1,800 Men's Shirts in a Clearance Tomorrow

Our Annual Late July Clean Up of Summer Brings Shirts From Our $1.00, $1.19 and $1.50 Tables Down to 69c

To-morrow's sale is quite the most important cleaning-up occasion we have put on this year—and that means it is the biggest shirt sale you have been invited to attend in Harrisburg for many months. It's simply a case of getting in ship shape, as the saying goes, for Fall arrivals, due in August, and instead of dragging out a sale at several prices we have gathered the entire 1800 into a one-price group. As a guide to the manner in which we have marked the reductions we need only say that you will find these well-known makes: $1.00 Eagle shirts, $1.19 Fulton shirts, $1.50 Manchester shirts and $1.50 Wachusett's and Superior brands. The materials are such as you would expect to find in shirts of the better kind; all sizes are represented. Be on hand to-morrow if you would save a tidy sum. And choose at 69c

The New Feather Breast Hats: $2.95 and $3.95

These are close-fitting jaunty turban styles and are as "light as a feather." Crowns are of satin encircled with white or black feather breast. Another style is trimmed with white wings and a touch of black velvet. It's the latest whim in millinery and is enjoying great popularity.

Black Velvet Crown Sailors

We are showing these jaunty sailors in many styles at $1.95. The brims are of white hemp, and the crowns are of black velvet. This style is the vogue because it can be worn with white or any colored dress.

The latest trimmings in white and black wings, breasts, birds and owl heads at lowest prices.

The Last of Our Finest Trimmed Summer Hats, reduced to $3.95

Cool Mohair, Tropical Worsted and Palm Beach Suits: Prices Go Down as the Temperature Soars

Where comfort is the primary object these are the suits that "fill the bill." And the quality of the materials and the careful tailor- ing also give assurance of service-giving garments—a combination that must prove alluring to men who desire to dress as cool as possi- ble in this sultry mid-Summer weather.

And if the many other demands of Summer should have precedent in your expense account, the matter is easily adjusted, for these hot weather suits are substantially reduced—as this announcement proves.
