

Witmer, Bair & Witmer | Witmer, Bair & Witmer

Friday--Half Holiday--Store Closes at Noon
Week End Specials

Summer Dresses--Lined, striped and flowered voiles and clever combination effects--bought at 50 cents on the dollar to sell at 50 cents on the dollar--values $7.50 to $23.00; special prices $3.75 to $11.50

Witmer, Bair & Witmer Annex
Just arrived--another lot of those long tunic-ratine skirts; special $1.25

Witmer, Bair & Witmer
MAIN STORE 202 WALNUT STREET W. B. & W. ANNEX 311 WALNUT STREET

MISS FOUNTAIN'S BIRTHDAY

Miss Mary E. Fountain, of 615 Curtin street, had a little party last evening in celebration of her birthday.

ENTERTAINING MISS DOYLE

Miss Hughetta Doyle, of Philadelphia, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. N. George Peters, at 422 Hamilton street, is being much entertained during her stay.

Mrs. E. D. Houser went to Asbury Park to-day to remain for several weeks.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR GROWTHS NO LONGER NECESSARY

The keen mental suffering of women troubled with unsightly hair growths is totally unnecessary. Such growths can be removed instantly and harmlessly, without the slightest fear that the hair will grow more heavily than before.

IN MISS PETERSON'S HONOR

Miss Hulda Rice, of 2388 Ellerslie street, gave a card party in honor of her house guest, Miss Elma Peterson, of Philadelphia.

MISS McNIFF AT COLUMBIA

Miss Katharine McNiff, of the Central High School faculty, who specializes in Latin, is spending part of the summer vacation at Columbia University, N. Y.

Mrs. Arthur A. Herr and Miss Elizabeth Herr at their home, 115 Rely street, after a pleasant visit in Lancaster.

Mrs. Christian G. Nissley, of 222 Hamilton street, is a guest of Mrs. Martin L. Golden at her cottage, Mount Gretna.

Mrs. James L. Grimes, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Urban, 438 Derry street, has returned to her home at Driftwood, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dorrance and small son, Paul Dorrance, left this morning for their home at Youngstown, Ohio, after spending two weeks among old friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Bierbower and family are moving to-day from this city to their new bungalow near Dauphin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Rogers, of 128 Walnut street, are enjoying an automobile trip to their former home at Corry.

Miss Grace McClintock is home after a pleasant visit in Chicago and other cities of the West.

Mrs. Howard J. Arnold and small daughter, Harriet Arnold, have gone to Atlantic City for the remainder of the month.

Mrs. Clarence E. Titsworth, of 1915 North Front street, is spending the months of July and August at Mont-Rose.

Miss Ruth Alleman, of Summit, N. J., is a guest of Miss Isabel Dunkle at Nineteenth and Derry streets.

Miss Lucia Henderson left for her home at Green Bay Park this morning after a short stay with her cousin, Miss Jane Watson, of North Third street.

Mrs. Henry Cunningham and children, Elizabeth and James Cunningham, are visiting Mrs. Charles F. Poltz, at 131 Evergreen street.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stroock and sons, William and Timothy Stroock, have gone home to Philadelphia after a visit with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George Fay Stroock, of Market street.

Miss Ella LaRue Hart, of 807 North Second street, has returned home after a visit with Mrs. John Dick Halliday at Glencoe, Md.

Miss Anna Shannen, of Linden street, is home after visiting relatives in Shippensburg, Chambersburg and the country nearby.

Mrs. Marie Buyer, of Philadelphia, and Miss Ruth Leslie, of Palmyra, were recent guests at the Golden Rod cottage, Mount Gretna.

Mrs. Evelyn Jenkins, of Cameron Extension, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James L. Grimes, at Driftwood, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hargest and sons, Thomas and Milton Hargest, of Rely street, will spend the month of August at Asbury Park.

Mrs. Harry C. Sutton, of 1440 Market street, accompanied her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kleih, of Williamsport, home in their automobile.

Mrs. W. W. Stewart, of 1604 State street, is visiting at the home of her son, Ralph Stewart, at Jamesburg, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Wallower are home from Jericho, L. I., where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Henry W. Underhill.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

PICNIC AT HERSHEY FOR MOORHEAD CO.

First Annual Outing Tomorrow With Races and Various Contests

Employees of the Moorhead Knitting Company are anticipating a delightful time on their first annual outing tomorrow at Hershey Park.

