford found that Raifsnnyder was short $49.57 in his money order funds and $18.95 in the postal account. The amount was demanded by the inspector, but Mr. Raifsnnyder failed to pay it. Later he forwarded the amount to the department at Washington.

Business Locals

NO GUESSWORK
In the making of Holsum and Butter-nut bread. Every loaf is always the same—never burnt, never sour, always that palatable and nutritive flavor which distinguishes Schmidt's Butter-nut and Holsum from the ordinary baker's bread. Made scientifically in surroundings especially sanitary. For sale at all good grocers.

THE TWO-DOLLAR MAN
Who is accustomed to paying that price for theater tickets has become a regular patron of the motion picture theaters. This was all that was necessary to convince the great theatrical managers and playwrights that the picture show is here to stay. The productions of leading writers and actors may now be seen, first always, at the Victoria.
