It is understood that when the opportunity arises his majesty will throw his great influence toward the side looking for an amicable settlement.

May Exclude Tyrone The government is believed to have offered the Unionists, in case they agree to abandon their demand for a "clean cut" of the province of Ulster out of the operations of the Irish Home Rule bill, to arrange that the whole of Ulster, with the exception of the county of Tyrone, which has a great Catholic majority, should vote as a single entity on the question of exclusion from the Home Rule government. The Unionists demand that Tyrone should be included in this arrangement and this has been the cause of the deadlock.

IS THE ARMY WORM A SNOB? HE PASSES UP CITY PARK GRASS

Invader Prefers Exclusive Vegetation of Private Lawns, Don't You Know

HOPE HE REMAINS ARISTOCRAT City Officials Keeping Sharp Look-out For Onslaught of the Pest

Is the army worm a snob? The city park authorities hope so—but time alone will tell. The question has been a much-mooted one in the park offices ever since Pennsylvania's capital was included in the line of march. Will the invader continue to prefer the exclusive grass of the private lawn or back yard? Or will he switch his politics and go in for the public grass in the great stretches of park turf?

The park authorities want him to remain a snobbish aristocrat. They don't even want him to be non-partisan. To date the army worm seems to be plodding along with perfect abandon in the yards and lawns, however; esplanade Park, the Cameron parkway, the River Front park. Wildwood—thus far the tiny foragers have not even considered them.

DR. AND MRS. CARMAN PLANNING AUTO TOUR TO SUMMER RESORTS

Woman Held For Mrs. Bailey's Death Says Jury's Action Was Unfair

NOT "INSANELY JEALOUS" Mrs. Carman Issues Statement in Which She Said She Was Merely Curious

By Associated Press Freeport, N. Y., July 18.—Plans for the immediate future occupied the attention to-day of Mrs. Florence Carman, who yesterday was released from the county jail at Mineola in $20,000 bail for trial this Fall under a grand jury indictment charging manslaughter in the first degree in connection with the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey. With her husband, Dr. Edwin Carman, and daughter Elizabeth, Mrs. Carman planned to start to-day on a grand tour on an automobile tour to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and the Delaware Water Gap. The Carmans expected to be gone about a month, spending a part of the time on their farm near the Delaware Water Gap.

In a statement Mrs. Carman told for the first time her story—the story she sought to tell the Nassau county grand jury, but which that body refused to hear. This she declared was unfair.

The statement, besides detailing her movements on the night of the murder of Mrs. Bailey in her husband's office, contains a denunciation of the detectives employed by the district attorney and a declaration that she has no fear of acquittal "unless they frame me up."

Not Insanely Jealous

Mrs. Carman in the statement said that it was not true that she was "insanely jealous, as the newspapers lead people to believe." She explained she was merely curious, saying that "the fact of the matter is that I had been on numerous occasions with my husband at various affairs, and had many a good time with him. But on such occasions people would route him about his 'many girls' and hint that the doctor was a regular devil. I simply made up my mind to find out what was the truth in those remarks, not because I was insanely jealous, but because I wanted to find out—I was curious."

"People often said to him in my presence: 'You have a cinch, doctor. You can go out at all hours of the night or any time of the day. You have an office where no one can see what's going on and what you are doing.' And so I put in the telephonic device."

In conclusion Mrs. Carman declared her determination to remain in Freeport after her trial.

MAKE TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

The Telegraph on last Friday erroneously stated that Mrs. J. N. Whiteman was stopping at the Mt. Gretna Inn. It should have read Mr. J. N. Whiteman instead of Mrs.