Besides the usual pleasures of the park there will be races and contests for both men and women.

The Moorhead company delights to give social events from time to time for its employees and the arrangements for to-morrow are made as complete as possible for the pleasure and comfort of those who attend.

There will be a six-piece orchestra in attendance and dancing and a vaudeville performance in the evening.

FISHING IN CANADA

William M. Hain, the well-known lawyer, who has been spending some weeks with Mrs. Hain at Bobcaygeon in Canada, writes to a friend here that "the fishing is still very good."

Mrs. Patrick McNiff, of 605 North Second street, is home after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. John H. Dougherty, at Beaver, Pa.

Miss Elizabeth Allison and Miss Dorcas Allison, of 1926 North Third street, are spending several weeks at the Grand View, Wernersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Dorrance and small son, Paul Dorrance, left this morning for their home at Youngstown, Ohio, after spending two weeks among old friends in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Bierbower and family are moving to-day from this city to their new bungalow near Dauphin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence P. Rogers, of 128 Walnut street, are enjoying an automobile trip to their former home at Corry.

Miss Grace McClintock is home after a pleasant visit in Chicago and other cities of the West.

Mrs. Howard J. Arnold and small daughter, Harriet Arnold, have gone to Atlantic City for the remainder of the month.

Mrs. Clarence E. Titsworth, of 1915 North Front street, is spending the months of July and August at Mont-Rose.

Miss Ruth Alleman, of Summit, N. J., is a guest of Miss Isabel Dunkle at Nineteenth and Derry streets.

Miss Lucia Henderson left for her home at Green Bay Park this morning after a short stay with her cousin, Miss Jane Watson, of North Third street.

Mrs. Henry Cunningham and children, Elizabeth and James Cunningham, are visiting Mrs. Charles F. Poltz, at 131 Evergreen street.

Mr. and Mrs. David Stroock and sons, William and Timothy Stroock, have gone home to Philadelphia after a visit with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. George Fay Stroock, of Market street.

Miss Ella LaRue Hart, of 807 North Second street, has returned home after a visit with Mrs. John Dick Halliday at Glencoe, Md.

Miss Anna Shannen, of Linden street, is home after visiting relatives in Shippensburg, Chambersburg and the country nearby.

Mrs. Marie Buyer, of Philadelphia, and Miss Ruth Leslie, of Palmyra, were recent guests at the Golden Rod cottage, Mount Gretna.

Mrs. Evelyn Jenkins, of Cameron Extension, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. James L. Grimes, at Driftwood, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Hargest and sons, Thomas and Milton Hargest, of Rely street, will spend the month of August at Asbury Park.

Mrs. Harry C. Sutton, of 1440 Market street, accompanied her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kleih, of Williamsport, home in their automobile.

Mrs. W. W. Stewart, of 1604 State street, is visiting at the home of her son, Ralph Stewart, at Jamesburg, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Z. Wallower are home from Jericho, L. I., where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Henry W. Underhill.

HOME AFTER A JOURNEY THROUGH CHINA AND JAPAN

Miss Josephine Schwarz and Miss Maude Brady, of this city, have returned home after several months of foreign travel. They toured China and Japan as well as parts of Europe.

Andrew S. McCreath, who sails tomorrow from Philadelphia on the steamship Haverford, is taking his twenty-sixth voyage across the Atlantic. He will visit his former home in Scotland and return here in October.

LEAVE FOR SILVER BAY

Mrs. James Irvin Steele, of Mechanicsburg, and Miss McMillan, of Carlisle, left this morning for Silver Bay, Lake George, N. Y., to attend the mission study conference.

ACACIA CLUB DANCE

Members of the Acacia Club are arranging shirtwaist dance for Friday evening July 10, at Summerdale Park. Charles L. Shaffer, of Hamilton street, heads the committee in charge of the event.

W. C. T. U. OUTING TODAY

The annual outing of the Home for the Friendless given by the Harrisburg Women's Christian Temperance Union took place to-day.

Mrs. Sarah J. McCord, of 923 Burtin street, has come to Atlantic City to spend three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Annie Bach.

George R. Kinter, a Lehigh University student, is spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carroll Kinter, at 1408 State street.

