Quality Not Premiums 20 for 10c

CIGARETTES

No Premiums with Camels

YOU get more than your money's worth when you buy Camels, 20 for 10 cents. That's why you won't find premiums or coupons. The cost of the tobacco prohibits their use.

Camels are so good in flavor, so smooth and even, that money can't buy a more delightful cigarette. They can't bite your tongue or parch your throat and do not leave that cigarette taste.

If your dealer can't supply you, send 10c for one package or $1.00 for a carton of ten packages (200 cigarettes), postage prepaid. After smoking 1 package, if you don't find CAMELS as represented, return the other nine packages, and we will refund your money.

Pitching Twenty-one Innings Didn't Hurt Marquard of Giants and Adams of Pirates

RUBE MARQUARD
Many baseball fans who wondered at the achievement of Rube Marquard of the New York Giants and "Babe" Adams of the Pittsburgh Pirates, in pitching twenty-one innings Saturday, nevertheless felt both men would be injured by the overwork. Twenty-one innings meant two and one-third games of baseball. Usually pitchers work every four days and do less work than these two did in less than four hours.

But Marquard worked his regular turn Wednesday against Cincinnati and won his game in fine form. Only two hits were had against him. He struck out four. He held his opponents to one run and the Giants behind him made only four. Marquard had not pitched before the game during the season, and the twenty-one inning victory, so far as could be seen, was really a benefit.

There has been nothing to show that Adams suffered from his hard work. He will take his regular turn in the box for Pittsburgh, and if he shows as well as in the long game, he will doubtless win many for his club during the remainder of the season.

CARLISLE ELKS LOSE TO HARRISBURG

Local Herd Turned George Brady's "Dreams" Into a "Nightmare" Yesterday

Weber pitched good ball for the Harrisburg Elks after the second inning yesterday and the local herd won from George Brady's Dreams; score, 6 to 6. The game was played at Mount Holly and was the big feature of the annual picnic by the Carlisle Elks.

Harrisburg was backed by a large crowd of rooters, including many women who accompanied the Harrisburg party. During the day there were other sports and contests and the Carlisle Elks provided "entertainment." Next Thursday the Carlisle Elks will play a return game at Island Park.

BRILLIANT WORK BY CITY'S TENNIS STARS

Preliminary Matches Will End Saturday; Scores in Yesterday's Matches

On the city tennis tournament program yesterday were eleven matches. Brilliant playing was again in order, and close contests gave the large gallery of spectators much to talk about. The preliminary matches will probably be finished Saturday.

In yesterday's matches A. S. Black defeated Karl Richards in the men's singles after three hard sets, scores 3-6, 6-1 and 6-4. A class contest match was that between N. Frasch and E. C. Fager. Frasch winning after a hard fight, scores 6-4, 12-10.

A. S. Black and A. L. Lightner defeated the Lloyd brothers in the men's doubles, scores 6-2 and 6-2.

In the ladies' singles Miss Ruth Stary defeated Miss May Romberger, 6-0, 9-7. The summaries:

Men's Singles.—C. E. Dasher defeated D. Griffin, 6-2, 6-0; C. Pollock defeated R. M. Lloyd, 6-0, 6-1; A. L. Lightner defeated D. Kunkel, 6-2, 6-3; J. C. Kunkel defeated L. Gouglar, 6-0, 6-1; A. S. Black defeated K. Richards, 3-6, 6-1, 6-0; F. Shreiner defeated A. Lightner, 6-0, 6-1; M. Frasch defeated E. C. Fager, 6-4, 12-10.

Men's Doubles.—A. S. Black and A. L. Lightner defeated J. and R. Lloyd, 6-2, 6-3.

Ladies' Singles.—Ruth Stary defeated Ray Romberger, 6-0, 9-7; Beulah Stary defeated Margaret Gilger, 6-3, 6-3; Helen Heckert defeated Martha Beck, 2-6, 5-1; Miss Margaret Galt defeated Miss Helen Keet by default.

With one victory out of seven games, Harrisburg returned last evening and this morning took up special work to get back in regular winning form. The entire squad worked for nearly two hours at Island Park.

Manager Cockill's only fear is with his patchers. They had a long winning streak and were due for a slump. He hopes they will be going right by tomorrow, when a double-header will be played with Wilmington. Chabek was scheduled for the mound work today, but because of the fact that the Chicks are still offering up a crippled team either Adams or O'Neill may be switched for the work.

