Excavating was begun yesterday for the new Electric Elevators which are to be installed within the next few weeks. This is but the beginning of many new improvements which the firm have in mind for the betterment of the store service.

The failure of the firm of H. B. Claffin & Company, of New York is the talk of the commercial world and the Receivers' Sale, Monday morning, July 13th, had only to be announced to attract buyers from all parts of the country. General "Shutdown" in Stove Plant Denied

Special to The Telegraph
Reading, Pa., July 16.—H. E. Campbell, of the Reading Stove Works, denies that there has been any general "shutdown" in his plant, as indicated in a recent news dispatch.
Mr. Campbell explains that following the general custom of the stove business for the month of July, some of the departments have been closed for the purpose of making necessary repairs preparatory to the rush season which takes place in the Fall.
Several departments of the Reading Stove Works are running, although the molding room is temporarily idle, for the reason set forth.

LOCAL PICTURES AT COLONIAL TODAY

"Where's My Cook?" is the title of a new motion picture comedy that will be presented at the Colonial for the remainder of the week. This picture was made in Harrisburg by a company of thirty-five players, and in the fifteen different scenes at least 250 Harrisburgers are seen so plainly that they can easily be recognized. This film is exceedingly funny from start to finish, and the scenes will at once make plain the fact that the picture was made right here at home. A new bill of vaudeville comes along to-day for the balance of the week. It is made up of three acts direct from the Keith Circuit.—Advertisement.
