QUOTATIONS RECEDE AFTER FIRST RUSH

Gains in Various Industrial Securities Attract Little Attention; Bonds Irregular

By Associated Press. New York, July 1.—Quotations again receded after the first rush of short covering, that movement constituting a large part of the first hour's activity. The market then drifted idly with business at low ebb. Expiration of the bond conversion privilege accounted for the comparative strength of Brooklyn Transit, but such changes as were recorded elsewhere had no especial significance. Bonds were irregular, Rock Island collaterals ruling firm in the face of unfavorable May earnings.

Gifford Pawns Gun Used to Murder Clute

By Associated Press. Albany, N. Y., July 1.—Efforts of District Attorney Alexander were centered to-day at the trial of Malcolm Gifford, Jr., on proving that a revolver similar to the one with which Frank J. Clute was killed, was pawned by Gifford in Northampton, Mass., last winter. The revolver was offered in evidence and was in plain view of the jury throughout the morning. Warren T. Risley, a pawnbroker of Northampton, testified that he had loaned $7 on a revolver and issued a ticket to a person who signed it "M. Gifford." William J. Kinsley, a handwriting expert, testified that the person who signed the pawn ticket and the one whose signatures appeared on a check of baggage receipt signed by Kifford were the same.