Miss Sarah M. Jacobs, of the Seller School faculty, is visiting friends in Johnstown, this month.

Miss Grace Walton, of Wilkes-Barre, was a recent guest of Mrs. J. H. Hooper, 1622 Regina street.

Miss Sarah Mosser, of 2119 North Second street, is visiting at Atlantic City for the month.

TO ORGANIZE AUXILIARY

A ladies' auxiliary to the Ancient Order of Hibernians will be organized Wednesday evening, July 15, at Cathedral Hall. A social will follow the business meeting.

SUMMERING AT BEACH HAVEN

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Burns, Miss Marion Burns, Samuel Angus Burns and John Philip Burns, 212 State street, and Edward Kerper, 220 North Third street, are spending the summer at Beach Haven, N. J.

Mrs. Claire Giant Moebus and daughter Jean returned to Chicago yesterday after attending the funeral of Mrs. Moebus' mother, Mrs. J. H. Giant, at 530 Maclay street.

Miss Amy Ommerod, of New Jersey, is visiting Mrs. J. D. Cameron, 214 Briggs street.

Russell A. Hoke, 1809 North Second street, is spending two weeks with a house party at Schooley's Mountains, N. J.

HOME FROM WEDDING TRIP

Attorney H. B. Sausseman and his bride, who was formerly Miss Evelyn Knouse, have returned to this city after a wedding trip to the Great Lakes and Niagara Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. McCarrell, of Woodbine street, will spend part of the month of August at Asbury Park and will attend the organists' convention at Ocean Grove.

1,000 MUSIC ROLLS AT 10 CENTS EACH

All standard 65-note rolls. Come early for best selection. J. H. Troup Music House, 15 South Market Square. -Advertisement.

Veterans Object to Safe and Sane Fourth

Special to The Telegraph

Trenton, N. J., July 9.—City officials and citizens prominent in civic and patriotic organizations in this city today expressed amazement over the action of Aaron Wilkes Post, No. 23, Grand Army of the Republic, in adopting resolutions favoring a return to the old method of celebrating the Fourth of July.

Mr. Boak was employed with C. L. Bailey & Co., iron manufacturers, for twenty-five years, working last at the old "hot pot" mill, Herr street and Pennsylvania Railroad. In 1889 he was elected to Common Council and was re-elected in 1890. He was engaged in the livery business for four years. For the past five years he has

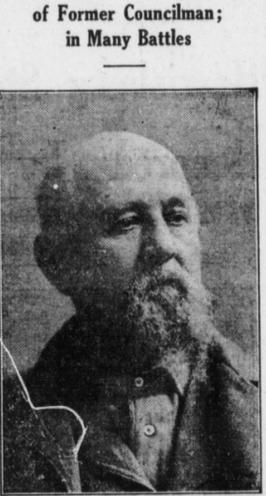

Nothing Over 25% Millinery Excepted Everything Under
Only Four and One-Half Hours To-morrow in Which to Do a Full Day's Business, Hence These Extraordinary Friday Morning Specials

- Men's 25c wash neckties; Friday price . . . 9¢
Men's 25c leather belts; Friday price . . . 10¢
50c blue and white enamel 14-quart dish pans; Friday price . . . 25¢
35c large size matting rugs; Friday price . . . 19¢
39c large size foot tubs; Friday price . . . 25¢
China and enamel ware, slightly damaged; Friday price, each . . . 2¢, 5¢ and 10¢
25c and 35c enamel coffee pots, "seconds"; Friday price . . . 10¢
25c fancy butters; Friday price, dozen . . . 3¢
25c ladies' handbags; Friday price . . . 9¢
25c black crush belts; Friday price . . . 10¢
12 1/2c children's fancy top socks; Friday price . . . 8¢
25c ivory manicure files, shoe buttoners, etc.; Friday price . . . 5¢
25c long chains; Friday price . . . 5¢
25c lavalieres; Friday price . . . 5¢
25c ruching and frilling; Friday price, yard . . . 10¢
50c children's rompers, plain and stripes; Friday price . . . 25¢
Children's 25c dresses; Friday price . . . 10¢
25c baby caps; Friday price . . . 9¢
12 1/2c and 17c ladies' and children's sunbonnets; Friday price . . . 9¢
25c corset covers, lace and embroidery trimmed; Friday price . . . 14¢
25c shadow flouncing, 18 inches wide; Friday price . . . 15¢
50c fancy brocaded ribbons, pink, blue and white; Friday price . . . 25¢
25c stamped workbags; Friday price . . . 10¢
25c cushion slips; Friday price . . . 8¢
25c large linen doilies; Friday price . . . 12 1/2¢
25c laundry bags; Friday price . . . 12 1/2¢
25c stamped corset covers; Friday price 10¢
25c box stationary, slightly soiled; Friday price . . . 10¢
25c ladies' wash skirts, plain and stripes; Friday price . . . 15¢
50c percale bungalow aprons; Friday price . . . 25¢
25c colored ratine, all colors; Friday price . . . 12 1/2¢
36-inch crepe plaids, 25c value; Friday price . . . 6¢
25c colored satin striped crepes and voiles; Friday price . . . 6 1/2¢
18c galatea cloth; Friday price . . . 9¢
10c lawns, black and white; Friday price . . . 2 1/2¢
37 1/2c white ratine, 36 inches wide; Friday price . . . 17¢
25c children's ready-made stamped dresses; Friday price . . . 15¢
25c ladies' stamped drawers; Friday price . . . 12 1/2¢

