

RED SPOTS FROM HEAD TO FOOT

When Two Months Old. Could Not Sleep. Itched All the Time. Piti- ful Sight. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Skin Smooth.

Green Farm, Greenwood, Del.—"When my girl was a baby of two months her back was covered with red spots as large as a penny. They continued to spread until they covered her from head to foot. The spots were inflamed. She could not sleep; they itched all the time. She was a pitiful sight. Her clothing aggravated her. The eruption made her very cross and fretful.

"A salve we used did no good. She was bad for about two weeks when my husband bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. I used them faithfully and soon the spots began to heal and she began to sleep at night. In one month's time her skin was smooth and soft as satin." (Signed) Mrs. Ida Biddle, Apr. 14, 1914.

CONDUCTING SUNDAY SERVICES IN PARKS

Exercises Held Weekly Under Trees in Harris Park by Saint Paul's Church

"The Groves were God's first temples," but the parks have taken their place. Harris Park is the scene every Sunday of open-air services conducted by the St. Paul's M. E. Church, Episcopal congregation. The pastor, the Rev. Robert W. Runyan, preached at the choir led the singing. The service itself did not vary from the regular Sunday evening meeting. The novelty lay in the setting.

It is proposed to conduct services in Harris Park for the next three or four Sunday evenings or longer if the hot weather does not break. One object of the services has been to draw many loiterers in the park who otherwise would not get within intimate sound of a preacher's voice or the hymns or a choir.

Second Stough Meeting Sunday—The second of a series of public mass meetings preliminary to the Stough campaign will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 3:30 in Market Square Presbyterian Church. The Rev. M. E. McNeal, deputy State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Professor F. E. Shambaugh, superintendent of the Dauphin county school, will speak. An informal reunion of those who made the Harrisburg trip to the Stough meeting will be held at headquarters to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock. Next Friday morning 10 o'clock members of the co-operating ministerium of which the Rev. E. E. Curtis, is chairman, will plan their work in the campaign.

Stevens Memorial Picnic Today.—Stevens Memorial Sunday school picnicked at Hershey Park to-day. Prizes were awarded all departments with the highest percentage of members in attendance, and an exciting athletic program was carried out.

The school, several hundred strong, left early this morning for the chocolate town resort. Among events that were carried on in the open to-day, preparatory to going through gastronomic exercises, were a baseball game, in which class rivalry at last had its chance to prove superiority. Novel races and prize contests for all ages and for both boys and girls were also held.

Crops Reported at Their Best as Business Drops

Special to The Telegraph Washington, July 21.—Agricultural conditions throughout the country show a startling contrast to conditions in transportation, manufacturing, industries and mining according to a report upon fundamental conditions sent by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to all of its members. This report is based upon data independently throughout the country during fundamental conditions and not the immediate state of business. The report says: "Manufacturing is exceedingly quiet throughout the country. Mining of nearly all kinds suffers from strikes and lack of demand. Lumber interests are feeling the dearth of building especially in small towns and in the country. The railroads, because of decreasing revenues and increasing expenses, have cut down their forces as far as possible and laid off many trains in the interest of economy. "Against these unfavorable conditions the agricultural situation is most encouraging, despite the conditions that have prevailed in the past few months, in which class rivalry at last had its chance to prove superiority. Novel races and prize contests for all ages and for both boys and girls were also held.

Representatives from Newville, Carlisle and other towns and surrounding country will help swell the crowd. A local committee, with Dr. M. M. Dougherty as chairman, will meet Mr. Bryan at the 6:45 p. m. train, when he will be taken by automobile to the home of the former and will be guest of honor at dinner with the following members of the committee: The Rev. Last night the big tent was crowded to its utmost capacity to hear Rabbi Stephen S. Wise whose theme was "Civic Religion." From start to finish he held the attention of the audience, who vigorously applauded his forceful remarks. Music by the Romano orchestra was a feature yesterday.

Mormons in Trouble in Lancaster County Town

Special to The Telegraph Columbia, Pa., July 22.—Mormon missionaries who came direct from Utah on a speaking tour, and began an invasion of this county, came to grief at a meeting held at a street corner in Christiana, a lower end borough, where they started service and attracted a crowd of 500 people. The men are zealous in their efforts for the Mormon cause and they aroused much enthusiasm among their hearers, which, however, was soon turned into anger, when they began an attack on the denominational systems represented in this section, and the result was a near-riot. Serious trouble, however, was averted by the more cool-headed element in the crowd. The missionaries were escorted to their hotel and later allowed to leave town without hindrance.

AT PAXTANG PARK

The management at Paxtang Park is certainly showing its patrons another swell vaudeville performance this week. Nellie Brewster in her playlet, called "Betty," deserves all the headline honors the park management can hand her. Miss Brewster has a singing voice of remarkable quality, while the story of "Betty" is humorous, entertaining and well acted. Clara Ballerini, a young lady of charming personality, presents a novel dancing and acrobatic stunt that has made a decidedly favorable impression on the park audiences. Miss Ballerini's trapeze work is somewhat different from anything of the kind we have ever seen at the park before. The balance of the show is made up of excellent material. On Friday evening there will be another free fireworks display at Paxtang. The quality of the park fireworks exhibitions is too well known to require comment. Anyone who likes a strictly first-class entertainment of this kind will be out at Paxtang on Friday evening.—Advertisement.

LAST DAY FOR THE FUNNY HORSE This is the last day in which to get a look at the funny horse at the Colonial Theater. This animal, which does service in an act called "Eloping," is the funniest thing that ever stepped on the Colonial stage. The act is sent out by Jesse L. Lasky, whose name is known in every household in Harrisburg as that of a man who sends out vaudeville worth while. There are other good acts on the bill, ranging out as good a show as can be found anywhere in the country for the low price of admission charged. Beginning to-morrow there will be a new bill for the balance of the week, including the four Komaz Brothers, a quartet of hoop rollers that have made a name for themselves. On the same bill will be a homemade movie film that shows the faces of hundreds of Harrisburgers. This film contains intimate scenes of the events at Bowman's picnic at Good Hope Mills, as well as scenes in Reservoir Park, this city, when the tennis courts, golf links and children's playgrounds are filled with happy athletes and youngsters.—Advertisement.
