The party which assassinated Calmette is going to do its best to defile his memory, for which purpose it has stopped at nothing and has not scrupled to violate confidences, thus giving a foretaste of what is in store.

Those who have slain him from behind would like to transform him into a man involved in shady finance—pirate—Calmette, do not put yourself out. You have well sharpened teeth. A heavy jaw, an appetite excited by the smell of blood; but the honor of Calmette is still in marble. You will not bite into it!

Mme. Calieux, after entering the court, stood with her eyes downcast and her shoulders bent, a timid looking figure in black. She had a cloth jacket suit a small black hat with a white linen collar edged with lace and an embroidery collar held together by an unobtrusive heart pin. The Florist then sat down, but as all in the court room except the judges were standing she hastily rose again and did not reseat herself until all the others did.

A moment later Judge Albanet in a clear, pleasant voice said: "What is your name?" "Mme. Calieux stood up and her lips quivered. The words 'Genevieve Calieux' could hardly be heard by the prisoner remained standing. As the president judge said, "You may sit down."

JACKSON TOWNSHIP MAN COLLECTS UNIQUE DATA. Spring Grove, Pa., July 20.—Many interesting facts concerning the Bible have been noted by Daniel Baubitz, Jackson township, who has just completed a six years' study of the book. The Bible, he says, contains 2,586,432 letters to translate, 173,692 words, 31,173 verses, 1,132 chapters and 166 books. The word Lord occurs 1,555 times and a remarkable feature is that the word reverend appears but once.

AUDITORS TO SEVE UNTIL TERMS EXPIRE

President Cassel Says Board Will Demand Books For 1914 and 1915 Too

Not only will Dauphin county's board of auditors examine the books of the county for 1913, but the same officials will continue to serve in the same capacity in auditing the books for the present year and President John W. Cassel, according to President John W. Cassel.

"True," said Mr. Cassel, "the court's opinion does not touch upon the question of whether we may audit these accounts for 1914 and 1915, but we contend that the same question that governs our action for 1913 should hold good for the other two years which we yet have to serve and for which we claim we were regularly elected."

"Do you mean that you will go into court again?" Mr. Cassel was asked. "I mean," said he significantly, "that if we've a right to do this auditing for 1913, we certainly think we should be permitted to do it for 1914 and 1915. Our terms do not expire until 1916."

Mr. Cassel said that his colleague, Francis W. Riegle and himself had been conferring with their counsel relative to petitioning the court at an early date to have another auditor appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Harry A. Walter, now poor director.

Ordered to Support Son.—Henry W. Reitinger, of Philadelphia, charged with the nonsupport of his 8-year-old son, Harry, was today ordered by President Judge Kunkel to pay $4 a week. Reitinger was also ordered to pay the costs. A relative in Philadelphia several weeks ago agreed to stand security for his nephew, but he was allowed to return to Philadelphia.

Wife Asks for Support.—Mrs. Viola Miller charged her husband, George W. Miller, with nonsupport. The wife alleged that the husband left her June 14 and since that time had not contributed to her support. The husband told the court that he was willing to return and support and maintain the court's order was withheld pending an effort to adjust the differences between the wife and husband.

SUDEN WEAKNESS DEVELOPED IN ST. PAUL

Bonds Reported Easy With Four Point Advance in Virginia Certificates

New York, July 20.—Private advices from Paris pointing to acute conditions on the Continent added to the early weakness. Baltimore and Ohio became increasingly heavy with further selling of the Preferred for future delivery. St. Paul also developed sudden weakness. An unusual feature was the offering of stocks of such widely different character as Texas Company and Chino Copper. The former declining five points in connection with proposed litigation. Meanwhile, however, Harriman and Steel were firm, with no marked improvement of other representatives shares. Bonds were easy with a four-point advance in Virginia Debenture certificates.