Phenomenal Lace and Embroidery Values in a Special Sale
We have just received some bright new laces and embroideries that represent the greatest values we have ever offered, and will enter them in a special sale beginning to-morrow.
High grade St. Gall embroideries, guaranteed fast edges, all this season's goods, 10c to 50c values
5¢, 7¢, 10¢, 15¢, 20¢ and 25¢
Macrame, venise and ratine bands in white and ecru, a beautiful assortment to select from, 25c to $1.50 values, at 12 1/2¢, 15¢ and 25¢ yd.; 25¢ half yd.

1c to 25c DEPARTMENT STORE
Where Every Day Is Bargain Day
215 MARKET STREET Opposite Courthouse

VETERANS CARRY BODY OF ABRAHAM BOAK
G. A. R. Members Attend Funeral of Former Councilman; in Many Battles

ABRAHAM BOAK Harrisburg Veteran who Died Suddenly on Monday

Funeral services for the late Abraham Boak, who died Monday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at his home, 122 Verbeke street. The Rev. C. H. Grove, pastor of Green Street Church of God, officiated. Burial was made in the Harrisburg Cemetery. The pallbearers were members of Post No. 116, Grand Army of the Republic. Abraham Boak was born in York, Pa., January 14, 1839. While attending school "Abe" Boak, as he was known, helped his father mix lime. When 21 years of age he came to Harrisburg and worked for Henry Hoffman, a trucker, on a farm along the river at what is now Riverside. When the Civil War broke out Boak enlisted in Company G, Fifty-fifth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, and served under the late Captain Isaac S. Waterbury and Colonel Richard White. He was in many engagements. On being discharged at Brantford C. C., December 31, 1863, Abraham Boak re-enlisted and served under Captain Levi A. Weaver, and, later, Captain George H. Miller. He was made a corporal and was subsequently detached and assigned to duty in Battery E, Third Regiment, United States Light Artillery, under command of Colonel Merrick. Later he returned to Company G, of the Fifty-fifth Regiment and was mustered out at the close of the war. Mr. Boak was employed with C. L. Bailey & Co., iron manufacturers, for twenty-five years, working last at the old "hot pot" mill, Herr street and Pennsylvania Railroad. In 1889 he was elected to Common Council and was re-elected in 1890. He was engaged in the livery business for four years. For the past five years he has been living a retired life. The survivors are a widow and eight children: Mrs. George L. Wingard, Mrs. William H. Kepple, Mrs. Minnie E. Boak, Mrs. George Seangler, Charles L. William A. and Robert N., of Harrisburg, and Harry E., of New Castle, Pa.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Clarence A. Lloyd, 35, of 222 Penn street, a Pennsylvania Railroad brakeman, died at the Harrisburg Hospital last night after an operation for intestinal obstruction. He is survived by a wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Lloyd, and two brothers, Samuel and Wynne, in York county. He was a member of No. 511, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, of Philadelphia, and of Chiquetalanga Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, of Columbia. The funeral will take place Saturday at 2 o'clock. Private burial will be made in the Paxtang Cemetery. The Rev. A. S. Williams, of Curtin Heights Methodist Episcopal Church, will officiate.