

HOME WEEK BILL FOR BASEBALL FANS

Red Cross Day Will Wind Up a Busy Time at Island Park

By "UMP" Home Week at Island Park started this afternoon. "Pop" Foster and his Royal Bengal Tigers were the opening attraction. They will give a second performance to-morrow. Big things are also due during the balance of the week.

On Wednesday, Reading will again try to put another crimp in Harrisburg's winning stride. This will be Booster Day. It will be the beginning of a series of special days on which the local fans will have an opportunity to help in a number of good projects.

For Wednesday arrangements have been made to award prizes to players for special work. There will be two suits of clothes given away. Merchants have contributed other valuable prizes and both Harrisburg and Reading players will have a chance to win. Home runs, hits, sacrificing and valuable work will be worth something in this game.

Reading will be the attraction again on Thursday. This will be Lolly Pop Day. Every boy and girl under 14 years of age will be admitted free to the grounds and grandstand and each youngster will be presented with a lolly pop. Women will also be admitted free to the game and grandstand on this day. It is probable there will be some tin horns, a few cowbells and other things on hand to help along the rooting and boosting.

Friday will be Red Cross Day. This day promises to be of unusual interest. There will be field events for which prizes will be awarded and in addition prizes will again be given to players for special work. A large percentage of the gate and grandstand receipts for this day will be turned over to George W. Kelly, local representative of the Red Cross Society in Harrisburg. Arrangements will be made to have tickets on sale at many stores. It will be a half-holiday for the local business places and a record crowd is looked for. On Saturday Wilmington will say farewell to Harrisburg for the season—and probably for all time to come.

SHOOTING JACKETS FOR CRACK SHOTS

Good Scores Are Hung Up in Weekly Shoot at West Fairview

Winners in the class shoot at West Fairview on Saturday were presented with shooting jackets. C. Miller broke 72 out of 75, and was awarded high score honors. The winners in the class shoot were: First, Stewart; second, Bartz; Class A, Disney, J. Miller, D. Wagner and W. A. Miller; Class B, Helges, Neidhammer and J. Wagner; Class C, Yarnell and W. Hawbaker. The scores for the day follow:

Expect McLoughlin to Win Newport Tourney

Newport, Aug. 24.—Lawn tennis players will watch the progress of the thirty-fourth annual deciding of the all comers' national singles championship tournament, which begins here to-day on the court of the picturesque Casino, chiefly with the thought as to who will be developed to go after the Davis cup this year.

Sunday Baseball For Atlantic City

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 24.—The success of the Sunday baseball game in Atlantic City yesterday between Reading, of the Tri-State League, and the Beach Combers in which the former won 3-2, probably means that the seashore will again be represented in the circuit next season. The pretzels have been running bad financially at home and the record-breaking crowd was a revelation.

Atlantic City did poorly here in Tri-State last year, but when it considered that the Boardwalk buds fell so far in the rear that after the first six weeks it never got out of the cellar berth, better could hardly be expected. When the old-time "Red Roses" moved here from Lancaster the summer before last, much better results were obtained and Atlantic City looked like a good town for the league.

Sunday contests determine the future in this city. Approximately two thousand were in the stand to-day and this shows the public sentiment in relation to Sabbath baseball. Atlantic City has taken a liberal turn for amusements, and this led the promoters of the home club to chance to-day's exhibition. No action was taken, and, in consequence, Sunday attractions will be staged throughout the year. The World's Champion Athletics play in Atlantic City next Sunday. It is more than likely that crowds will be turned away at this coming game.

FOOTBALL OFFICIALS MAY UNDERGO EXAMINATION

There was so much dissatisfaction with officials on the football field last year that the intercollegiate rules committee is considering means by which officials may be trained. Every year the list of men who wish to officiate is swelled by the names of college graduates, many of whom were good players themselves but who have never shown the slightest capacity as officials. The fact that a man was a good player is no assurance that he will be a success as an official.

READING CRIPPLED

Reading, Pa., Aug. 24.—The local Tri-State team will finish with a deficit aggregating $2,000 according to a statement made by Business Manager Weitzel to-day. Since the beginning of the season the patronage has been exceeding discouraging, and even when the team was in first place and fighting for the pennant the crowds were very small.

TELEGRAPH OPEN DATES; WANT OUT OF TOWN GAMES

Owing to the disbanding of the Mechanicsburg team the Harrisburg Telegraph baseball team is without a game for August 29, and would like to hear from some strong amateur team out of town. September 5 and 12 open. Address or phone Chas. W. Thomas, care of Harrisburg Telegraph.

HANDICAP SCORES IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

In the Harrisburg Park Golf Club matches on Saturday E. A. Noble won high honors. His net score was 71. C. G. Carl was second with 73. The tournament will close September 13. The summaries for Saturday follows:

Dandee Battles For Championship Sept. 22

Johnnie Dundee

The return match between Kilbane and Dundee, to be staged in Los Angeles on September 22, is the only championship scrap in prospect for many months to come. After defeating Dundee and Kilbane in the first round, Dundee is now the champion.

Three Teams Close in Central League

Middletown lost to New Cumberland on Saturday, score 5 o 1. The cross river contingent put up a great battle. The leaders still have an advantage of three games. Wertz was a big factor and he looks as if he will keep up his good work during the balance of the season.

Five Teams Close in Central League

At Highspire, Steelton put the crimp in Highspire's stride, score 2 to 0. Finnen was the star, holding Highspire down when men were on bases. Three teams in the Central Pennsylvania League are now neck and neck. The standing of the teams:

Four Game Lead Looks Good; Pennant Not Yet Cinched

Cockill's Crew Can Stand a Few Losses; Allentown Must Win Every Game

Cockill's crew starts the week with a better chance for winning the pennant than ever. Splitting the double-header at Allentown Saturday was a big help. Mark Adams allowing four hits and with a fast fielding and hitting team back of him, won the first game, score 2 to 0. It was a ten inning struggle.

Junior Tennis Matches Will Include Finals

Matches in the junior city tennis tournament will be played Wednesday and will include a number of finals. Score made Saturday follow: Final in the girls' singles: Miss Stary won from Miss Rumberger by the score of 6-3, 6-4.

IN THE LAST GENERAL WAR

What Happened to Finance and Trade Is Interesting History Almost a century has passed since Europe was confronted with such scenes as have been brought about since the first of August. The war between France and England, which began in 1803, lasted something like twelve years and almost every government of Europe eventually took part in it.