On their arrival here last night Cockill's crew found a consignment of new bats. The players each picked out a favorite willow and they were used for the first time in the game today against Wilmington. On Monday Lancaster will be here for two games, Harrisburg will play at Lancaster on Tuesday and on Wednesday and Thursday will go to Allentown, returning for two games with Trenton on Friday and Saturday.

A WOMAN WHO HAS BECOME A GREAT FARMER

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside appears an account of the extraordinary achievements of Mrs. Lucille Lewis Perlet, of Texas. Mrs. Perlet's husband was a printer and publisher in San Antonio, Texas. He prospered and with prosperity came a natural determination to remain in that business. Mrs. Perlet, however, always had an intense desire to farm. After a time she decided to take it up independent of her husband. She took possession of her ranch in 1904 at which time her entire domain consisted of 62½ acres. She has succeeded beyond expectations and as for her husband, he is quite dumfounded. Of him she says: "I have elevated him to the proud position of my partner. We are one in our endeavors, but I am manager of this concern—don't forget that for an instant!"

CLOCK UNDER A WASHBOILER MAKES A GOOD SCARECROW

Farm and Fireside publishes in its current issue a page called "The Headwork Shop," which includes descriptions sent in by contributors of thirteen successful scarecrows for the field and garden. Following is one of the suggestions.

"A scarecrow that I never saw duplicated, and one that I used successfully for many years, was an old eight-day clock. Inverted over it, accentuating the sound of both ticking and striking."

"To the handles of the boiler I attached long red and white cloth streamers which fluttered in the breeze. But whether the wind blew or not, there was always the sound of the clock. It required attention only once a week and could be heard all over the farm. The birds have never failed to recognize it as a warning against trespassers."

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Big shoots are scheduled for tomorrow at Second and Division streets and West Fairview.

First game at Island Park to-morrow starts at 2 o'clock. The response to John Fox pitched some game yesterday at Reading.

The Noidig Memorials are without a game for Saturday and would like to schedule a strong amateur team for that date, the game to be played either at home or away. Address R. T. Gerhart, manager, or call Bell phone, 792.

The Enola P. R. Y. M. C. A. would like to arrange a game, preferably away from home, for Saturday afternoon. Would like to play any strong team, but prefer Hummelstown or Linglestown. Address A. L. Wynne, Enola Y. M. C. A.

Lemoine defeated Dauphin at Lemoine yesterday, score 4 to 2.

Susquehanna won from New Cumberland in a six inning game last night, score 5 to 1.

Eagle A. C. won from Stock A. C., score 8 to 4.

The White Roses defeated Methodist Boys yesterday, score 6 to 3.

The West End A. C. will play Hockersville on West End field, Saturday.

NOT ENOUGH RED LANTERNS IN THE COUNTRY

A writer in the current issue of Farm and Fireside says:

"Did you ever see a danger signal, a red lantern, hung on a country road, at night? I never did, and the most of my life has been spent in the country. I'm not blind either, and I have been on the road many times. More than once I have owed my life to the instinct and good sense of a horse under ground. And yet, all over the Middle West as I know it, it is the exception rather than the rule when the proper official, or anyone else, sees these danger spots."

ARTIFICIAL SNAKES AS SCARECROWS

Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, has the best letters describing successful scarecrows for the orchard and poultry yard. In the current issue a number of suggestions are published. One contributor describes, as follows, a successful scarecrow of a new and original kind:

"A form of scarecrow originated last year by a Connecticut gardener. It is striking contrast to the old variety that with every breeze waves a maudlin greeting to the passer-by. To save his strawberries from the devastation of ravenous birds this gardener cut into three-foot lengths garden hose and scattered the pieces through his bed of berry plants.

"As a result the birds left his berries severely alone, and he has a theory that it was because the birds thought the hose to be snakes. To an unprejudiced mind it seems equally probable that they avoided the berry patch because the pieces of hose were an unaccustomed sight in that place, and hence something to be wary of. But after all, why the berries were not harmed, the importance compared with the fact that the experiment was a decided success, and that the berries were not harmed, with a red lantern at night."

HUNDRED FEET TO WORK

Employees engaged in the construction of a single-span arch bridge of the Oregon Trunk Line over the Crooked river climbed a rope ladder 300 feet up the side of a solid wall of rock daily in going to their work. Camp was established in the canyon on account of the water supply. An incline railway was out of the question, so it was necessary to swing a hemp ladder from the top of the cliff.—From the August Popular Mechanics Magazine.
